

Public Law 93-346

July 12, 1974
[S. J. Res. 202]

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating the premises occupied by the Chief of Naval Operations as the official residence of the Vice President, effective upon the termination of service of the incumbent Chief of Naval Operations.

Vice President of the United States.

Official temporary residence,
designation.
3 USC 111 note.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, effective upon termination of service by the incumbent in the office of Chief of Naval Operations, Department of the Navy, the Government-owned house together with furnishings, associated grounds and related facilities which are and have been used as the residence of the Chief of Naval Operations, shall thenceforth be available for, and shall be designated as, the official temporary residence of the Vice President of the United States.

3 USC 111 note.

SEC. 2. As in the case of the White House, the official temporary residence of the Vice President shall be adequately staffed and provided with such appropriate equipment, furnishings, dining facilities, services, and other provisions as may be required, under the supervision and direction of the Vice President, to enable him to perform and discharge appropriately the duties, functions, and obligations associated with his high office.

Staffing and maintenance by Secretary of Navy.

3 USC 111 note.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Navy shall, subject to the supervision and control of the Vice President, provide for the staffing, care, maintenance, repair, improvement, alteration, and furnishing of the official residence and grounds of the Vice President.

Appropriation.
3 USC 111 note.

SEC. 4. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary from time to time to carry out the foregoing purposes. During any interim period until and before such funds are so appropriated, the Department of the Navy shall make provision for staffing and other appropriate services in connection with the official temporary residence of the Vice President, subject to reimbursement therefor out of any contingency funds available to the Executive.

Chief of Naval Operations, living accommodations.

3 USC 111 note.

SEC. 5. It is the sense of Congress that living accommodations, generally equivalent to those available to the highest ranking officer on active duty in each of the other military services, should be provided for the Chief of Naval Operations.

Approved July 12, 1974.
