

Penney Capital:

Founded in 2017 by President & CEO Clark Penney, Penney Capital excels at navigating, connecting, and expanding new development opportunities and large-investment infrastructure projects.

Prior to founding Penney Capital, Clark Penney began his career working on energy and defense committees with the U.S. Senate in Washington D.C. and with the president pro tempore. Later, he branched into the finance industry for over 10 years: co-founding Cypress Wealth Management, a private wealth management firm now with over $1 billion in assets under management and offices in Alaska and California, where he remains a partner.

Today, Penney Capital's resume includes leading economic development with The State of Alaska, new development projects worth over $10 billion, and other areas of expertise including financial technology firms, cryptocurrency, campaigns, wireless technology, and manufacturing. The firm continues relationships with consulting and lobbying firms in Washington D.C. and other locations to help fulfill client needs and opportunities.

Cypress Wealth Services:

Clark Penney serves as a Partner and Senior Financial Advisor with Cypress Wealth Services. Within his practice, Clark focuses on portfolio comparison, capital preservation and income management providing a bespoke service and financial plan for each client. Clark provides an analysis that monitors performance, fees, tax efficiencies, and additional investment opportunities. In addition to his work with Cypress, Clark also manages Penney Capital Incorporated, a consulting company that focuses on economic and business development for both the public and private sectors. Clark's career in financial services began at Merrill Lynch in 2008 and he spent six years with The Cypress Group at Morgan Stanley. Before his career in financial services, Clark worked as an intern on the energy and defense committees with the U.S. Senate in Washington D.C. and with the president pro tempore. Clark received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management and a minor in Economics from Southern Oregon University, where he founded the Golf Club. Born and raised in Alaska, Clark enjoys skiing, golf, and dog training.
