

Public Law 95-629
95th Congress

An Act

To amend the Pennsylvania Avenue Development Corporation Act of 1972; to provide for the establishment of the San Antonio Missions National Historical Park; and for other purposes.

Nov. 10, 1978
[S. 1829]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I

SEC. 101. The Pennsylvania Avenue Development Corporation Act of 1972 (Public Law 92-578; 86 Stat. 1266), as amended, is further amended as follows:

Pennsylvania
Avenue
Development Corporation Act
of 1972,
amendment.
40 USC 871 note.

(1) By striking—

(a) in paragraph (c) of section 3: “(6) The Commissioner of the District of Columbia;” and by substituting in lieu thereof “(6) The Mayor of the District of Columbia;”; and by inserting “The Mayor” in lieu of “The Commissioner” of the District of Columbia, wherever it occurs in this Act;

Board of Directors.
40 USC 872.

(b) in paragraph (c) of section 3: “(7) The Chairman, District of Columbia Council;” and by inserting in lieu thereof “The Chairman, Council of the District of Columbia”;

(c) in paragraph (g) of section 3: “(8) The Chairman of the District of Columbia Redevelopment Land Agency.” and by inserting in lieu thereof “(8) The Director of the District of Columbia Department of Housing and Community Development.”;

(d) in paragraph (a) of section 4: “subchapter 53” and by inserting in lieu thereof “subchapter III of Chapter 53”;

40 USC 873.

(e) in paragraph (f) of section 5: “The District of Columbia government, and the District of Columbia Redevelopment Land Agency.” and by inserting in lieu thereof “and the District of Columbia government.”;

40 USC 874.

(f) in paragraph (b) of section 8: “Redevelopment Land Agency” wherever it occurs and by inserting in lieu thereof “government.”

40 USC 877.

(2) by striking in paragraph (10) of section 6 of the figure “$50,000,000” and inserting in lieu thereof “$100,000,000” and by striking in that paragraph the following sentence: “The authority of the Corporation to issue obligations hereunder shall expire June 3, 1980, except that obligations may be issued at any time after the expiration of said period to provide funds necessary for the performance of any contract entered into by the Corporation, prior to the expiration of said period.” and inserting in lieu thereof “The authority of the Corporation to issue obligations hereunder shall remain available without fiscal year limitation.”

Powers of Corporation.
40 USC 875.

(3) By redesignating paragraphs “(19)” through “(22)” in section 6 as paragraphs “(21)” through “(24)” and by inserting the following new paragraphs:

“(19) shall request the Council of the District of Columbia, when required for implementation of the development plan, to close any street, road, highway, alley, or any part thereon in the development area. If the title to the street, road, highway, or alley so closed is in the United States, the Mayor of the District of Columbia shall convey the title to the land on behalf of the United States to the Corporation, without cost, except that the Corporation shall reimburse the District of Columbia for the administrative expenses of the action. If the title to the street, road, highway, or alley so closed is not in the United States, the Mayor shall convey title to the land on behalf of the District of Columbia to the Corporation, without cost, except that the Corporation shall reimburse the District of Columbia for the administrative costs of the action: Provided, That if the land would have reverted to a private abutting property owner under otherwise applicable law of the District of Columbia, the Corporation shall pay such owner the fair market value of the land that would have reverted to him.

Real property,
title transfers.

“(20) may transfer title to, interests in, or jurisdiction over real property which has been acquired by the Corporation and is to be devoted to public uses under the development plan, to any agency of the United States or the District of Columbia. Agencies of the United States or the District of Columbia may accept such transfers under this paragraph, and shall thereafter administer and maintain the property in accordance with the development plan and the terms of any transfer agreement. The Director of the National Park Service may transfer title to or interest in public reservations, roadways, spaces, or parks under his jurisdiction within the development area to the Corporation to facilitate implementation of the development plan; and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Corporation may utilize such transferred property for any public or private development consistent with the plan.”

Appropriation authorization.
40 USC 885.

(4) By striking in subsection 17(a) all after the word “Corporation” and inserting in lieu thereof “$3,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1979; $3,200,000 for the fiscal years ending September 30, 1980, and September 30, 1981; and $3,500,000 for the fiscal years ending September 30, 1982, and September 30, 1983.”; and, by adding to subsection 17(b) after the amount “$38,800,000,” the following: “for fiscal year 1979, $15,000,000, for fiscal year 1980, $35,000,000 for fiscal year 1981, $25,000,000 for fiscal year 1982, $30,000,000, and, for fiscal 1983, $35,000,000.”; and by striking the following, “to remain available without fiscal year limitation through September 30, 1990:” and, by inserting in lieu thereof: “For the authorizations made in this subsection, any amounts authorized but not appropriated in any fiscal year shall remain available for appropriation in succeeding years. Any amounts appropriated under this subsection shall remain available without fiscal year limitation.”

TITLE II

San Antonio
Missions
National Historical Park.
Establishment.
16 USC 410ee.

