No. 30

Senate

(Legislative day of Monday, January 30, 1995)

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Today's prayer will be offered by our guest chaplain, the Reverend Barbara D. Henry, of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, the Reverend Barbara D. Henry, of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges, we thank You for the rich resources of this Nation, and for the freedom to choose the men and women who make the laws of this land.

Guide and bless our Senators here assembled. Give them strength and courage for their tasks, wisdom in their deliberations, and the foresight to provide for the well-being of our society. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness, and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve the people whom they represent.

Kindle in the hearts of all the people of this country, we pray, the true love of peace. Grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil and to make no peace with oppression; and that we may reverently use the freedom with which we have been blessed, help us to employ it in the maintenance of justice in our communities and among the nations of the world.

For Yours is the Kingdom, O Lord, and You are exalted as Head over all. Amen.—Adapted from prayers in "The Book of Common Prayer," 1979.

THE REVEREND BARBARA D. HENRY

Mr. HATFIELD. Mr. President, I would like to take this moment to thank our chaplain for the day, the Reverend Barbara Henry, who has opened the Senate with prayer.

We are very honored to have Reverend Henry in this role. She is a person of great distinction and background in her educational experience—Boston University and the University of Pittsburgh in music, and also a graduate of the General Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church of America in New York.

Reverend Henry has not only served as a pastor in a parish, two of them here in Washington, DC—St. John's Episcopal Church in Georgetown and as assistant rector at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church in Washington—she has divided her ministry between the parish and in music education and in music library work, especially.

She is now serving at Catholic University of America here in Washington, where she is the head music librarian and is carrying out her other ministry within the region of Washington.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that a more detailed résumé of her outstanding ministry be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the résumé was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
