2 (iii) sovereign wealth funds, includ-
3 ing—
4 (I) the China Investment Cor-
5 poration;
6 (II) China Life Insurance Com-
7 pany;
8 (III) the China National Social 9 Security Fund; and
10 (IV) the Silk Road Fund;
11 (iv) urban commercial banks; and 12 (v) rural financial institutions;
13 (B) international financing institutions, in-
14 cluding—
15 (i) the Asian Infrastructure Invest-
16 ment Bank; and
17 (ii) the New Development Bank; and
18 (C) any other financial institution or entity
19 otherwise controlled, overseen, or managed by 20 the Government of the People’s Republic of 21 China;
22 (3) the identification of the infrastructure
23 projects referred to in paragraph (2) that are 24 projects under the Belt and Road Initiative;

1 (4) an assessment of projects that have caused
2 the country to incur significant debt that has the po-
3 tential to harm its economic prosperity and national 4 sovereignty;

5 (5) a list of the known or speculated collateral
6 listed by the respective country for the debts in-7 curred by Belt and Road Initiative projects referred 8 to in paragraph (1);

25 the House of Representatives.

1 SEC. 4. NOTIFICATION OF FUTURE BELT AND ROAD INITIA-
2 TIVE PROJECTS.

3 After the preparation and submission of the reports
4 required under section 3(a), the Secretary of State shall 5 require the respective embassy and the China Desk at the 6 Department of State to inform the Under Secretary of 7 State for Political Affairs of any project described in sec-8 tion 3(b)(2) not later than 30 days after the date on which 9 the Country China Officer is informed of such project.

10 SEC. 5. ANNUAL COMPREHENSIVE REPORT OF BELT AND 11 ROAD INITIATIVE PROJECTS.

12 During the 10-year period beginning on the date of 13 the enactment of this Act, the Under Secretary of State
14 for Political Affairs shall submit an annual report to Con-
15 gress that—

16 (1) contains all findings relating to projects
17 controlled or financed by the Government of the 18 People's Republic of China or state-owned enter-
19 prises in the People's Republic of China submitted
20 by Country China Officers through the process de-
21 scribed in sections 3 and 4 during the 12-month re-
22 porting period; and

23 (2) includes updated findings and analyses re-
24 lated to paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of section 3(b).

1 SEC. 6. ANNUAL STRATEGY TO COUNTER PRC INFLUENCE.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Country China Officer at 3 each respective embassy, in consultation with the Chief of 4 Mission for the respective country, shall develop a com-
5 prehensive, country-specific strategy to counter the influ-
6 ence of the People’s Republic of China, including a plan
7 to counter anti-American messaging by the People’s Re-
8 public of China, within their country of responsibility.

9 (b) USE OF STRATEGY.—The strategy developed pur-
10 suant to subsection (a) shall be used to equip all personnel
11 across all embassies, consulates, and other diplomatic 12 posts in the respective country of responsibility with the 13 tools needed to effectively counter the influence of the Peo-
14 ple’s Republic of China in their respective context and 15 country of responsibility.

16 (c) SUBMISSION.—During the 10-year period begin-
17 ning on the date of the enactment of this Act, each Chief
18 of Mission shall submit an annual report to the Under 19 Secretary of State for Political Affairs that—

20 (1) describes the implementation of the strategy
21 developed pursuant to subsection (a) during the re-
22 porting period; and

23 (2) assesses specific challenges and opportuni-
24 ties relating to the People’s Republic of China in the 25 respective country of responsibility.

1 (d) DISTRIBUTION.—The Under Secretary of State
2 for Political Affairs shall submit an annual report that 3 summarizes the information contained in the reports re-
4 ceived pursuant to subsection (c) to the heads of the bu-
5 reaus of the Department of State, as appropriate.

6 (e) EXCLUSIONS.—Countries with limited or no in-7 vestments by the Government of the People’s Republic of 8 China shall be excluded from the strategy developed pur-
9 suant to subsection (a).

10 SEC. 7. PROCUREMENT PROJECTIONS.

11 (a) ANNUAL REPORT.—During the 10-year period
12 beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act, the 13 Country China Officer at each respective embassy, in con-14 sultation with other embassy personnel, shall submit an 15 annual report to the Under Secretary of State for Political 16 Affairs that—

17 (1) describes the procurement and infrastruc-
18 ture needs of their respective country of responsi-19 bility; and

20 (2) assesses specific challenges and opportuni-
21 ties relating to potential financing by the People’s 22 Republic of China for procurement and infrastruc-
23 ture projects to meet such needs.

24 (b) DISTRIBUTION.—The Under Secretary of State
25 for Political Affairs shall submit an annual report summa-

1 rizing the information contained in the reports received 2 pursuant to subsection (a) to—

3 (1) the heads of the bureaus of the Department
 4 of State, as appropriate; and

5 (2) other instrumentalities of the Federal Gov-
 6 ernment, including the United States International 7 Development Finance Corporation.

8 SEC. 8. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING DEVELOPMENT
 9 FINANCE.

10 It is the sense of Congress that, as the People’s Re-
 11 public of China’s influence grows through infrastructure 12 (particularly infrastructure that can easily be shifted from 13 economic to military uses), the United States Inter-14 national Development Finance Corporation should 15 prioritize providing alternative financing opportunities
 16 that increase port and air field capacity of countries
 17 that—

18 (1) meet the investment criteria set forth in 19 title II of the BUILD Act of 2018 (division F of 20 Public Law 115–254; 22 U.S.C. 9621 et seq.); and

21 (2) are targets of the predatory infrastructure
 22 development scheme of the People’s Republic of 23 China commonly known as the Belt and Road Initia-
 24 tive.
