

Public Law 94-260
94th Congress

An Act

To amend chapter IX of the Bankruptcy Act to provide by voluntary reorganization procedures for the adjustment of the debts of municipalities.

Apr. 8, 1976
[H.R. 10624]

Whereas the Congress finds and declares this Act and proceedings thereunder providing for the composition of indebtedness of, or authorized by, municipalities to be within the subject of bankruptcies under article I, section 8, clause 4 of the United States Constitution; and

USC prec. title 1.

Whereas the Congress finds that the impracticability of existing Federal bankruptcy remedies for use by municipalities increases the likelihood of their default and will aggravate the adverse effects thereof; and

Whereas the Congress finds that the financial disruptions and dislocations resulting from default of such municipalities without availability of a Federal procedure to restructure their indebtedness in such fashion as to avoid continuing insolvency would have a substantial adverse effect on interstate commerce within the meaning of article I, section 8, clause 3 of the United States Constitution, by reason of the commercial importance of the municipalities involved.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That chapter IX of the Bankruptcy Act is amended to read as follows:

Bankruptcy Act,
amendments.
11 USC 401
et seq.

“CHAPTER IX

“ADJUSTMENT OF DEBTS OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS AND PUBLIC AGENCIES AND INSTRUMENTALITIES

“SEC. 81. CHAPTER IX DEFINITIONS.—As used in this chapter the term—

11 USC 401.

“(1) ‘claim’ includes all claims of whatever character against the petitioner or the property of the petitioner, whether or not such claims are provable under section 63 of this Act and whether secured or unsecured, liquidated or unliquidated as to amount, fixed or contingent;

11 USC 103.

“(2) ‘court’ means court of bankruptcy in which the case is pending, or a judge of such court;

“(3) ‘creditor’ means holder (including the United States, a State, or political subdivision or public agency or instrumentality of a State) of a claim against the petitioner;

“(4) ‘claim affected by the plan’ means claim as to which the rights of its holder are proposed to be materially and adversely adjusted or modified by the plan;

“(5) ‘debt’ means claim allowable under section 88(a);

“(6) ‘lien’ means security interest in property, lien obtained on property by levy, sequestration, or other legal or equitable process, statutory or common law lien on property, or any other variety of charge against property to secure the performance of an obligation;

“(7) ‘person’ includes a corporation or a partnership, the United States, the several States, and political subdivisions and public agencies and instrumentalities of the several States;

“(8) ‘petitioner’ means agency, instrumentality, or subdivision which has filed a petition under this chapter;

“(9) ‘plan’ means plan filed under section 90;

“(10) ‘special tax payer’ means record owner or holder of title, legal or equitable, to real estate against which has been levied a special assessment or special tax the proceeds of which are the sole source of payment of obligations issued by the petitioner to defray the costs of local improvements; and

“(11) ‘special tax payer affected by the plan’ means special tax payer with respect to whose real estate the plan proposes to increase the proportion of special assessments or special taxes referred to in paragraph (10) of this section assessed against that real estate.

11 USC 402.

“SEC. 82. JURISDICTION AND POWERS OF COURT.—

“(a) JURISDICTION.—The court in which a petition is filed under this chapter shall exercise exclusive original jurisdiction for the adjustment of the petitioner’s debts, and for the purposes of this chapter, shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the petitioner and its property, wherever located.

“(b) POWERS.—After the filing of a petition under this chapter the court may—

Notice and hearing.

“(1) permit the petitioner to reject executory contracts and unexpired leases of the petitioner, after hearing on notice to the parties to such contracts leases and to such other parties in interest as the court may designate;

Notice and hearing.

“(2) during the pendency of a case under this chapter, or after the confirmation of the plan if the court has retained jurisdiction under section 96(e), after hearing on such notice as the court may prescribe and for cause shown, permit the issuance of certificates of indebtedness for such consideration as is approved by the court, upon such terms and conditions, and with such security and priority in payment over existing obligations, secured or unsecured, and over costs and expenses of administration, not including operating expenses of the petitioner, as in the particular case may be equitable; and

“(3) exercise such other powers as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

“(c) LIMITATION.—Unless the petitioner consents or the plan so provides, the court shall not, by any stay, order or decree, in the case or otherwise, interfere with—

“(1) any of the political or governmental powers of the petitioner;

“(2) any of the property or revenues of the petitioner; or

“(3) the petitioner’s use or enjoyment of any income-producing property.

