To authorize the establishment of a Council on Wage and Price Stability.

Council on Wage and Price
Stability Act.

12 USC 1904

note.

Council on Wage
and Price Stability.

Establishment.

12 USC 1904

note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Council on Wage and Price Stability Act".

SEC. 2. (a) The President is authorized to establish, within the Executive Office of the President, a Council on Wage and Price Stability (hereinafter referred to as the "Council").

(b) The Council shall consist of eight members appointed by the President and four adviser-members also appointed by the President. The Chairman of the Council shall be designated by the President.

(c) There shall be a Director of the Council who shall be appointed by the President. The Director shall be compensated at the rate prescribed for level IV of the Executive Schedule by section 5315 of title 5, United States Code. The Director of the Council shall perform such functions as the President or the Chairman of the Council may prescribe. The Deputy Director shall perform such functions as the Chairman or the Director of the Council may prescribe.

note.

(d) The Director of the Council may employ and fix the compensation of such officers and employees, including attorneys, as are necessary to perform the functions of the Council at rates not to exceed the highest rate for grade 15 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code. Except that the Director, with the approval of the Chairman may, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, relating to appointments in the competitive service, appoint and fix the compensation of not to exceed five positions at the rates provided for grades 16, 17, and 18 of such General Schedule, to carry out the functions of the Council.

note.

5 USC 101 et seq.

(e) The Director of the Council may employ experts, expert witnesses, and consultants in accordance with the provisions of section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, and compensate them at rates not in excess of the maximum daily rate prescribed for grade 18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code.

Experts and consultants.

(f) The Director of the Council may, with their consent, utilize the services, personnel, equipment, and facilities of Federal, State, regional, and local public agencies and instrumentalities, with or without reimbursement therefor, and may transfer funds made available pursuant to this Act to Federal, State, regional, and local public agencies and instrumentalities as reimbursement for utilization of such services, personnel, equipment, and facilities.

SEC. 3. (a) The Council shall—

Duties.
12 USC 1904
note.

(1) review and analyze industrial capacity, demand, supply, and the effect of economic concentration and anticompetitive practices, and supply in various sectors of the economy, working with the industrial groups concerned and appropriate governmental agencies to encourage price restraint;

(2) work with labor and management in the various sectors of the economy having special economic problems, as well as with appropriate government agencies, to improve the structure of collective bargaining and the performance of those sectors in restraining prices;

(3) improve wage and price data bases for the various sectors of the economy to improve collective bargaining and encourage price restraint;

(4) conduct public hearings necessary to provide for public scrutiny of inflationary problems in various sectors of the economy;

(5) focus attention on the need to increase productivity in both the public and private sectors of the economy;

(6) monitor the economy as a whole by acquiring as appropriate, reports on wages, costs, productivity, prices, sales, profits, imports, and exports; and

(7) review and appraise the various programs, policies, and activities of the departments and agencies of the United States for the purpose of determining the extent to which those programs and activities are contributing to inflation.

(b) Nothing in this Act, (1) authorizes the continuation, imposition, or reimposition of any mandatory economic controls with respect to prices, rents, wages, salaries, corporate dividends, or any similar transfers, or (2) affects the authority conferred by the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act of 1973.

SEC. 4. (a) Any department or agency of the United States which collects, generates, or otherwise prepares or maintains data or information pertaining to the economy or any sector of the economy shall, upon the request of the Chairman of the Council, make that data or information available to the Council.

(b) Disclosure of information obtained by the Council from sources other than Federal, State, or local government agencies and departments shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 552 of title 5, United States Code.

(c) Disclosure by the Council of information obtained from a Federal, State, or local agency or department must be in accord with section 552 of title 5, United States Code, and all the applicable rules of practice and procedure of the agency or department from which the information was obtained.

(d) Disclosure by a member or any employee of the Council of the confidential information as defined in section 1905 of title 18, United States Code, shall be a violation of the criminal code as stated therein.

(e) Consistent with the provisions of section 7213 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, nothing in this Act shall be construed as providing for or authorizing any Federal agency to divulge or to make known to the Council the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed solely in any income return, or to permit any income tax return filed pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, thereof, to be seen or examined by the Council.

SEC. 5. The Council shall report to the President, and through him to the Congress, from time to time, concerning its activities, findings, and recommendations with respect to the containment of inflation and the maintenance of a vigorous and prosperous peacetime economy.

SEC. 6. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated not to exceed $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975, to carry out the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 7. The authority granted by this Act terminates on August 15, 1975.
