House of Representatives

Chamber Action

Bills Introduced: Twelve public bills, H.R. 1109–1120, and one resolution, H.J. Res. 73, were introduced. Pages H2583–84

Report Filed: The following report was filed as follows:

H.R. 956, to establish legal standards and procedures for product liability litigation, amended (H. Rept. 104–64, Part I). Page H2583

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial Commission: The Speaker appointed Representative Lewis of California to serve as a member of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial Commission on the part of the House. Page H2490

Private Property Protection: House began consideration of amendments on H.R. 925, to compensate owners of private property for the effect of certain regulatory restrictions; but came to no resolution thereon. Consideration of amendments will resume on Friday, March 3. Pages H2495–H2566

Pending when the Committee of the Whole rose was the Mineta amendment to the Canady substitute that seeks to increase the threshold for payment of compensation from a 10 percent to a 20 percent loss in property value. Pages H2562–66

Agreed to the Canady amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended by the Tauzin amendment, that specifies that compensation would be required in cases where the affected portion of a private owner's property loses at least 10 percent of its value; states that it is Federal policy that no law or agency action should limit the use of privately owned property so as to diminish its value; directs Federal agencies to ensure that their action will not have such results; requires the Federal Government to purchase the portion of a property affected by an agency action, at fair market value, if the loss in value exceeds 50 percent and the owner so requests; and limits the scope of the bill's compensation requirements (agreed to by a recorded vote of 301 ayes to 128 noes, Roll No. 190). Pages H2502–30

Rejected:

The Porter amendment to the Canady substitute that sought to require that compensation not be paid to any Federal agency that has performed a private property impact analysis for the particular regulation or other agency action (rejected by a 186 ayes to 241 noes, Roll No. 191); Pages H2530–49

The Schroeder amendment to the Canady substitute that sought to require that any compensation paid to property owners be reduced by an amount equal to any increase in the value of the same property that resulted from other agency action; Pages H2549–51

The Goss amendment to the Canady substitute that sought to increase the threshold for payment of compensation from a 10 percent to a 30 percent loss in property value (rejected by a recorded vote of 210 ayes to 211 noes, Roll No. 192); and Page H2551–56

The Wyden amendment to the Canady substitute that sought to restrict any activity likely to diminish the fair market value of any private homes and clarify the meaning of "private home" (rejected by a recorded vote 165 ayes to 260 noes, Roll No. 193). Pages H2556–61

H. Res. 101, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was agreed to by a yea-and-nay vote of 271 yeas to 151 nays, Roll No. 189. This rule was debated on Wednesday, March 1. Pages H2494–95

Committees to Sit: It was made in order that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit on Friday, March 3, during the proceedings of the House under the five-minute rule: Committees on Commerce, Economic and Educational Opportunities, Judiciary, and Transportation and Infrastructure. Page H2567

Senate Messages: Messages received from the Senate today appear on page H2489.

Quorum Calls—Votes: One yea-and-nay vote and four recorded votes developed during the proceedings of the House today and appear on pages H2494–95, H2529–30, H2548–49, H2555–56, and H2561. There were no quorum calls.

Congressional Record

The public proceedings of each House of Congress, as reported by the Official Reporters thereof, are printed pursuant to directions of the Joint Committee on Printing as authorized by appropriate provisions of Title 44, United States Code, and published for each day that one or both Houses are in session, excepting very infrequent instances when two or more unusually small consecutive issues are printed at one time. ¶The Congressional Record is available as an online database through GPO Access, a service of the U.S. Government Printing Office. The online database is updated each day the Congressional Record is published. The database includes both text and graphics from the beginning of the 103d Congress, 2d Session (January 1994) forward. It is available on a Wide Area Information Server (WAIS) through the Internet and via asynchronous dial-in. The annual subscription fee for a single workstation is $375. Six month subscriptions are available for $200 and one month of access can be purchased for $35. Discounts are available for multiple-workstation subscriptions. To subscribe, Internet users should telnet swais.access.gpo.gov and login as `newuser` (all lower case); no password is required. Dial in users should use communications software and modem to call (202) 512-1661 and login as `swais` (all lower case); no password is required; at the second login prompt, login as `newuser` (all lower case); no password is required. Follow the instructions on the screen to register for a subscription for the Congressional Record Online via GPO Access. For assistance, contact the GPO Access User Support Team by sending Internet e-mail to help@eids05.eids.gpo.gov, or a fax to (202) 512-1262, or by calling (202) 512-1530 between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Eastern time, Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. ¶The Congressional Record paper and 24x microfiche will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, at the following prices: paper edition, $112.50 for six months, $225 per year, or purchased for $1.50 per issue, payable in advance; microfiche edition, $118 per year, or purchased for $1.50 per issue payable in advance. The semimonthly Congressional Record Index may be purchased for the same per issue prices. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, directly to the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. ¶Following each session of Congress, the daily Congressional Record is revised, printed, permanently bound and sold by the Superintendent of Documents in individual parts or by sets. ¶With the exception of copyrighted articles, there are no restrictions on the republication of material from the Congressional Record.
