

JENNIFER CLEARY

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ASSOCIATION OF HOME APPLIANCE MANUFACTURERS, Washington, DC (2010–Present)

Vice President, Regulatory Affairs & Deputy General Counsel (Director 2010-2016; Senior Director 2016-2018; Vice President, Regulatory Affairs 2018-2025)

- Lead development of regulatory strategy and policy on issues related to the home appliance industry at Federal agencies such as the Department of Energy (energy conservation standards and related test procedure rulemakings; certification, compliance, and enforcement), Federal Trade Commission (energy labeling, marketing claims, repair, enforcement), Environmental Protection Agency (ENERGY STAR, pesticide devices, chemicals), and Consumer Product Safety Commission (various consumer product safety and regulatory issues).
- Lead a cross-functional team; manage the regulatory team of three individuals; participate on the Executive Team; lead development and drafting of regulatory comments; testify at public hearings and participate in public meetings; develop and draft testimony; analyze legislation; work with industry to develop consensus positions; promote harmonization with Canada; develop and lead coalition efforts; work collaboratively with other stakeholders, including those from different points of view.

MINTZ LEVIN COHN FERRIS GLOVSKY AND POPEO PC, Washington, D.C. (2005–2010)

Associate and Law Clerk

- Acted as co-antitrust counsel to the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers (researched compliance with energy conservation standards and labeling requirements, antitrust, product safety, and other legal issues).
- Acted as regulatory and litigation counsel (drafted pleadings, briefs, and legal memoranda; wrote an amicus brief for the Supreme Court; assisted in providing counseling regarding mergers and acquisitions; managed teams in the analysis and production of documents in connection with antitrust review by federal and state agencies; provided counseling regarding compliance with product safety laws and regulations).
- Engaged in an active pro bono practice (managed domestic violence pro bono project for the Washington, D.C. office; represented victims of domestic violence and parents seeking child custody in D.C. Superior Court; and represented hurricane Katrina victims in obtaining relief from FEMA and HUD).

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, Washington, D.C. (2004–2005)

Office of Information and Privacy, Law Clerk

- Assisted in adjudication of administrative appeals; drafted memoranda and conducted legal research for Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act (PA) appeals, FOIA/PA litigation, and amendment of Department of Justice FOIA Regulations; and researched and analyzed issues and suggested arguments in response to other agencies' FOIA questions in preparation for litigation.

EDUCATION

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF LAW, Washington, D.C.

- Juris Doctor, May 2006
- Graduated cum laude
- Administrative Law Review

PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY, University Park, PA

- Bachelor of Arts, English, May 2003
- Graduated with Highest Distinction (top 2%); National Society of Collegiate Scholars

BAR ADMISSIONS

NEW YORK and DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA