SEC. 102. Appropriations and funds made available and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall be available from October 1, 1984, and shall remain available until (a) enactment into law of an appropriation for any project or activity provided for in this joint resolution, or (b) enactment of the applicable appropriation Act by both Houses without any provision for such project or activity, or (c) October 3, 1984, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 103. Appropriations made and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall cover all obligations or expenditures incurred for any project or activity during the period for which funds or authority for such project or activity are available under this joint resolution.

SEC. 104. Expenditures made pursuant to this joint resolution shall be charged to the applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization whenever a bill in which such applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization is contained is enacted into law.

31 USC 1511.

SEC. 105. Any appropriation for the fiscal year 1985 required to be apportioned pursuant to subchapter II of chapter 15 of title 31, United States Code, may be apportioned on a basis indicating the need (to the extent any such increases cannot be absorbed within available appropriations) for a supplemental or deficiency estimate of appropriation to the extent necessary to permit payment of such pay increases as may be granted pursuant to law to civilian officers and employees and to active and retired military personnel. Each such appropriation shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of subchapter II of chapter 15 of title 31, United States Code.

SEC. 106. (a) No appropriation or funds made available or authority granted to the Department of Defense pursuant to this joint resolution shall be used for new production of items not funded for production in fiscal year 1984 or prior years, for the increase in production rates above those sustained with fiscal year 1984 funds or to initiate, resume or continue any project, activity, operation or organization which are defined as any project, subproject, activity, budget activity, program element, and subprogram within a program element and for investment items are further defined as a P-1 line item in a budget activity within an appropriation account and an R-1 line item which includes a program element and subprogram element within an appropriation account, for which appropriations, funds, or other authority were not available during the fiscal year 1984.

(b) No appropriation or funds made available or authority granted to the Department of Defense pursuant to this joint resolution shall be used to initiate multiyear procurements utilizing advance procurement funding for economic order quantity procurement.

Nicaragua.

(c) No appropriations or funds made available pursuant to this joint resolution to the Central Intelligence Agency, the Department of Defense, or any other agency or entity of the United States involved in intelligence activities may be obligated or expended for the purpose or which would have the effect of supporting, directly or indirectly, military or paramilitary operations in Nicaragua by any nation, group, organization, movement or individual.

(d) The appropriations or funds made available or authority granted to the Department of Defense pursuant to this joint resolution for procurement of MX missiles shall be in accordance with and subject to all the limitations, restrictions, and conditions set forth in section 110 of the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985, as enacted by the Congress and shall be subject to the provision that no funds may be obligated for the procurement of additional operational MX missiles (excluding funds necessary for spare parts, advance procurement of parts and materials, maintenance of the contractor base and procurement related to the deployment of MX missiles funded in fiscal year 1984) until Congress enacts additional appropriation legislation after March 1, 1985 providing for the obligation of such funds.
