

in the 104th Congress is now so lopsided that it is becoming a form of legalized corruption. Let us please stop the madness now.

THE NEW SALT II

(Mrs. SEASTRAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. SEASTRAND. Mr. Speaker, it is time for a nuclear moratorium, a moratorium on the thermo-nuclear rhetoric spouted by the Democratic White House and those who continue to defend the failed welfare state and skyrocketing deficits.

We talk of transforming the poor. They hold up children. We want to end subsidized illegitimacy. They hold up children. We talk about giving more flexibility to the States. And they hold up children.

Mr. Speaker, have they no shame? Children cannot and should not be used as political shields. We have the moral obligation to our children to reduce the deficit and reform welfare. It is because we care about saving the future for our children and grandchildren, and it is because we know that our children do matter that we are taking on the difficult tasks of cutting the Federal bureaucracy. We are willing to make the difficult decisions.

Mr. Speaker, it is time to sign the new SALT II treaty. S. Stop the rhetoric. A. Assume responsibility. L. Limit the bureaucracy. T. Tackle the problem. The nuclear rhetoric must end.

REPUBLICAN BUDGET CUTS

(Mr. WARD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WARD. Mr. Speaker, hearing about salt, I can only think of child nutrition. I can only think of our School Lunch Programs. I can only think about what we have heard from the people who are supporting and who are committed to one thing and one thing only, and, that is, this Republican contract.

They hate it when we stand up here, those of us who are fighting for our working families, and remind them that a cut is a cut if it does not meet the need. The need is what the goal is here, the need of our children to have a hot meal at school because that may be the only place they get it.

If you raise by 4.5 percent the money that is being spent, that is still not an increase if the need has gone up by more. If you cap that increase at 4.5 percent and the need does in fact go up by more, you are taking food from the mouths of our children. That is not what the voters have sent us here to do.

TAYLOR-DICKS EMERGENCY TIMBER SALVAGE AMENDMENT

(Mr. HERGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Speaker, much of our national forests in the West are sick and dying. Drought, disease, insects, and fire are killing our forest in epidemic proportions. Some forests are already 60 and 70 percent dead. We must restore the health of our forests before it is too late. The best way to do this is to remove the source of sickness as soon as possible. Insects and disease cannot kill living trees if we remove the infested trees from the forest. Dead brittle trees cannot become the kindling for wildfire if we extract them from overstocked timber stands. Mr. Speaker, if we really want to preserve our forests, then we must act now. The Taylor-Dicks emergency timber salvage amendment to the supplemental appropriations bill before the House this week will curb the death cycle in our forest. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this crucially important amendment.

REPUBLICAN RESCISSIONS PACKAGE

(Mr. RICHARDSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, the Republican Contract With America is not with middle class America. It is a contract to help well-to-do and corporate America. The middle-class hard-working people of this country are going to be paying for Republican tax cuts for the wealthy.

Here are the facts. Republicans will cut funding for every American who wants to choose educational television programs. Republicans will cut funding for veterans, for medical equipment that vets need even though more veterans need medical help. Republicans will cut funding for students by cutting drug-free schools, summer jobs for youth, academic scholarships, a total of $1.7 billion in education cuts.

Mr. Speaker, it is virtually certain that none of these cuts will go for deficit reduction.

Mr. Speaker, instead the savings will go to finance a capital gains tax cut, 76 percent that will go to people with incomes of $100,000 or more.

Mr. Speaker, this is not a contract with middle-class America.

REPUBLICANS CARE ABOUT CHILDREN

(Mr. RIGGS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. RIGGS. Mr. Speaker, we just heard more baloney. The principal tax cut in the Contract With America is a $500 per child tax credit. If that is a tax break for the rich, then our friends on the other side of the aisle are sadly misinformed.

They can continue the scare tactics, the distortions, the out-and-out hysteria. It is time we told the truth. Republicans care about children and our numbers prove it.

We are growing School Lunch Programs by 4.5 percent per year for the next 5 years. By the year 2000, we will be spending $1 billion more on the School-Based Nutrition Program than today.

Yes, Mr. Speaker, it is clear that Republicans care about children and our numbers prove it. The American public should ask who the Democrats care about when they oppose a 4.5-percent spending increase for school lunches and $1 billion more by the year 2000.

Do they care about a School Lunch Program that is closer to home? Do they care about our children and their future or do they care about some Federal bureaucrats?

THE CONTRACT WITH AMERICA AND THE CONSTITUTION

(Mr. WATT of North Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, the Republicans have a Contract With America. Unfortunately, they do not seem to care whether it violates this contract with America, the Constitution of the United States.

This contract with America, the Constitution, took another hit last week. They called it tort reform but what they did was federalize all the legal standards, and that, my friends, is contrary to the commerce clause and the 10th amendment to the Constitution.

Let's strike out another provision in the Constitution, punch it out again, punch it out again, my Republican colleagues. Your Constitution is going down the drain. Punch it out again.

MARCH MADNESS

(Mr. HOKE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HOKE. It is the commerce clause, the commerce clause is the part of the Constitution that gives the mandate to the Congress to do what we did last week.

Mr. Speaker, March madness usually refers to that time of year when all college basketball fans glue themselves to the television and become transformed into screaming, raving hoops fanatics. However, this year March madness has taken on a few new connotations.

March madness could refer to the wild distortions that the bitter defenders of big Government the liberal Democrats, are spreading about the Republican welfare plan. March madness could refer to the scare tactics and the false hysteria Democrats have ignited among the poor children in America
