S. 560

To amend title 18, United States Code, to reauthorize and expand the National Threat Assessment Center of the Department of Homeland Security.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 13, 2025

Mr. GRASSLEY (for himself, Ms. CORTEZ MASTO, Mr. SCOTT of Florida, Mr. KING, Ms. COLLINS, Ms. HASSAN, and Mr. RICKETTS) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to reauthorize and expand the National Threat Assessment Center of the Department of Homeland Security.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “EAGLES Act of 5 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) On February 14, 2018, 17 individuals were 9 murdered in a senseless and violent attack on Mar-

1 jory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland
2 Florida, a school whose mascot is the eagle.

3 (2) These individuals—Alaina Petty, Alex
4 Schachter, Alyssa Alhadeff, Cara Loughran, Carmen
5 Schentrup, Gina Montalto, Helena Ramsay, Jaime
6 Guttenberg, Joaquin Oliver, Luke Hoyer, Martin
7 Duque, Meadow Pollack, Nicholas Dworet, Peter
8 Wang, Aaron Feis, Chris Hixon, and Scott Beigel—
9 lived lives of warmth, joy, determination, service,
10 and love, and their loss is mourned by the Nation.

11 (3) Like many attackers, the shooter in that at-
12 tack exhibited patterns of threatening and con-
13 cerning behavior prior to the massacre that were 14 alarming and that should have alerted law enforce-
15 ment and other Federal, State, and local officials
16 about the potential for violence.

17 (4) Acts of targeted violence, including the at-
18 tack on Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School,
19 are preventable.

20 (5) Lives were saved because of the brave and 21 exemplary conduct of many students, teachers, and 22 staff at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, in-23 cluding several of the victims of the attack.

24 (6) The National Threat Assessment Center of 25 the United States Secret Service (referred to in this

1 Act as the “Center”) was established in 1998 to 2 conduct research on all forms of targeted violence,
3 including attacks targeting government officials, gov-
4 ernment facilities, workplaces, houses of worship, K–
5 12 schools, universities, and mass attacks in public
6 spaces.

7 (7) Research published by the Center on tar-
8 geted violence has shown that—

9 (A) most incidents were planned in ad-
10 vance;

11 (B) the attackers’ behavior gave some indi-
12 cation that the individual was planning, or at 13 least contemplating, an attack;

14 (C) most attackers had already exhibited a 15 pattern of behavior that elicited concern by 16 other people in their lives; and

17 (D) prior to the attack, someone associated 18 with the attacker, such as a family member or 19 peer, often knew the attack was to likely to 20 occur.

21 (8) Through their research, the Center devel-
22 oped the behavioral threat assessment model of the 23 United States Secret Service for preventing targeted
24 violence, which includes a 3-step process—

1 (A) identifying individuals who are exhib-
2 iting threatening or concerning behaviors that 3 indicate they may pose a risk of violence;

4 (B) assessing whether the individual poses
5 a risk, based on articulable facts; and

6 (C) risk posed by the individualized
7 proactive and preventive measures.

8 (9) The behavioral threat assessment model
9 works of the United States Secret Service most ef-
10 fективively when all the relevant parties, including local 11 law enforcement, mental health professionals, work-
12 place managers, school personnel, and members of 13 the community, are part of a comprehensive protocol
14 to identify, assess, and manage a potential threat.

15 (10) The primary goal of behavioral threat as-
16 essment programs is to prevent targeted violence,
17 with an emphasis on providing early intervention
18 and connecting individuals exhibiting threatening or 19 concerning behavior to existing community resources
20 for support.

21 (11) Early intervention is a proven and effective
22 way to prevent violent conduct that would otherwise
23 harm others and necessitate more punitive action,
24 including criminal penalties.

1 (12) The parties involved need the appropriate
2 research, guidance, training, and tools to establish 3 the appropriate mechanisms for implementing this 4 type of preventative approach.

5 (13) In K–12 schools, a behavioral threat as-
6 sessment is a proactive approach to identify, assess,
7 and provide age-appropriate interventions, resources,
8 and supports for students who display behavior that 9 elicits concerns for the safety of themselves or oth-
10 ers.

11 (14) There has been a 79 percent decline in ju-
12 venile arrests in K–12 school communities that have 13 received training from the Center, thus successfully
14 diverting youth away from the criminal justice sys-
15 tem.

16 (15) The demand from local communities
17 throughout the United States for behavioral threat
18 assessment trainings has significantly increased.
19 Since its inception, the Center has provided over 20 2,575 training sessions to over 273,000 attendees.

21 (16) From fiscal year 2018 to fiscal year 2022, 22 the Center has experienced a 117 percent increase in 23 demand for training sessions, with 5 times as many 24 participants.

8 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
9 gress that a fact-based behavioral threat assessment ap-
10 proach, involving local law enforcement, mental health
11 professionals, workplace managers, school personnel, other 12 public safety officials, and members of the community, is 13 one of the most effective ways to prevent targeted violence
14 impacting communities across the country, and is a fitting
15 memorial to those whose lives were taken in the February
16 14, 2018, attack on Marjory Stoneman Douglas High
17 School and those who heroically acted to preserve the lives
18 of their friends, students, and colleagues.
