

Julie Calder is the Vice President of Guest Experience at Jackson Hole Mountain Resort (JHMR), bringing over 25 years of hospitality leadership to the role. Known for her innovative approach to enhancing guest services, Julie played a key role in implementing managed capacity strategies to elevate the visitor experience at JHMR. Prior to becoming a JHMR executive, Julie served as Jackson Hole's Director of International Sales and Marketing.

She holds a B.A. from the University of Richmond and an MBA from George Washington University, and she began her career as a Contract Negotiator for the Naval Air Systems Command in Washington, D.C.

In addition to her role at JHMR, Julie serves as Board Chair of the Jackson Hole Travel and Tourism Joint Powers Board. In the past, she sat on numerous other boards including the Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce, Jackson Hole Therapeutic Riding Association, and the Jackson Hole Land Trust Open Space Council.

Julie lives in Wilson, Wyoming, with her husband and two teenage daughters, who are growing up surrounded by the beauty of the Tetons.
