SENATE RESOLUTION 79—RELATIVE TO GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mr. SPECTER (for himself, Mr. LAUTENBERG, Mr. D'AMATO, and Mr. SIMON) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. RES. 79

Whereas, the ancient Greeks developed the concept of democracy, in which the supreme power to govern was invested in the people;

Whereas, the Founding Fathers of the United States of America drew heavily upon the political experience and philosophy of ancient Greece in forming our representative democracy;

Whereas, these and other ideals have forged a close bond between our two nations and their peoples;

Whereas, March 25, 1995 marks the 174th anniversary of the beginning of the revolution which freed the Greek people from the Ottoman Empire; and

Whereas, it is proper and desirable to celebrate with the Greek people, and to reaffirm the democratic principles from which our two great nations were born: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the United States of America assembled, that March 25, 1995 is designated as "Greek Independence Day: A National Day of Celebration of Greek and American Democracy." The President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

● Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, today I am submitting along with Senators LAUTENBERG, D'AMATO, and SIMON a resolution to designate March 25, 1995, as "Greek Independence Day: A Celebration of Greek and American Democracy."

One hundred and seventy-four years ago, the Greeks began the revolution that would free them from the Ottoman Empire and return Greece to its democratic heritage. It was, of course, the ancient Greeks who developed the concept of democracy in which the supreme power to govern was vested in the people. Our Founding Fathers drew heavily upon the political and philosophical experience of ancient Greece in forming our representative democracy. Thomas Jefferson proclaimed that, "to the ancient Greeks * * * we are all indebted for the light which led ourselves out of Gothic darkness." It is fitting, then, that we should recognize the anniversary of the beginning of their efforts to return to that democratic tradition.

The democratic form of government is only one of the most obvious of the many benefits we have gained from the Greek people. The ancient Greeks contributed a great deal to the modern world, particularly to the United States of America, in the areas of art, philosophy, science, and law. Today, Greek-Americans continue to enrich our culture and make valuable contributions to American society, business, and government.

It is my hope that strong support for this resolution in the Senate will serve as a clear goodwill gesture to the people of Greece with whom we have enjoyed such a close bond throughout history. Similar resolutions have been signed into law each of the past several years, with overwhelming support in both the House of Representatives and the Senate. Accordingly, I urge my Senate colleagues to join me in supporting this important resolution.●

SENATE RESOLUTION 80—RELATIVE TO THE FEDERAL OPEN MARKET COMMITTEE

Mr. DORGAN (for himself, Mr. BAUCUS, and Mr. REID) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs:

S. RES. 80

Whereas the Federal Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve System has increased interest rates 7 times during the 12 months preceding the date of adoption of this resolution, despite the absence of any serious threat of inflation;

Whereas the inflation rate declined to very modest levels during the 4 years preceding the date of adoption of this resolution;

Whereas the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System maintains that the Consumer Price Index overstates the true rate of inflation by as much as 50 percent;

Whereas increases in short-term interest rates have been accompanied by increases in long-term interest rates, reversing the downward trend that helped strengthen the national economy;

Whereas such higher interest rates will have a devastating impact on the economy, including home builders, homebuyers, and homeowners;

Whereas higher interest rates will increase the Federal deficit by adding $171,000,000,000, over 5 years, to pay the interest on the national debt;
