A BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE EQUITABLE SETTLEMENT OF CERTAIN INDIAN LAND DISPUTES REGARDING LAND IN ILLINOIS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

OCTOBER 14, 2025.—Ordered to be printed

Ms. MURKOWSKI, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 550]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (S. 550) to provide for the equitable settlement of certain Indian land disputes regarding land in Illinois, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of S. 550 is to authorize the United States Court of Federal Claims to consider treaty-based land claims of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma and to extinguish any future claims to those lands by the Tribe and its members.

BACKGROUND AND NEED

The Miami Tribe of Oklahoma is a federally-recognized Indian Tribe whose ancestral homelands are located in present-day Indiana, Illinois, and Ohio.¹ In 1805, members of the Miami Tribe, and several of its component bands, signed the Treaty of Grouseland with the United States. The Treaty relinquished title to the Tribe's lands in southeastern Illinois and reserved lands for the Tribe in ¹In 1846, the United States forcibly removed the Miami Tribe to present-day Kansas; it was removed again by force in 1867 to present-day Oklahoma, where the Tribe's seat of government is currently located.

the Wabash River watershed in east-central Illinois.² Under terms of the Treaty, the United States agreed that it would not take any part of the reserved lands without consent of the Miami Tribe or the other Tribal signatories.³

Through a series of additional treaties executed between 1805 and 1840, the Tribe ceded all but 2.6 million acres of the lands that it reserved under the Treaty of Grouseland.⁴ Beginning in 1821 and continuing throughout the 19th century, the United States sold parcels of the reserved lands without consent of, or compensation to, the Tribe. In 2000, the Tribe filed a treaty-based takings claim against the United States, alleging that the United States did not transfer the reserved lands with clear title, resulting in clouded title for current landowners.⁵

SUMMARY

S. 550 grants the United States Court of Federal Claims jurisdiction to decide a takings claim by the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma arising under its 1805 Treaty of Grouseland with the United States; provides one-year for the Tribe to file its claim with the Court; and extinguishes any and all future claims by the Tribe, its members, descendants, or predecessors in interest to lands in Illinois.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

S. 550 was introduced by Senators Mullin and Durbin on February 12, 2025. The Committee held a business meeting on March 5, 2025, to consider S. 550 and ordered the bill to be reported favorably, without amendment, by voice vote.

An identical companion bill, H.R. 2827, was introduced by Representative Cole (R–OK–4), with Representatives McCollum (D–MN–4) and Bost (R–IL–12) as cosponsors, in the House of Representatives on April 10, 2025.

In the 118th Congress, an identical bill, S. 2796, was introduced by Senator Mullin on September 13, 2023. Senators Duckworth and Durbin were added as cosponsors on July 9, 2024. The Committee held a legislative hearing on S. 2796 on February 8, 2024. (S. Hrg. 118–416). On May 1, 2024, the Committee held a business meeting to consider S. 2796 and ordered the bill to be reported favorably, without amendment, by voice vote (S. Rept. 118–211).

An identical companion bill, H.R. 5831 was introduced by Representative Cole (R–OK–4) with Representatives McCollum (D–MN–4), Brecheen (R–OK–2) and Bost (R–IL–12) as cosponsors, in the House of Representatives on September 29, 2023.

In the 117th Congress, Representative McCollum (D–MN–4) introduced a similar bill, H.R. 6063, with Representative Mullin (R–OK–2) as a cosponsor in the House of Representatives on Novem-

The House Committee on Natural Resources Subcommittee for Indigenous Peoples of the United States held a hearing on the bill on April 27, 2022. H.R. 6063 was considered at a markup in the House Natural Resources Committee, on June 15, 2022, and ordered reported favorably by voice vote, with an amendment in the nature of a substitute (H. Rept. 117-597).

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

The Senate Committee on Indian Affairs in an open business meeting on March 5, 2025, by a majority voice vote of a quorum present, recommends that the Senate pass S. 550, without amendment.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1—Settlement of claims

Section 1(a)(1) authorizes the United States Court of Federal Claims to hear, determine, and render judgement on a land claim of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma under its 1805 Treaty with the United States.

Section 1(a)(2) clarifies the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma has one year, after the date of enactment of the Act, to file a claim with the United States Court of Federal Claims based on its 1805 Treaty.

Section 1(b) clarifies that except for a claim made under Section 1(a)(1), any and all future claims by the Tribe, its members, descendants, or predecessors in interest to lands in Illinois are extinguished.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATIONS

S. 550, a bill to provide for the equitable settlement of certain Indian land disputes regarding land in Illinois, and for other purposes
As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on March 5, 2025
By Fiscal Year, Millions of Dollars	2025	2025-2030	2025-2035
Direct Spending (Outlays)	0	*	*
Revenues	0	*	*
Increase or Decrease (-) in the Deficit	0	*	*
Spending Subject to Appropriation (Outlays)	0	*	not estimated
Increases net direct spending in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2036?	No	Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply? Yes
Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2036?	No	Mandate Effects
		Contains intergovernmental mandate?	Yes, Under Threshold
		Contains private-sector mandate?	No

S. 550 would grant jurisdiction to the U.S. Court of Federal Claims for the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma's land claim against the United States arising from the Treaty of Grouseland. The bill would require the court to render judgement without regard to the statute of limitations or any other delay-based defense. The bill also would extinguish all other claims, including any future claims, of the tribe to land in Illinois.

Groups that file civil suits in the U.S. Court of Federal Claims pay filing and administrative fees, which are recorded as revenues. Those fees can be spent without further appropriation to cover the administrative costs of the judiciary. On that basis, CBO estimates that enacting S. 550 would increase both revenues and direct spending by an insignificant amount over the 2025–2035 period.

S. 550 contains an intergovernmental mandate as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) because it would extinguish the tribe’s claims to land in Illinois. Eliminating an existing right of action is a mandate because the right to seek redress and recover damages beyond what is provided in the bill would be lost. CBO estimates that the cost of the mandate would not exceed the annual threshold established in UMRA ($103 million in 2025, adjusted annually for inflation).

S. 550 contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Margot Berman (for federal costs) and Rachel Austin (for mandates). The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,
Director, Congressional Budget Office.

REGULATORY AND PAPERWORK IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires each report accompanying a bill to evaluate the regulatory and paperwork impact that would be incurred in carrying out the bill. The Committee believes that S. 550 will have minimal impact on regulatory or paperwork requirements.

EXECUTIVE TESTIMONY AND COMMUNICATIONS

The testimony provided by the U.S. Department of the Interior from the February 8, 2024, hearing on S. 2796 follows:

STATEMENT OF KATHRYN ISOM-CLAUDE, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR POLICY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FOR INDIAN AFFAIRS U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

S. 2796, A BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE EQUITABLE SETTLEMENT OF CERTAIN INDIAN LAND DISPUTES REGARDING LAND IN ILLINOIS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Good morning, Chairman Schatz, Vice Chairman Murkowski, and members of the Committee. My name is Kathryn Isom-Clause and I am the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and Economic Development for Indian Affairs at the Department of the Interior (Department). Thank you for the opportunity to present testimony on . . . S. 2796, A bill to provide for the equitable settlement of certain Indian land disputes regarding land in Illinois, and for other purposes . . . S. 2796 would confer jurisdiction to the United States Court of Federal Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment regarding the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma's land claims under the Treaty of Grouseland (7 Stat. 91), signed August 21, 1805, and would remove legal or equitable defenses based on the passage of time, including the statute of limitations. The jurisdiction conferred to the United States Court of Federal Claims expires unless a claim is filed under paragraph (1) of S. 2796 by the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma within one year of enactment of this legislation. The bill extinguishes all other claims to title of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma, or any member, descendant, or predecessor in interest to the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma to land in the State of Illinois.

The Department needs to better understand the claims by the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma and the impacts of this legislation on those claims and any remedy sought by the Tribe. The Department therefore takes no position on the legislation at this time.

The Committee notes that while the Department did not take a position on S. 2796 at the February 8, 2024, hearing, the Department subsequently provided an Executive Communication informing the Committee that it supports the legislation after review of the Tribe's claims, the impacts of S. 2796 on those claims, and any remedy sought by the Tribe.⁶

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In accordance with subsection 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee notes that no changes in existing law are made by S. 550 as ordered reported.
