(A) title to the land shall revert to the United States; and

(B) upon such reversion, the Secretary shall pay to the Foundation, from amounts available for that purpose, an amount equal to 50 percent of the fair market value of the land reverting to the United States, determined as of the date on which the land was conveyed to the Foundation by the Secretary;

(2) if all or any portion of the land conveyed ceases to be used for Foundation purposes during the 40-year period beginning on the date on which the 10-year period stated in paragraph (1) ends, title to all of such land which has ceased to be used for Foundation purposes shall revert to the United States;

(3) during the 50-year period beginning on the date of the conveyance, a construction project may be begun on such land only after the plans for such construction are approved by the Secretary; and

(4) during the 50-year period beginning on the date of the conveyance, the Foundation may not sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the land conveyed.

(e) Notwithstanding section 2733 of title 10, United States Code, sections 1346 and 2672 of title 28, United States Code, and section 715 of title 32, United States Code, or any other provision of law enacted before, on, or after the date of the enactment of this Act (except a law that specifically refers to the Foundation or to this section), the United States shall not be liable to the Foundation for any damage to, or diminution in value of, any land conveyed under this section (or any improvement on such land) if such damage or diminution in value is caused by an activity of the United States at March Air Force Base, California.

(f) The transaction authorized by this section shall be made subject to such additional terms and conditions as the Secretary considers appropriate to carry out the provisions of this section and to protect the interests of the United States.

(g) The exact acreage and legal description of any land conveyed under this section shall be determined by surveys which are satisfactory to the Secretary. The cost of any such survey shall be borne by the Foundation.

(e) The Secretary may require such additional terms and conditions as the Secretary considers necessary or appropriate to protect the interest of the United States.

(c) If the fair market value of the land conveyed by the Secretary under subsection (a) exceeds the fair market value of the lands conveyed by the City under subsection (b), the Secretary may accept such other lands as the Secretary has been previously authorized to acquire by exchange in partial or full consideration for the remaining value. The total value of the consideration to the United States shall be at least equal to the fair market value of the lands conveyed under subsection (a), as determined by the Secretary. The City or SANDER or the City and SANDER shall pay any difference to the United States.

(d) The exact acreages and legal descriptions of any real property to be conveyed or acquired under this section shall be determined by surveys that are satisfactory to the Secretary. The cost of such surveys shall be borne by the City or SANDER or by the City and SANDER.

LAND CONVEYANCE, TUSTIN, CALIFORNIA

SEC. 838. (a)(1) Subject to subsections (b) and (c), the Secretary of the Navy (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to convey to the Irvine Company, a Michigan corporation, or to either or both of the cities of Tustin and Irvine, municipal corporations of the State of California, the interest of the United States described in paragraph (2) in a tract of approximately 15 acres of land located on the Marine Corps Air Station (Helicopter), Tustin, California (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Air Facility"), for the development and extension of a public thoroughfare through the Air Facility from Barranca Parkway on the south of the Air Facility to Irvine Center Drive on the north of the Air Facility.

(2) provide a process for the United States to participate in the initial and continued planning of land uses within the Browning Corridor.

(e) The exact acreages and legal descriptions of the interests in land to be conveyed under subsections (a) and (b) shall be determined by surveys that are satisfactory to the Secretary. The Irvine Company or the cities of Tustin and Irvine shall pay all survey and title evidence costs involved in those conveyances.

The exact acreage and legal description of the land to be conveyed shall be determined by surveys that are satisfactory to the Secretary. The cost of any such survey shall be borne by the Association.

(d) Before making the conveyance under subsection (a), the Secretary shall enter into an agreement with the Association which provides that the Association, after such conveyance, will expeditiously develop the property conveyed and will use the property for purposes consistent with and in support of activities of the United States Naval Academy. The terms of the conveyance under subsection (a) shall require that if the Association fails to comply with the terms of such agreement, all right, title, and interest of the Association in and to the land conveyed (including the improvements on the land) shall revert at no cost to the United States, which shall have the right of immediate entry thereon.

(e) The Secretary may require such additional terms and conditions under this section as the Secretary considers appropriate to protect the interests of the United States.