SEC. 201. (a) In order to provide for the preservation, restoration, and interpretation of the Spanish Missions of San Antonio, Texas, for the benefit and enjoyment of present and future generations of Americans, there is hereby established the San Antonio Missions National Historical Park (hereafter in this section referred to as the “park”) consisting of Concepcion, San Jose, San Juan, and Espada Missions, together with areas and features historically associated therewith, as generally depicted on the drawing entitled “Boundary Map, San Antonio Missions National Historical Park”, numbered 930-80,022-C and dated May 1978, which shall be on file and available for public inspection in the offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, and in the offices of the Superintendent of the park. After advising the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the United States Senate and the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States House of Representatives, in writing, the Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") may make minor revisions of the boundaries of the park when necessary by publication of a revised drawing or other boundary description in the Federal Register.

Boundary revisions, notice to congressional committees and publication in Federal Register.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the Secretary is authorized—

Lands, acquisitions.

(1) to acquire by donation, purchase with donated or appropriated funds, or exchange, lands and interests therein constituting the following generally described areas in the historic missions district of the city of San Antonio, Texas—

(A) Mission San Jose y San Miguel de Aguayo;

(B) Mission Nuestra Senora de la Purisima Concepcion de Acuna;

(C) Mission San Francisco de la Espada;

(D) Espada Acequia, the section of approximately five miles along the west side of and parallel to the San Antonio River;

(E) Espada Dam and Aqueduct;

(F) Mission San Juan Capistrano;

(G) San Juan Acequia, on the east side of the San Antonio River; and

(H) such lands and interests therein which the Secretary determines are necessary or desirable to provide for public access to, and interpretation and protection of, the foregoing; and

(2) to enter cooperative agreements with the owners of any historic properties, including properties referred to in paragraph (1), in furtherance of the purposes of this section.

Cooperative agreements.

Each agreement under paragraph (2) shall provide among other things that the owner will hold and preserve the historic property in perpetuity and will not undertake or permit the alteration or removal of historic features or the erection of markers, structures, or buildings without the prior concurrence of the Secretary, and that the public shall have reasonable access to those portions of the property to which access is necessary in the judgment of the Secretary for the proper appreciation and interpretation of its historical and architectural value. Pursuant to such cooperative agreements and notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary the Secretary may, directly or by contract, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, or develop such buildings, structures, and related facilities including roads, trails, and other interpretive facilities on real property not in Federal ownership and may maintain and operate programs in connection therewith as he deems appropriate. Any lands or interest therein owned by the Catholic Archdiocese of San Antonio, the State of Texas, or any political subdivision of such State, including the San Antonio River Authority, may be acquired by donation only: Provided, That the Secretary shall submit all proposed cooperative agreements to the Department of Justice for a determination that the proposed agreements do not violate the constitutional provisions regarding the separation of church and state.

Submittal to Justice Department.

(c) (1) With the exception of any property deemed necessary by the Secretary for visitor facilities or administration of the park, any owner or owners of improved property on the date of its acquisition by the Secretary may, as a condition of such acquisition, retain for themselves and their successors or assigns a right of use and occupancy of the property for noncommercial residential purposes, for twenty-five years, or, in lieu thereof, for a term ending at the death of the owner or his spouse, whichever is later. The owner shall elect the term to be reserved. The Secretary shall pay to the owner the fair market value of the property on the date of such acquisition less the fair market value on such date of the right retained by the owner.

Use and occupancy right, retention.

(2) A right of use and occupancy retained or enjoyed pursuant to this subsection may be terminated with respect to the entire property by the Secretary upon his determination that the property or any portion thereof had ceased to be used for noncommercial residential purposes and upon tender to the holder of a right an amount equal to the fair market value, as of the date of tender, of that portion of the right which remains unexpired on the date of termination.

“Improved property.”

(3) The term “improved property”, as used in this subsection, shall mean a detached, noncommercial residential dwelling, the construction of which was begun before January 1, 1978 (hereinafter referred to as a “dwelling”), together with so much of the land on which the dwelling is situated, the said land being in the same ownership as the dwelling, as the Secretary shall designate to be reasonably necessary for the enjoyment of the dwelling for the sole purpose of noncommercial residential use, together with any structures accessory to the dwelling which are situated on the land so designated.

Administration.

(d) The Secretary is authorized and directed to take prompt and appropriate action in accordance with the provisions of this section and any cooperative agreement hereunder to assure the protection and preservation of the historical and architectural values of the missions and the areas and features historically associated therewith within the boundaries of the park. The park shall be administered by the Secretary in accordance with this section and provisions of law generally applicable to units of the National Park System, including the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U.S.C. 1 et seq.) and the Act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 666; 16 U.S.C. 461-467).

San Antonio Missions Advisory Commission. Establishment. Membership.

