11 nent or official of any such agency.

12       “(g) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-

16 against the disclosure of information.

17       “(h) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—A challenge to any

7       “(c) CIVIL PENALTIES.—

8           “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may impose
9 the following civil penalties on a person for each vi-

11 this section:

12           “(A) A monetary penalty that is the great-13 er of—

14           “(i) $250,000; or

15           “(ii) an amount that is twice the value

17 tion with respect to which the penalty is 18 imposed.

19           “(B) Revocation of any mitigation measure

14       “(d) PRE-PENALTY NOTICES; SETTLEMENTS.—

15           “(1) PRE-PENALTY NOTICES.—

16              “(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary has 17         reason to believe that there has occurred a vio-
18         lation of subsection (a) and determines that a
19         civil monetary penalty under subsection
20         (c)(1)(A) is warranted, the Secretary shall issue
21         a pre-penalty notice informing the alleged viola-
22         tor of the intent of the Secretary to impose a
23         monetary penalty. The Secretary shall consider
24         any voluntary disclosures of a violation before
25         issuing such notice.

1                 “(B) FORM OF NOTICE.—A pre-penalty
2 notice issued under subparagraph (A) shall be

4 mail to the alleged violator.

5                 “(C) EFFECTS OF ACTIONS OF OTHER
6 AGENCIES.—A pre-penalty notice may be issued

11                 “(2) RESPONSES.—

12                 “(A) RIGHT TO RESPOND.—An alleged vio-

17                 “(i) IN GENERAL.—An alleged viola-
18 tor shall respond to a pre-penalty notice
19 issued under paragraph (1)(A), except as 20 provided by clause (ii), on or before the 21 30th day after the date of the issuance of 22 the notice. Failure to submit a response
23 during the time required by the previous 24 sentence shall be deemed to be a waiver of 25 the right to respond.

1                         “(ii) EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINE.—If 2                         the deadline under clause (i) for a response
3                         to a pre-penalty notice falls on a Federal 4                         holiday or weekend, that deadline shall be 5                         extended to the following business day.
6                         Any other extensions of the deadline shall 7                         be granted, at the discretion of the Sec-
8                         retary, only upon specific request to the 9                         Secretary.

10                        “(C) FORM AND METHOD.—A response
11                         under subparagraph (A) to a pre-penalty notice
12                         need not be in any particular form, but it is re-
13                         quired to be typewritten and signed by the al-
14                         leged violator or a representative thereof, con-15                         tain information sufficient to indicate that it is 16                         in response to the pre-penalty notice, and in-17                         clude the identification number listed on the 18                         pre-penalty notice. A digital signature is accept-19                         able.

20                        “(D) CONTENT.—Any response under sub-
21                         paragraph (A) to a pre-penalty notice is re-
22                         quired—

23                         “(i) to set forth in detail why the al-
24                         leged violator either believes that a viola-
25                         tion of subsection (a) did not occur or why

1           a civil monetary penalty under subsection
2           (c)(1)(A) is otherwise unwarranted under 3           the circumstances; and

4           “(ii) to include all documentary or 5           other evidence available to the alleged vio-
6           lator that supports the arguments set forth
7           in the response.

8           “(3) REPRESENTATION.—A representative of 9           the alleged violator may act on behalf of the alleged 10          violator, but any oral communication with the Sec-

12          specific allegations contained in the pre-penalty no-
13          tice is required to be preceded by a written letter of 14          representation, unless the pre-penalty notice was 15          served upon the alleged violator in care of the rep-
16          resentative.

17           “(4) SETTLEMENT.—Settlement discussions
18          may be initiated by the Secretary, the alleged viola-
19          tor, or the alleged violator’s authorized representa-
20          tive.

21           “(e) PENALTY IMPOSITION.—

22           “(1) IN GENERAL.—If, after considering any 23          written response to a pre-penalty notice under sub-
24          section (d)(2) and any relevant facts, including vol-
25          untary disclosure of a violation of subsection (a), the

1       Secretary determines that there was a violation by 2       the alleged violator named in the pre-penalty notice
3       and that a civil monetary penalty under subsection
4       (c)(1)(A) is appropriate, the Secretary may issue a
5       penalty notice to the violator containing a deter-
6       mination of the violation and the imposition of the 7       monetary penalty.

8           “(2) FINAL AGENCY ACTION.—The issuance of 9       the penalty notice shall constitute final agency ac-

11       5, United States Code.

12          “(3) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—The violator may seek

14       tion 1785G.

15       “SEC. 1785I. RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER LAWS.

16          “(a) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION RELATING TO OTHER

25       implement this part.

1       “(c) COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN THE 2 UNITED STATES.—Nothing in this part shall prevent or 3 preclude the President or the Committee on Foreign In-
4 vestment in the United States from exercising any author-
5 ity under section 721 of the Defense Production Act of 6 1950 (50 U.S.C. 4565 et seq.) as would be available in 7 the absence of this part.

8       “(d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION FOR THE OICTS.—
9 Nothing in this part may be construed as altering any of 10 the authority of the Office of Information and Commu-