FISH HATCHERY, FORT LEWIS, WASHINGTON

(a)(1) The Secretary of the Army shall issue a permit to the Secretary of the Interior for use of the land described in paragraph (2) as a site for a fish hatchery or shall otherwise make such land available for such use by an entity designated by the Secretary of the Army (with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Interior).

(2) The land referred to in paragraph (1) is a portion of Fort Lewis, Washington, adjacent to Clear Creek, Washington, consisting of 135 acres, more or less, that was identified as suitable as a site for a fish hatchery in a feasibility report concerning the location of a fish hatchery at Fort Lewis issued in May 1982 under contract number 14-16-0001-81086 of the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior, dated July 20, 1981.

(b) Land for which a permit is issued (or which is otherwise made available) under subsection (a) may be used by the party to which the permit is issued (or to which the land is made available) only for a fish hatchery and related purposes. The Secretary of the Army may not incur any cost in connection with such use.

(c) The Secretary of the Army may require such additional terms and conditions with respect to this section as the Secretary considers appropriate.

And the Senate agree to the same.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 5604) to authorize certain construction at military installations for fiscal year 1985, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The Senate amendment struck out all of the House bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate with an amendment which is a substitute for the House bill and the Senate amendment. The differences between the House bill, the Senate amendment, and the substitute agreed to in conference are noted below, except for clerical corrections, conforming changes made necessary by agreements reached by the conferees, and minor drafting and clarifying changes.

COMPARISON OF HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS

As passed by the House, H.R. 5604 provided $9,237,585,000 in new authorization.

The bill as amended by the Senate provided $9,300,089,000 in new authorization.

SUMMARY OF RESOLUTION OF DIFFERENCES

CONFERENCE GUIDELINES

There were several hundred projects or language items in dispute between the House and Senate versions of the military construction authorization bill. In order to facilitate the resolution of these differences the conferees established the following conference guidelines:

1. A target of $9.2 billion in budget authority was determined to represent the amount that the conferees could authorize for appropriations to stay within the ceiling for the defense function being negotiated between the House and Senate in conference on H.R. 5167, the Department of Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 1985.

2. Within this target, priority was given to restoring those adequately justified projects that had been included in the budget request but deferred by either the House or the Senate for budgetary reasons.

3. Prior year savings that are expected to result from a good bidding climate in the construction industry were used to reduce the authorization for appropriations.

BURDEN SHARING IN NATO

The conferees continue to be concerned at the apparent unwillingness of the NATO allies to increase their support of U.S. forces deployed in NATO. The issue of burden sharing, as exemplified in the Senate vote on the Nunn amendment to the fiscal year 1985 omnibus defense authorization bill to withdraw U.S. forces from NATO unless the allies keep their commitments to real increases in defense spending, is becoming a major issue with the American people. Unless the allies are more forthcoming in their support for U.S. forces, there will be ever-increasing pressures to bring U.S. forces home.

Of particular concern is the situation in the Federal Republic of Germany where the great majority of U.S. forces are deployed. In the decade of the 1970's the German government sponsored programs, such as the Offset Program and the Garlstedt construction program, which supported U.S. forces. However, since 1980, while the United States has taken on much of the defense of Southwest Asia, the German government has done little to support deployed U.S. forces. The Master Restationing Plan, for instance, which would greatly benefit the war-fighting capability of NATO and return high value, urban real estate to the German economy, has not been financially supported by the German government.

The conferees believe strongly that the allies must be more forthcoming on the burdensharing issue. In the area of facilities for U.S. forces, there is great potential for the allies to undertake programs that would demonstrate their willingness to take on more of the collective defense burden. The Rheinberg facility is symbolic of this issue. There is no reason that the German government could not purchase this facility and make it available to U.S. forces. Their investment in the facility would be repaid quickly by the impact of U.S. forces on the local economy.