(e) (1) There is hereby authorized to be established by the Secretary, a San Antonio Missions Advisory Commission. The Commission shall be composed of seven members, each appointed for a term of two years by the Secretary, as follows:

(A) one member to be appointed from recommendations made by the Governor of the State of Texas;

(B) one member to be appointed from recommendations made by the County Commissioners of Bexar County, Texas;

(C) one member to be appointed from recommendations made by the City Council of the City of San Antonio, Texas;

(D) one member to be appointed to represent non-Federal property owners whose property is operated and maintained in accordance with cooperative agreements with the Secretary pursuant to subsection (b) (2);

(E) one member from the membership of a local conservation or historical organization; and

(F) two members representing the general public.

Chairman.

The Secretary shall designate one member to be Chairman of the Commission and may fill any vacancy in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

Compensation and expenses.

(2) Members of the Commission shall serve without compensation as such, but the Secretary may pay expenses reasonably incurred by the Commission and may reimburse members for reasonable expenses incurred in carrying out their responsibilities under this section on vouchers signed by the Chairman.

(3) All appointments to the Commission shall be made by the Secretary within six months after the date of the enactment of this Act and the Secretary, or his designee, shall from time to time, but at least semiannually, meet and consult with the Advisory Commission in matters relating to the park and with respect to carrying out the provisions of this section.

(4) Unless extended by Act of Congress, this Commission shall terminate ten years after the date of its first meeting with the Secretary or his designee.

(f) (1) There are hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, but not more than $10,000,000 for the acquisition of lands and interests in lands.

(2) For the development of essential public facilities there are authorized to be appropriated not more than $500,000. Within one year from the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall develop and transmit to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States House of Representatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the United States Senate a final master plan for the development of the park consistent with the objectives of this section, indicating (A) the facilities needed to accommodate the health, safety, and interpretive needs of the visiting public; (B) the location and estimated cost of all facilities; and (C) the projected need for any additional facilities within the park.

Consultation.

Termination.

Appropriation authorization.

Master plan, transmittal to congressional committees.

TITLE III

SEC. 301. The Act entitled "An Act to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to make compensation for damages arising out of the failure of the Teton Dam a feature of the Teton Basin Federal reclamation project in Idaho, and for other purposes", approved September 7, 1976 (Public Law 94-400) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 13. (a) Any funds authorized to be appropriated by section 12 of this Act, which are determined under subsection (b) to be excess funds, shall be made available by the Secretary for the purpose of carrying out projects under the Adjustment Program for the Teton Disaster Area (including related administrative costs), and such funds shall remain available until expended.

"(b) For purposes of this section, the term 'excess funds' means those funds authorized to be appropriated under section 12, and appropriated under the Act approved July 12, 1976 (Public Law 94-355) or the Act approved September 30, 1976 (Public Law 94-438), in excess of the total of—

"(1) the amount expended under this Act (including related administrative costs) prior to September 30, 1978 (or the date of the enactment of this section, if later),

"(2) the amount of outstanding claims timely filed under this Act which have not been paid as of September 30, 1978 (or the date of the enactment of this section, if later), and

"(3) the amount of the future administrative costs (as estimated by the Secretary) which will be incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act (without regard to this section) after September 30, 1978 (or the date of the enactment of this section, if later),

90 Stat. 1211.

Appropriations, availability.
90 Stat. 1214.

"Excess funds."

90 Stat. 889.
90 Stat. 1415.

but the amount of excess funds as so determined shall not exceed the amount of funds required to complete the projects under the Adjustment Program for the Teton Disaster Area (including related administrative costs).

Definition.

"(c) For purposes of this section, the term 'projects under the Adjustment Program for the Teton Disaster Area' means only the Federal share of those projects described in the study funded by the Economic Development Agency and specified in the document entitled 'Adjustment Program for the Teton Disaster Area, Summary of Remaining Economic Adjustment Measures', May, 1978, which have not been otherwise funded prior to September 30, 1978 (or the date of the enactment of this section, if later).

Funds distribution, consultation.

"(d) If the amount of excess funds as determined under this section is less than the amount required to complete the projects under the Adjustment Program for the Teton Disaster Area, the Secretary shall distribute such funds among such projects in such manner as he determines, after consultation with any localities involved in the projects, will best carry out the purposes of restoration and redevelopment of the Teton disaster area.

"(e) If, at such time as all claims filed under the provisions of this Act (without regard to this section) have been finally settled, the amount actually expended under this Act (without regard to this section) is less than the total of the amounts described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (b), then such lesser amount shall be deemed to be the total of the amounts described in such paragraphs."

TITLE IV

Study, transmittal to President and congressional committees.
16 USC 1a-5 note.

Sec. 401. The Secretary of the Interior shall prepare and transmit to the President of the United States, the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate a study of Historical Camden, consisting of approximately ninety acres of land in Camden, South Carolina, to determine the feasibility and desirability of establishing such area as a unit of the National Park System. The study shall be transmitted not later than two years following the date on which funds are appropriated for the study and shall include cost estimates for any necessary acquisition, development, operation and maintenance, as well as any alternatives for the administration and protection of the area.
