RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that a statue of Charles “Charlie” James Kirk should be accepted for display in the House of Representatives wing of the United States Capitol to honor his enduring legacy of free expression, civic leadership, and unwavering commitment to the American principles of faith, family, and freedom.

Whereas Charles “Charlie” Kirk was an inspirational figure in conservative politics;

Whereas Charlie founded Turning Point USA in 2012, with the mission of educating students on the principles of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and limited government;

Whereas, under Charlie's leadership, Turning Point USA encouraged open debate and emphasized the importance of civic engagement in a way that drew millions to its mission;

Whereas Charlie understood that the United States Constitution is the most important political document in history, enshrining and protecting the God-given rights of every human from the heavy hand of government;

Whereas Charlie served as an example of the best of humanity, treating everyone he encountered with respect, offering them the truth, and maintaining a willingness to engage in dialogue with anyone he encountered; and

Whereas Charlie was assassinated for his beliefs and work on September 10, 2025, in direct contradiction with the right and ideal of freedom of speech on which our nation was founded: Now, therefore, be it