However, they have not undertaken this option and the conferees find themselves in a familiar dilemma. The Army budget request includes $13,100,000 to buy this facility; if the project is turned down, U.S. forces suffer. Therefore, the conferees have reluctantly agreed to authorize appropriations for this facility on the condition that the Administration will make one more sincere effort to have the German government buy this facility for use by U.S. forces.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

Three projects in the Department of Defense request were associated with the President's Executive Order 12348, dated February 25, 1982, which is aimed at improving the government's management of real property by selling surplus Federal properties and using the proceeds to reduce the national debt. In implementing that order, the Administration has adopted a concomitant policy of requiring one Federal agency to pay for property it desires to acquire from another Federal agency, including land transfers between two military services. In line with this policy, the National Defense University requested $5 million to acquire from the General Services Administration (GSA) 10.5 acres of surplus land adjacent to Ft. McNair in the District of Columbia for a new university headquarters and library. The Air Force requested $1.4 million to buy 50 acres of federally held land for a new housing site near Fort MacArthur, California. The National Security Agency requested $7.5 million to purchase from the General Services Administration on office building in the harbor area of Baltimore, Maryland.

The House denied the three projects because of its concern over the policy of charging one Federal agency for unused properties of another. The Senate amendment authorized the three property acquisitions but without providing a corresponding increase in appropriations for the acquisitions, meaning that the agencies would have to make the purchases "out of their own hides."

The conferees agree that the projects are indeed well justified but do not support this new policy of buying and selling properties between agencies. In the cases of these particular projects, such a practice inflates the budget of the acquiring agencies. In other words, these projects were in addition to what these three agencies normally would have requested. Also, the conferees are concerned that to the best of their knowledge, these are the only three property acquisitions in the entire Federal budget that were required to comply with the new policy, raising serious questions as to whether the policy is being applied government-wide and in an equitable fashion among departments.

If the purpose of the policy is to force Federal agencies to acquire only those real properties they absolutely need, the objective can and should be achieved through good management review within the Executive Branch. The conferees suggest in the strongest terms possible that the Office of Management and Budget reconsider the Department of Defense's request for a waiver of the policy for these three projects.

NAMING OF MEDICAL FACILITIES

The House bill contained legislative provisions that would name wings of the proposed new Brooke Army Medical Center after Representative Abraham Kazen, Jr. and Senator John Tower, both of Texas; and would change the name of the San Diego Naval Hospital to the Bob Wilson Naval Hospital in honor of former Representative Bob Wilson of California.

The conferees concluded that, while recognizing the tremendous contributions of Representative Kazen, Senator Tower, and former Representative Wilson to public service, the precedent of naming facilities for elected officials in the military construction authorization bill would not be good policy. Traditionally, the naming of military facilities has been the prerogative of the secretary of the service involved. The conferees, therefore, direct that a letter be sent to the appropriate service secretaries recognizing the public contributions of Representative Kazen, Senator Tower, and former Representative Wilson and recommending that their names be considered when these medical facilities are named.

DEMOLITION OF WORLD WAR II BUILDINGS

The Senate bill contained a provision (Section 812) which would require the Army to demolish temporary World War II wooden structures when new facilities were accepted into the inventory on a square foot for square foot basis. The House bill did not address this issue.

The conferees agree that retention of World War II temporary wooden buildings creates an unnecessary maintenance burden on the Army and the retention of these buildings should be kept to the absolute minimum. The conferees also recognize that some Army functions must continue to utilize these aging structures because the total replacement of all the World War II facilities now in use is not a practical alternative in the near future considering current budget constraints.

The Army submitted a disposal plan on March 15, 1984, which was based on the disposal of World War II temporary buildings as replacement projects are completed. The Army plan would begin with the calendar year 1986. The conferees agree with the basic principles of the plan, but feel the disposal must start sooner and achieve a greater reduction in the current inventory of these old buildings.

In order to expedite the disposal of World War II temporary buildings, the Army is expected to demolish temporary facilities with an area equal to the area of the replacement facilities for each replacement project provided in the United States by the Army's military construction program and accepted into the inventory after October 1, 1984. In order to identify specific demolition plans in the future, beginning with the fiscal year 1986 program request, the Army is to include a disposal statement on the DD Form 1391 which identifies temporary facilities which will be disposed of for each of the replacement projects requested.

In addition to the demolition of buildings being replaced by new construction, the conferees feel the Army can improve its management and utilization of the buildings now in the inventory and thus make more World War II temporary buildings available for demolition. The Army is to conduct space utilization surveys at the active Army installations in the United States to determine the need for continued use of the World War II buildings. Unnecessary World War II temporary buildings identified by these surveys will be demolished.