“(d) DESIGNATION OF JUDGE.—After the filing of a petition, the chief judge of the court in the district in which the petition is filed shall immediately notify the chief judge of the circuit court of appeals of the circuit in which the district court is located, who shall designate the judge of the district court to conduct the proceedings under this chapter.

11 USC 403.

“SEC. 83. RESERVATION OF STATE POWER TO CONTROL GOVERNMENTAL FUNCTIONS OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the power of any State to control, by legislation or otherwise, any municipality or any political subdivision of or in such State in the exercise of its political or governmental powers, including expenditures therefor: Provided, however, That no State law prescribing a method of composition of indebtedness of such agencies shall be binding upon any creditor who does not consent to such composition, and no judgment shall be entered under such State law which would bind a creditor to such composition without his consent.

“SEC. 84. ELIGIBILITY FOR RELIEF.—Any State’s political subdivision or public agency or instrumentality, which is generally authorized to file a petition under this chapter by the legislature, or by a governmental officer or organization empowered by State law to authorize the filing of a petition, is eligible for relief under this chapter if it is insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature, and desires to effect a plan to adjust its debts. An entity is not eligible for relief under this chapter unless—

11 USC 404.

“(1) it has successfully negotiated a plan of adjustment of its debts with creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class which are claims affected by that plan;

“(2) it has negotiated in good faith with its creditors and has failed to obtain, with respect to a plan of adjustment of its debts, the agreement of creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class which are claims affected by that plan;

“(3) such negotiation is impracticable; or

“(4) it has a reasonable fear that a creditor may attempt to obtain a preference.

Conditions.

“SEC. 85. PETITION AND PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO PETITION.—

11 USC 405.

“(a) PETITION.—An entity eligible under section 84 may file a petition for relief under this chapter. In the case of an unincorporated tax or special assessment district having no officials of its own, the petition may be filed by its governing authority or the board or body having authority to levy taxes or assessments to meet the obligations of the district. Any party in interest may file an answer to the petition with the court, not later than 15 days after the publication of notice required by subsection (d) is completed, objecting to the filing of the petition. Upon the filing of such an answer, the court may dismiss the petition after hearing on notice if the petitioner did not file the petition in good faith, or if the petition does not meet the requirements of this chapter. The court shall not, on account of an appeal from a finding of jurisdiction, delay any proceeding under this chapter in the case in which the appeal is being taken; nor shall any court order a stay of such proceeding pending such appeal. The reversal on appeal of a finding of jurisdiction shall not affect the validity of any certificate of indebtedness authorized by the court and issued in such case.

Notice,
publication.Notice and hearing.

“(b) LIST.—The petitioner shall file with the court a list of the petitioner’s creditors, insofar as practicable. The list shall include for each known creditor, to the extent practicable, the name of the creditor, the address of the creditor so far as known to the petitioner, and a description of any claim of the creditor, showing the amount and character of the claim, the nature of any security for the claim, and whether the claim is disputed, contingent or unliquidated as to amount. If an identification of any of the petitioner’s creditors is impracticable, the petitioner shall state the reason such identification is impracticable and the character of the claims of the creditors involved. The petitioner shall supplement the list as creditors who were unknown or unidentified at the time the list was filed become known or identified to the petitioner. If the list is not filed with the petition, the petitioner shall file the list at such later time as the court, upon its own motion or upon application of the petitioner, sets.

“(c) VENUE AND FEES.—The petition and any accompanying papers, together with a filing fee of $100, shall be filed with a court in a district in which the petitioner is located.

