

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE BOSTON UNIVERSITY MEN'S HOCKEY TEAM ON WINNING THE NCAA DIVISION I NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

• Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, I just want to take a moment to offer my congratulations to the Boston University men's hockey team who won the NCAA Division I national championship last weekend in Providence.

Led by Dorchester's own Chris O'Sullivan, who scored two goals and was named the Most Outstanding Player, the Terriers manhandled the powerful University of Maine Black Bears to win the championship. Goalie Tom Noble made 21 saves, Center Steve Thornton scored a goal and had an assist, and Capt. Jacques Jourbet scored a goal.

The Terriers were superb in the clutch this year, winning the Beanpot, the last at the hallowed Boston Garden, the hockey east championship, and now the national championship, Mr. President, you can not do any better than that.

Coach Jack Parker brings the NCAA ice hockey championship back to Boston University for the first time since 1978. He has done much to generate pride at B.U., and this year's accomplishment is something else that justly continues that tradition.

The B.U. hockey team has made all of us proud with their outstanding play. I offer my congratulations to the team, the head coach and his colleagues, and the university.●