The Army is expected to provide a report to the appropriate committees which describes the progress made during the first year of operation under the demolition plan and the initial results of the space utilization surveys. This report should be provided by June 30, 1985. The committees will review the actual and projected demolition results to determine if further legislative action is required.

CONTRACTING OUT CHILD CARE

The Senate amendment authorized $26,000,000 for 19 projects either to construct new child care centers or build additions to existing ones. The House bill authorized the same 19 projects but provided for only $23,400,000, reflecting an across-the-board 10 percent reduction in the request as an effort to hold down the cost of constructing child care centers.

Both the Senate and House expressed in their respective reports on this legislation their concern over the high cost of building and operating centers to care for the children of military personnel.

In its report language, the Senate directed that each service seek to enter into at least one third-party contract for the construction and operation of a child care center on one of its military installations. The House report had no such language.

The conferees agree to authorize the child care centers at the lower total of $23,400,000. They also agree that the services should test the market place to determine whether contracting out child care centers is less costly to the government than present procedures. Therefore, the services are directed to seek contracts with private firms through the competitive bidding process for the construction and operation of one child care center on a base belonging to each of the three military services. While in pursuit of the third-party contracts the services are permitted to execute under existing procedures the child care center projects authorized by the conference. The services should seek their respective third-party contracts for child care centers from those projects programmed for future years. A third-party contract may be entered into only if it is determined cost effective, based on the total cost to the government under the third-party option versus the conventional procedure. Before any action is taken by a service to award a contract for child care under this effort, a report including the cost analysis upon which a decision is based must be furnished to the appropriate committees of Congress at least 30 days before contract award.

The conferees also agree that future child care projects will not be considered by the Armed Services Committees of the House and Senate unless this pilot effort is accomplished.

MINOR CONSTRUCTION

To accomplish the task of meeting its budget target, the conference directed that five projects, each estimated at less than $1,000,000, be authorized and funded under the fiscal year 1985 unspecified minor construction programs of the Navy and Air Force. The projects are:

1. A fire station estimated at $560,000 for the Naval Security Group Activity, Skaggs Island, California.
2. An aircraft parking project estimated at $600,000 and a library at $900,000 at K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base, Michigan.
3. An aircraft parking project estimated at $600,000 and a library at $700,000 at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Michigan.

MISCELLANEOUS REPORT REQUIREMENTS

In the respective reports on the bill, both the Senate and the House Armed Services Committees included items of "Special Emphasis". The conferees hereby endorse the language on items of "Special Emphasis" found in both reports and, unless some modification to that language is contained in this joint statement of the committee of conference, the positions and requirements contained under items of "Special Emphasis" in both Senate and House reports on the fiscal year 1985 military construction authorization bills are concurred in by the conferees.

TITLE I—ARMY

The House bill approved $3,138,774,000 in authorization for the Department of the Army military construction and family housing programs. The Senate amendment approved authorization in the amount of $3,358,832,000 for such purposes. The conferees agree to authorize appropriations for projects in Title I in the amount of $3,140,884,000 which is $2,110,000 above the House figure and $217,948,000 below the Senate figure. Among the items considered in conference and acted upon by the conferees were the following:

BROOKE ARMY MEDICAL CENTER

The Department of the Army and the Office of Health Affairs of the Department of Defense have been in disagreement for several years as to whether or not to proceed with a new hospital at the site of the current Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas. The size of a replacement facility has also been an issue.

The House bill contained language to require the Army to proceed with a 695-bed replacement hospital. The provision further specified that separate wings be named after Representative Abraham Kazen, Jr. and Senator John Tower.

The Senate amendment had no comparable provision.

Recognizing that the Department of the Army has recently been directed by the Department of Defense Office of Health Affairs to design a replacement facility with the capacity for 450 beds, the conferees agree to modified language requiring the Secretary of the Army to enter into a contract for the design of a replacement facility with the capacity for not less than 450 beds. The design is to be accomplished in a manner that will accommodate future expansion in the event it becomes necessary as the result of increased peacetime needs or to meet mobilization requirements. The conferees further direct that Brooke Army Medical Center remain a regional teaching hospital.