“(d) NOTICE.—The petitioner or such other person as the court designates shall give notice of the filing or dismissal of the petition to the State in which the petitioner is located, to the Securities and Exchange Commission, and to creditors included in the list of creditors required by subsection (b) or in any supplement to that list. The notice shall also state that a creditor who files with the court a request, setting forth that creditor's name and address and the nature and amount of that creditor's claim, shall be given notice of any other matter in which that creditor has a direct and substantial interest. The notice required by the first sentence of this subsection shall be published at least once a week for three successive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation published within the jurisdiction of the court, and in such other papers having a general circulation among bond dealers and bondholders as may be designated by the court. The court may require that it be published in such other publication as the court deems proper. The court shall require that a copy of the notice required by the first sentence of this subsection be mailed, postage prepaid, to each creditor named in the list required by subsection (b) at the address of such creditor given in the list, or, if no address is given in the list for a creditor and the address of such creditor cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, then a copy of the notice may, if the court so determines, be mailed, postage prepaid, to such creditor addressed as the court may prescribe. All expense of giving notice required by this subsection shall be paid by the petitioner, unless the court for good cause determines that the cost of notice in a particular instance should be borne by another party. The notice shall be first published as soon as practicable after the filing of the petition, and the mailing of copies of the notice shall be completed as soon as practicable after the filing of the list required by subsection (b).

“(e) STAY OF ENFORCEMENT OF CLAIMS AGAINST PETITIONER.—

“(1) EFFECT OF FILING A PETITION.—A petition filed under this chapter shall operate as a stay of the commencement or the continuation of any judicial or other proceeding against the petitioner, its property, or an officer or inhabitant of the petitioner, which seeks to enforce any claim against the petitioner, or of an act or the commencement or continuation of a judicial or other proceeding which seeks to enforce a lien upon the property of the petitioner or a lien on or arising out of taxes or assessments due the petitioner, and shall operate as a stay of the enforcement of any set-off or counterclaim relating to a contract, debt, or obligation of the petitioner.

“(2) DURATION OF AUTOMATIC STAY.—Except as it may be terminated, annulled, modified, or conditioned by the court under the terms of this subsection, the stay provided for in this subsection shall continue until the case is closed or dismissed, or the property subject to the lien is, with the approval of the court, abandoned or transferred.

“(3) RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY.—Upon the filing of a complaint seeking relief from a stay provided for by this section, the court shall set a hearing for the earliest possible date. The court may, for cause shown, terminate, annul, modify, or condition such stay.

Publication in newspapers.

Hearing.

“(4) OTHER STAYS.—The commencement or continuation of any other act or proceeding may be stayed, restrained, or enjoined by the court, upon notice to each person against whom such order would apply, and for cause shown. The court may issue an order under this paragraph without requiring the petitioner to give security as a condition to that order.

“(f) UNENFORCEABILITY OF CERTAIN CONTRACTUAL PROVISIONS.—A provision in a contract or lease, or in any law applicable to such a contract or lease, which terminates or modifies, or permits a party other than the petitioner to terminate or modify, the contract or lease because of the insolvency of the petitioner or the commencement of a case under this chapter is not enforceable if any defaults in prior performance of the petitioner are cured and adequate assurance of future performance is provided.

“(g) RECOVERY OF SET-OFF.—Any set-off which relates to a contract, debt, or obligation of the petitioner and which set-off was effected within four months prior to the filing of the petition, is voidable and recoverable by the petitioner after hearing on notice. The court may require as a condition to recovery that the petitioner furnish adequate protection for the realization by the person against whom or which recovery is sought of the claim which arises by reason of the recovery.

“(h) AVOIDING POWERS.—Sections 60a, 60c, 67a, 67d, 70c, 70e(1), and 70e(2), and the first three sentences of section 60b shall apply in cases under this chapter as though the petitioner were the bankrupt, debtor, or trustee. If the petitioner refuses to pursue a cause of action under a section or sentence made applicable to this chapter by this subsection, the court may, upon the application of any creditor, appoint a trustee to pursue such cause of action.

