
STEVEN FELDGUS

Former Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary – Land and Minerals Management

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary – Land and Minerals Management With the Delegated Authority of the Assistant Secretary – Land and Minerals Management U.S. Department of the Interior	January 2024 – January 2025
Deputy Assistant Secretary – Land and Minerals Management U.S. Department of the Interior	May 2021 – January 2024
Deputy Staff Director and Senior Energy and Minerals Policy Advisor House Natural Resources Committee, Democratic (Majority) Staff	January 2019 – May 2021
Senior Energy Policy Advisor House Natural Resources Committee, Democratic (Minority) Staff	September 2013 – December 2018
Senior Advisor to the Director Bureau of Land Management	March 2013 – September 2013
Senior Advisor to the Director Bureau of Safety and Environmental Enforcement	October 2011 – March 2013
Democratic Professional Staff House Transportation & Infrastructure Committee; Subcommittee on Highways and Transit	January 2011 – October 2011
Legislative Staff House Natural Resources Committee, Subcommittee on Energy & Mineral Resources	April 2007 – January 2011
Legislative Assistant Office of Senator Robert Menendez (January 2006 – April 2007) Office of Congressman Robert Menendez (August 2004 – January 2006)	August 2004 – April 2007
AAAS/ACS Congressional Science Fellow Office of Senator Jon Corzine (D-NJ)	October 2003 – August 2004

ACADEMIC POSITIONS & BACKGROUND

Lecturer, Inorganic Chemistry University of Wisconsin–Madison	September 2002 – May 2003
Dreyfus Postdoctoral Teaching Fellow Hamilton College	September 2000 – July 2002
Ph.D., Physical Chemistry University of Wisconsin–Madison	August 2000
B.S., Chemistry University of Massachusetts at Amherst	May 1994