The conferees agree to delete the provision to name wings of the hospital for elected officials because of concerns regarding the precedent of naming facilities in the annual military construction authorization bill. This matter is discussed more fully under the "General Topics" portion of the report.

The conferees endorse the concept of a "Blue Ribbon Panel" of health experts from outside the Department of Defense (DoD) which is required to be established by Senate Report No. 98-500, and believe such a panel can provide constructive comment on DoD procedures for sizing medical facilities.

The conferees expect the future sizing of Brooke Army Medical Center to be reviewed by the special "Blue Ribbon Panel" on hospitals to further insure the appropriate size for this important facility.

However, the conferees want to make it clear that the programming and construction of military hospitals should not be delayed to await the results of the deliberations of this panel. The Department of Defense is expected to proceed with the programming of projects already under consideration.

The conferees further expect medical facilities to be included in the fiscal year 1986 budget request with the understanding that costs can be adjusted if the findings of the panel indicate that changes are required.

FORT HOOD, TX—SENIOR OFFICERS' QUARTERS

The House bill contained $3,253,000 in authorization for construction of 20 units of family housing for senior officers at Fort Hood, Texas. The House bill further authorized a one-time exemption from title 10, U.S.C., section 2826, which establishes housing space allowances. The Senate amendment contained no comparable provision.

The conferees agree to authorize $1,950,000 for the construction of three units of general officers' quarters and 17 units of colonels' quarters with a one-time waiver of the space limitation provision.

The conferees reluctantly approved the one-time exemption to the existing space criterion statute because of the unique situation at Fort Hood. The senior officers' quarters were constructed in the early 1950s based on standards at that time and are inadequate.

The Senate recedes to the House position with the clear understanding that this would be one-time exception because of the situation existing at Fort Hood.

TITLE II—NAVY

The House bill approved $2,314,558,000 in authorization for the Department of the Navy military construction and family housing programs. The Senate amendment approved authorization in the amount of $2,358,381,000 for such purposes. The conferees agree to a new total in Title II of $2,288,803,000 which is $25,755,000 below the House figure and $69,578,000 below the Senate figure.

ADMINISTRATIVE SPACE, WASHINGTON NAVY YARD, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The House bill authorized $19,750,000 to renovate and convert Building 111 at the Washington Navy Yard into administrative office space and construct a 680-vehicle parking garage for future occupants of the building and other personnel being relocated to the Navy Yard in association with a fiscal year 1983 office space renovation of Building 210. No authorization was provided in the Senate amendment.

The conferees agree to authorize $16 million for the building conversion and a parking garage appropriately sized to accommodate the personnel scheduled to move into Building 111 and 210. The 350 future occupants of Building 111 are personnel of the Naval Investigative Service now located at the Suitland Federal Center in Suitland, Maryland. The 550 persons scheduled to occupy Building 210 are Military Sealift Command personnel, now located in the Tamol Building in Washington, D.C.

The conferees emphasize the approval of this project does not constitute endorsement of the large Navy master plan to relocate 18,000 personnel to the Washington Navy Yard.

SANTA MARGARITA WATER PROJECT

The Senate amendment approved the Navy's request for $142,000,000 to partly fund a proposed $263,000,000 water reclamation and flood control project associated with the Marine Corps Base at Camp Pendleton, California. The House deferred consideration of the request until the Congress acts on pending legislation to authorize the two-dam project.

The conferees agree to authorize the Navy to spend up to $1,500,000 for design and engineering associated with the project. However, none of the funds may be obligated unless legislation is enacted to carry out the project in accordance with federal reclamation laws.

LAND ACQUISITION, NAVAL AIR STATION, OCEANA, VA

The House bill authorize $7.7 million for the acquisition of land in the high noise and accident potential zones surrounding Naval Air Station, Oceana, Virginia. The Senate amendment contained no authorization for this purpose.

The conferees agree to defer authorization for this project because of budget constraints. Recognizing, however, the importance and urgency of completing the 10-year Air Incompatible Use Zone (AICUZ) program to protect the operational capability of the master jet base at NAS, Oceana the conferees direct the Navy to resubmit this project in the fiscal year 1986 budget request.