11 USC 96, 107,
111.

“SEC. 86. REPRESENTATION OF CREDITORS.—

11 USC 406.

“(a) REPRESENTATION AND DISCLOSURE.—Any creditor may act in that creditor's own behalf or by an attorney or a duly authorized agent or committee. Every person, not including governmental entities, representing more than one creditor shall file with the court a list of the creditors represented by such person, giving the name and address of each such creditor, together with a statement of the amount, class, and character of the claim held by that creditor, and shall attach to the list a copy of the instrument signed by the holder of such claim showing such person's authority, and shall file with the list a copy of the contract or agreement entered into between such person and the creditors represented by that person. Such person shall disclose all compensation incident to the case, received or to be received, directly or indirectly, by that person. That compensation shall be subject to modification and approval by the court.

“(b) MULTIPLE COMPENSATION.—The court shall examine all of the contracts, proposals, acceptances, deposit agreements, and all other papers relating to the plan, specifically for the purpose of ascertaining if any person, not including governmental entities, promoting the plan, or doing anything of such a nature, has been or is to be compensated, directly or indirectly, by both the petitioner and any of its creditors, and shall take evidence under oath to determine whether any such compensation has occurred or is to occur. After such examination the court shall make an adjudication of this issue, and if it be found that any such compensation has occurred or is to occur, the court shall dismiss the petition and tax all of the costs against the person promoting the plan or doing anything of such a nature and receiving such multiple compensation, or against the petitioner, unless such plan is modified, within the time to be allowed by the court, so as to eliminate the possibility of such compensation, in which event the court may proceed to further consideration of the confirmation of the plan.

11 USC 407.

“SEC. 87. REFERENCE, EXPENSES, AND JOINT ADMINISTRATION.—

“(a) REFERENCE.—The court may refer any special issue of fact to a referee in bankruptcy for consideration, the taking of testimony, and a report upon such special issue of fact, if the court finds that the condition of its docket is such that it cannot take such testimony without unduly delaying the dispatch of other business pending in the court, and if it appears that such special issue is necessary to the determination of the case. A reference to a referee in bankruptcy shall be the exception and not the rule. The court shall not make a general reference of the case, but may only request findings of specific facts.

“(b) EXPENSES.—The court may allow reasonable compensation for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the case, including compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred in obtaining the deposit of securities and the preparation of the plan, whether such work has been done by the petitioner or by a representative of creditors, and may allow reasonable compensation for an attorney or agent of any of them. No fee, compensation, reimbursement, or other allowances for an attorney, agent, or representative of creditors shall be assessed against the petitioner or paid from any revenues, property, or funds of the petitioner except in the manner and in such sums, if any, as may be provided for in the plan. An appeal may be taken from any order allowing compensation to the United States court of appeals for the circuit in which the case under this chapter is pending, independently of any other appeal which may be taken in the case. The court of appeals shall hear and determine such appeal summarily.

“(c) JOINT ADMINISTRATION.—If two or more petitions by related entities are pending in the same court, the court may order joint administration of the cases.

11 USC 408.

“SEC. 88. CLAIMS.—

“(a) ALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS.—In the absence of an objection by a party in interest, or of a filing of a proof of claim, the claim of a creditor that is not disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount, and that appears in the list or in a supplement to the list filed by the petitioner under section 85(b) shall be deemed allowed. The court may set a date by which proofs of other claims shall be filed. If the court does not set a date, such proofs of other claims shall be filed before the entry of an order confirming the plan. Within thirty days after the filing by the petitioner of the list or any supplement to the list under section 85(b), the court shall give written notice to each person whose claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount, informing each such person that a proof of claim must be filed with the court within the time fixed under this subsection. If there is no objection to such claim, the claim shall be deemed allowed. If there is an objection, the court shall hear and determine the objection.

Written notice.

“(b) CLASSIFICATION OF CREDITORS.—The court shall designate classes of creditors whose claims are of substantially similar character and the members of which enjoy substantially similar rights, consistent with the provisions of section 89, except that the court may create a separate class of creditors having unsecured claims of less than $250 for reasons of administrative convenience. If there is a controversy over the classification of a creditor, the court shall, after hearing on notice, summarily determine such controversy.

