PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We are grateful, O God, that in all the moments of life there are friends and colleagues who offer to us their counsel and good word, who speak the truth with us and who correct us when we need correction, who support us when we need help, and who walk with us when we are alone. Our hearts are thankful, O gracious God, that every person can receive love and respect and kindness from others, even as we open our hearts and minds to those near and dear to us. May Your blessing, O God, that is new every morning and is with us in the depths of our souls, be with us this day and every day. Amen.