TITLE III—AIR FORCE

The House bill approved $2,742,813,000 for military construction and military family housing for the Department of the Air Force. The Senate amendment approved $2,685,031,000. The conferees agree to a new total in the amount of $2,791,063,000, which is $48,250,000 above the House figure and $106,032,000 above the Senate figure.

AIR FORCE MUSEUM

The Air Force requested $5,400,000 as the Federal share of a project to expand the Air Force Museum at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. Private funds are being raised to match the proposed Federal contribution. The House approved the request of the Air Force, while the Senate denied the request.

The conferees debated this issue at length. House conferees felt strongly that this was a meritorious project for which there was ample precedent. Senate conferees argued that, in view of the overall constraints on defense spending and the restricted ceiling on military construction in particular, expenditure of funds on this museum project was not warranted. In addition, the Senate conferees argued that unless some limits were placed on museum projects, Federal funding could be sought for museum projects at a great many military installations where such museums already exist.

The Senate conferees reluctantly agree to a compromise that would permit each service (to include the Marine Corps) to designate one museum at one location to be the official service museum. The services could seek appropriated funds, if necessary, on a matching basis, only for the one official service museum. The Congress will consider requests for appropriated funds for official service museums, if such requests can be justified. However, as a rule, the conferees expect the services to make every attempt to fund these official service museums through private, non-Federal sources. The large number of smaller museums found at many military installations around the country will continue to be operated as they are now and Federal funds will not be used for construction, additions or alterations.

Given this compromise, the conferees agree to authorize the $5,400,000 requested for the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. If the Secretary of the Air Force designates this museum as the one official Air Force Museum as indicated above, then the funds, if appropriated, may be obligated, assuming that an equal amount of matching funds is on hand from other sources.

During debate on this issue, the conferees were made aware that the Air Force is conducting a fund-raising campaign to help raise matching funds for this project. Contributions are being solicited from uniformed and civilian employees of the Air Force. According to internal Air Force documents, in some instances extreme pressure is being placed on individuals to contribute a specified "fair share" toward this project. The conferees consider these tactics to raise matching funds to be entirely inappropriate and urges the Secretary of the Air Force to insure that such practices are not permitted.

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND MILITARY CONSTRUCTION BUDGET

The conferees are displeased with the tactics used by the Strategic Air Command (SAC) to secure approval of unbudgeted projects outside the normal budget process. The Strategic Air Command is the only major command in any of the services that, as a matter of routine, seeks to have projects added at the congressional level. These procedures distort the legislative process and subvert the service's system of priorities. The conferees expect the Secretary of the Air Force to take the necessary action to preclude abuses of the system in the future.

TITLE IV—DEFENSE AGENCIES

The House bill authorized $363,148,000 in new construction for Defense Agencies while the Senate amendment approved $358,245,000. The conferees agree to a new total of $357,075,000, which is $6,073,000 below the House figure and $1,170,000 below the Senate figure.

TITLE V—NATO INFRASTRUCTURE

The House bill authorized $250,000,000 for the NATO Infrastructure program.

The Senate amendment provided authorization in the amount of $131,700,000 for the NATO fund.

Believing that the U.S. dollar will continue to be strong against foreign currencies through fiscal year 1984, the conferees agree to $131,700,000 authorization for the program.

TITLE VI—AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

OVERSEAS HOUSING LEASES

In Section 608, the House bill approved the request of the Department of Defense for authority to lease up to 31,000 units of family housing at any one time in foreign countries. The Senate amendment, however, reduced the requested number to 30,000 units, the same as the level authorized for fiscal year 1984.

The conferees agree to authorize 30,000 units. The conferees believe that the requirement for leased housing in foreign countries should be reduced as a result of the new construction of family housing authorized in fiscal year 1985 and prior years.

TITLE VII—GUARD AND RESERVE

The House bill provided a lump sum authorization of $428,292,000 for the Guard and Reserve construction program. The Senate amendment contained authorization in the amount of $407,900,000.

The conferees agree to authorize $424,383,000.
