Mr. PRESSLER. Mr. President, I am pleased to join my colleague from South Dakota, Senator DASCHLE, as well as Senators CAMPBELL, SIMON, PELL, and DORGAN in introducing legislation to establish the Wounded Knee National Tribal Park in the State of South Dakota. The purpose of our legislation is to acknowledge, preserve and protect the historically significant sites of the Wounded Knee tragedy of 1890. National recognition of this area is long overdue.

The legislation we are introducing today is the product of our cumulative efforts over the past several sessions of Congress to properly recognize the Wounded Knee tragedy. Indeed, Wounded Knee has been the subject of Senate consideration for a number of years. Let me highlight some of this activity:

During the 101st Congress, the Senate Select Committee on Indian Affairs held hearings to discuss the historical significance of Wounded Knee. Also during the 101st Congress, the Senate adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution 153, recognizing the 100th anniversary of the Wounded Knee Massacre. This resolution, which I cosponsored, also expressed support for the establishment of a suitable and appropriate memorial to those who were slain at Wounded Knee in 1890.

Late in the 102d Congress and again in the 103d Congress, Senator DASCHLE and I introduced legislation (S. 3213 and S. 278) to establish the Chief Big Foot National Memorial Park and the Wounded Knee National Memorial.

During the 103d Congress, the Senate Energy Committee's Subcommittee on Public Lands, National Parks and Forests held a hearing on S. 278 (July 29, 1993).

In addition to this congressional activity, the National Park Service has studied the historical significance of Wounded Knee six times since 1950. The Park Service consistently has reaffirmed it as a nationally significant area. In fact, our bill is in part based on one of the proposed alternatives mentioned in a January 1993 NPS report on Wounded Knee.

Mr. President, I hope the Senate will agree during this 104th Congress to ensure the protection and preservation of the historical sites at the Wounded Knee tragedy. I look forward to working with my colleagues, members of the Cheyenne River and Oglala Sioux Tribes, the Governor of South Dakota, the National Park Service, and other organizations to move this legislation forward. Above all, we must ensure this legislation is implemented with proper consultation with the Indian communities. It is imperative that Indian perspectives be included in developing the memorials' interpretive sites.

Enactment of our legislation will promote a greater understanding of the events associated with the Wounded Knee tragedy. In addition, appreciation of Indian culture, heritage, and history will be enhanced through establishment of these memorials.