Hearing and notice.

“(c) DAMAGES UPON REJECTION OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS.—If an executory contract or an unexpired lease is rejected under the plan or under section 82(b), any person injured by such rejection may assert a claim against the petitioner. The rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease constitutes a breach of the contract or lease as of the date of the commencement of the case under this chapter. The claim of a landlord for injury resulting from the rejection of an unexpired lease of real estate or for damages or indemnity under a covenant contained in such lease shall be allowed, but shall be limited to an amount not to exceed the rent, without acceleration, reserved by such lease for the year next succeeding the date of the surrender of the premises to the landlord or the date of reentry of the landlord, whichever first occurs, whether before or after the filing of the petition, plus unpaid accrued rent, without acceleration, up to the date of such surrender or reentry. The court shall scrutinize the circumstances of an assignment of a future rent claim and the amount of the consideration paid for such assignment in determining the amount of damages allowed the assignee of that claim.

“SEC. 89. PRIORITIES.—The following shall be paid in full in advance of any distribution to creditors under the plan, in the following order: 11 USC 409.

“(1) The costs and expenses of administration which are incurred subsequent to the filing of a petition under this chapter.

“(2) Debts owed for services or materials actually provided within three months before the date of the filing of the petition under this chapter.

“(3) Debts owing to any person, which by the laws of the United States (other than this Act) are entitled to priority.

“SEC. 90. FILING AND TRANSMISSION OF PLAN AND MODIFICATIONS.— 11 USC 410.

“(a) FILING.—The petitioner shall file a plan for the adjustment of the petitioner’s debts. If such plan is not filed with the petition, the petitioner shall file the plan at such later time as the court, upon its own motion or upon application of the petitioner, sets. At any time prior to the confirmation of a plan, the petitioner, or any creditor, if the petitioner has consented in writing to the modification to be filed by the creditor, may file a modification of the plan; but the modification shall comply with the provisions of this chapter.

“(b) TRANSMISSION OF PLAN AND MODIFICATIONS.—As soon as practicable after the plan or any modification of the plan has been filed, the court shall set a time, which shall be ninety days from the filing of the plan or any modification of the plan, unless the court, for good cause, sets some other time, within which creditors may accept or reject the plan and any modification of the plan. The petitioner or such other person as the court designates shall transmit by mail a copy of such plan or modification, or a summary and any analysis of such plan or modification, a notice of the time within which the plan or modification may be accepted or rejected, and a notice of the right to receive a copy, if it has not been sent, of such plan or modification, to each creditor whose claim is affected by the plan, to each special tax payer affected by the plan, and to any party in interest that the court designates. Upon request by a recipient of such summary and notice, the petitioner or such other person as the court designates shall transmit by mail a copy of the plan or modification to that recipient. The court shall, after hearing on notice, determine any controversy as to whether a claim of a creditor or class of creditors is a claim affected by the plan and as to whether a special tax payer is a special tax payer affected by the plan.

Notice and hearing.

11 USC 411.

"SEC. 91. PROVISIONS OF PLAN.—A petitioner's plan may include provisions modifying or altering the rights of creditors generally, or of any class of them, secured or unsecured, either through issuance of new securities of any character, or otherwise, and may contain such other provisions and agreements not inconsistent with this chapter as the parties may desire, including provisions for the rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease.

11 USC 412.

"SEC. 92. ACCEPTANCE.—

"(a) WHO MAY ACCEPT OR REJECT.—Unless a claim of a creditor who is included in the list or in a supplement to the list filed under section 85(b) or who files a proof of claim and whose claim is not then disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount, or of a security holder of record as of the date of the transmittal of information under section 90(b), has been disallowed or is not a claim affected by the plan, that creditor or security holder may accept or reject the plan and any modification of the plan within the time set by the court. Notwithstanding an objection to a claim, the court may temporarily allow such claim in such amount as the court deems proper for the purpose of acceptance or rejection under this section.

