

THOMAS P. QUAADMAN
CHIEF OF GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC POLICY

Thomas “Tom” Quaadman is the chief government affairs and public policy officer at the Investment Company Institute. Quaadman manages the government affairs and policy team for ICI.

Quaadman joined ICI after 16 years at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. As Senior Vice President for Economic Policy, Quaadman directed the Chamber’s engagement on financial regulation, technology, tax policy and intellectual property. Quaadman headed the Chamber’s efforts on the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the Jumpstart Our Business Start-Ups Act.

He has testified numerous times before congressional committees and in 2012 was named by Treasury & Risk magazine as one of the top 100 influential people in finance.

Quaadman graduated cum laude from New York Law School and is a graduate of the College of Staten Island. He is a member of the New York and Connecticut state bars. Quaadman and his wife, Tara, reside in Alexandria, Virginia.