

“(c) (1) The Secretary of the Treasury may change the alloy of the one-cent piece to such other metallic composition as he shall determine—

“(A) whenever he determines that the use of copper in the one-cent piece is not practicable;

“(B) after he issues an order stating the pertinent physical properties, including content, weight, dimensions, shape, and design; and in determining such physical property takes into consideration the use of such coins in coin-operated devices; and

“(C) after he notifies in writing, on the same day as the issuance of the order under subparagraph (B), the Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs of the Senate of the contents of the determinations and orders made under paragraph (1), and a period of sixty calendar days of continuous session of Congress commencing after the date of such notification elapses.

“(2) There shall be no coinage pursuant to this subsection after December 31, 1977.

“(3) For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) continuity of session is broken only by an adjournment of Congress sine die; and

“(B) the days on which either House is not in session because of an adjournment of more than three days to a day certain are excluded in the computation of the sixty-day period.”

SEC. 2. (a) Except as provided by subsection (b) and after receiving the assurances described in subsection (c), the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to take one-tenth of all moneys derived from the sale of $1 proof coins minted and issued under section 101(d) of the Coinage Act of 1965 (31 U.S.C. 391(d)) and section 203 of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 (31 U.S.C. 324b) which bears the likeness of the late President of the United States, Dwight David Eisenhower, and transfer such amount of moneys to Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls, New York.

(b) For the purposes of carrying out this section, there is authorized to be appropriated not to exceed $10,000,000.

(c) Before the Secretary of the Treasury may transfer any moneys to Eisenhower College under this Act, Eisenhower College must make satisfactory assurances to him that an amount equal to 10 per centum of the total amount of moneys received by Eisenhower College under this Act shall be transferred to the Samuel Rayburn Library at Bonham, Texas.