"(b) GENERAL RULE.—Except as provided in subsection (d), the plan may be confirmed only if it has been accepted in writing by or on behalf of creditors holding at least two-thirds in amount of the claims of each class allowed under section 88 and more than 50 percent in number of the claims of each class allowed under section 88.

"(c) COMPUTING ACCEPTANCE.—The two-thirds majority required by subsection (b) is two-thirds in amount of the claims allowed under section 88 of creditors who file an acceptance or rejection within the time fixed by the court, but not including claims held or controlled by the petitioner, or claims of creditors specified in subsection (d). The more than 50 percent required by subsection (b) is more than 50 percent in number of the claims allowed under section 88 of creditors who file an acceptance or rejection within the time fixed by the court, but not including claims held or controlled by the petitioner, or claims of creditors specified in subsection (d).

"(d) EXCEPTION.—It is not requisite to the confirmation of the plan that there be such acceptance by any creditor or class of creditors—

"(1) whose claims are not affected by the plan;

"(2) if the plan makes provision for the payment of their claims in cash in full; or

"(3) if provision is made in the plan for the protection of the interests, claims, or lien of such creditor or class of creditors.

"(e) ACCEPTANCE OF MODIFICATION.—If the court finds that a proposed modification does not materially and adversely affect the interest of a creditor, the modification shall be deemed accepted by that creditor if that creditor has previously accepted the plan. If the court determines that a modification does materially and adversely affect the interest of a creditor, that creditor shall be given notice of the proposed modification and the time allowed for its acceptance or rejection. The number of acceptances of the plan as modified required by subsection (b) shall be obtained. The plan as modified shall be deemed to have been accepted by any creditor who accepted the plan and who fails to file a written rejection of the modification with the court within such reasonable time as shall be allowed in the notice to that creditor of the proposed modification.

Notice.

11 USC 413.

"SEC. 93. OBJECTION TO PLAN.—A creditor who holds a claim affected by the plan or a special tax payer affected by the plan may file with the court an objection to the confirmation of the plan. The Securities and Exchange Commission may also file with the court an objection to the confirmation of the plan, but in the case of an objection filed under this section, the Securities and Exchange Commission may not appeal or file any petition for appeal. An objection to the confirmation of the plan may be filed with the court any time prior to ten days before the hearing on the confirmation of the plan, or within such other times set by the court.

“SEC 94. CONFIRMATION.—

11 USC 414.

“(a) HEARING ON CONFIRMATION.—Within a reasonable time after the expiration of the time set by the court within which the plan and any modifications of the plan may be accepted or rejected, the court shall hold a hearing on the confirmation of the plan and any modifications of the plan. The court shall give notice of the hearing and of the time allowed for filing objections to all parties entitled to object under section 93. The court may, for cause shown, permit a labor union or employees’ association, that represents employees of the petitioner, to be heard on the economic soundness of the plan affecting the interests of the represented employees.

Notice.

“(b) CONDITIONS FOR CONFIRMATION.—The court shall confirm the plan if—

“(1) the plan is fair and equitable and feasible and does not discriminate unfairly in favor of any creditor or class of creditors;

“(2) the plan complies with the provisions of this chapter;

“(3) the plan has been accepted as required by section 92;

“(4) all amounts to be paid by the petitioner or by any person, not including other governmental entities, for services and expenses in the case or incident to the plan have been fully disclosed and are reasonable;

“(5) the offer of the plan and its acceptance are in good faith; and

“(6) the petitioner is not prohibited by law from taking any action necessary to be taken by it to carry out the plan.

“SEC. 95. EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION.—

11 USC 415.

“(a) PROVISIONS OF PLAN BINDING.—The provisions of a confirmed plan shall be binding on the petitioner and on any creditor who had timely notice or actual knowledge of the petition or plan, whether or not such creditor’s claim has been allowed under section 88, and whether or not such creditor has accepted the plan.

“(b) DISCHARGE.—

“(1) The petitioner is discharged from all claims against it provided for in the plan except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection as of the time when—

“(A) the plan has been confirmed;

“(B) the petitioner has deposited the money, securities, or other consideration to be distributed under the plan with a disbursing agent appointed by the court; and

“(C) the court has determined—

“(i) that any security so deposited will constitute upon distribution a valid legal obligation of the petitioner; and “(ii) that any provision made to pay or secure payment of such obligation is valid.

