AN ACT

To permit retired members of the uniformed services to revoke elections made under the Uniformed Services Contingency Option Act of 1953 in certain cases where the elections were made because of mathematical errors or misinformation.

August 28, 1954
[H. R. 9302]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That retired members of the uniformed services who have elected under section 3 (b) of the Uniformed Services Contingency Option Act of 1953 (Public Law 239, Eighty-third Congress) to receive a reduced amount of retired pay in order to provide an annuity under such public law may, within sixty days after the date of enactment of this Act, revoke such elections. A retired member may revoke an election under this Act only if he can establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary concerned that he made such election because he was misinformed as to his rights under the Uniformed Services Contingency Option Act of 1953 or because he made a substantial mathematical error in computing the cost of the benefits which he would derive under that Act and that such misinformation or error has resulted in undue hardship.
