

Biography

Stacy Eggers, IV is a third generation attorney with the family operated law firm of Eggers, Eggers, Eggers, & Eggers. Mr. Eggers was licensed to practice law in 2001 and has done so continuously since that date in his hometown of Boone, North Carolina. Mr. Eggers law practice includes representation of local governments, including Mitchell County, North Carolina and the Towns of Banner Elk, Beech Mountain, and Sugar Mountain.

In 2018, Mr. Eggers was appointed to serve as a member of the North Carolina Bipartisan State Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement, which administered elections and addressed ethics complaints raised against elected officials. Upon the dissolution of that Board, he has been reappointed three times to the State Board of Elections. Prior to being appointed to the State Board, Mr. Eggers served as a County Board of Elections member for eight years. Mr. Eggers lives in the Hurricane Helene disaster area and was heavily involved in crafting emergency relief efforts to ensure voting continued in western North Carolina despite the aftermath of the storm.

Mr. Eggers is married to his high school sweetheart and law partner, Kimberly McGuire Eggers. They have three sons: Stacy Eggers V, Alexander Eggers, and Henry Eggers.