“(2) The petitioner is not discharged under paragraph (1) of this subsection from any claim—

“(A) excepted from discharge by the plan or order confirming the plan; or

“(B) whose holder, prior to confirmation, had neither timely notice nor actual knowledge of neither the petition nor the plan.

11 USC 416.

“SEC. 96. POSTCONFIRMATION MATTERS.—

“(a) TIME ALLOWED FOR DEPOSIT UNDER THE PLAN.—Prior to or promptly after confirmation of the plan, the court shall fix a time within which the petitioner shall deposit with the disbursing agent appointed by the court any consideration to be distributed under the plan.

“(b) DUTIES OF PETITIONER.—The petitioner shall comply with the plan and the orders of the court relative to the plan, and shall take all actions necessary to carry out the plan. The court may direct the petitioner and other necessary parties to execute and deliver or to join in the execution and delivery of any instrument required to effect a transfer of property under the plan and to perform such other acts including the satisfaction of a lien, as the court determines to be necessary for the consummation of the plan.

“(c) DISTRIBUTION.—Distribution shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the plan to creditors whose claims have been allowed under section 88. Distribution may be made at the date the order confirming the plan becomes final to holders of securities of record whose claims have not been disallowed.

“(d) COMPLIANCE DATE.—When a plan requires presentment or surrender of securities or the performance of any other action as a condition to participation under the plan, such action shall be taken not later than five years after the entry of the order of confirmation. A person who has not within such time presented or surrendered that person's securities or taken such other action required by the plan shall not participate in any distribution under the plan, and the consideration deposited with the disbursing agent for distribution to such person shall become the property of the petitioner.

“(e) CONTINUING JURISDICTION.—The court may retain jurisdiction over the case for such period of time as the court determines is necessary for the successful execution of the plan.

“(f) ORDER OR DECREE AS EVIDENCE AND NOTICE.—A certified copy of any order or decree entered by the court in a case under this chapter shall be evidence of the jurisdiction of the court, the regularity of the proceedings, and the fact that the order was made. A certified copy of an order providing for the transfer of any property dealt with by the plan shall be evidence of the transfer of title accordingly, and, if recorded as conveyances are recorded, shall impart the same notice that a deed, if recorded, would impart.

11 USC 417.

“SEC. 97. EFFECT OF EXCHANGE OF DEBT SECURITIES BEFORE DATE OF THE PETITION.—The exchange of new debt securities under the plan for claims covered by the plan, whether the exchange occurred before or after the date of the petition, does not limit or impair the effectiveness of the plan or of any provision of this chapter. The written consents of the holders of any securities outstanding as the result of any such exchange under the plan shall be included as acceptances of such plan in computing the acceptance required under section 92.

"SEC. 98. DISMISSAL.—

11 USC 418.

"(a) PERMISSIVE DISMISSAL.—The court may dismiss the case after hearing on notice—

"(1) for want of prosecution;

"(2) if no plan is proposed within the time fixed or extended by the court;

"(3) if no proposed plan is accepted within the time fixed or extended by the court; or

"(4) where the court has retained jurisdiction after confirmation of a plan—

"(A) if the petitioner defaults in any of the terms of the plan; or

"(B) if a plan terminates by reason of the happening of a condition specified therein.

"(b) MANDATORY DISMISSAL.—The court shall dismiss the case if confirmation is refused."

11 USC 401 note.

SEC. 2. SEPARABILITY.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any agency, instrumentality, or subdivision is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter, or the application of such provision to any other agency or instrumentality or political subdivision shall not be affected by such holding.

SEC. 3. If the amendment made by this Act is judicially finally determined to be unconstitutional then chapter IX of the Bankruptcy Act, as such chapter IX existed on the day before the date of enactment of this Act, is revived and shall have full force and effect with respect to cases filed after such determination.
