

Tintinnabulation" of May 29, 1790, when church bells throughout the State heralded the outcome of the vote on ratification.

Mr. President, I ask to have reprinted in the RECORD proclamations of Hope Day 1995 by Gov. Lincoln Almond and David F. Roderick, Jr., mayor of Newport.

The proclamation follows:

THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND—PROCLAMATION

Whereas, on May 29, 1790, Rhode Island became our country's thirteenth state, fulfilling the hope of our nation's forefathers who sought unity and upheld the motto "E Pluribus Unum"—"One Composed of Many"; and

Whereas, while Rhode Island led the thirteen original colonies in rebelling against the tyrannical rule of England with the destruction of the British revenue sloop "Liberty" in 1769 and the burning of the schooner "Gaspee" in 1772, it would not seek democracy and its status as an independent state until May 29, 1790; and

Whereas, while Rhode Island was the last of the original thirteen colonies to ratify the federal constitution, our founding fathers—Dr. John Clarke and Roger Williams—were instrumental in creating the Great Charter granted by King Charles II on July 8, 1663, assuring Rhode Island's complete religious freedom, an antecedent to the Bill of Rights; and

Whereas, on this fourteenth commemoration of "Hope Day," all of Rhode Island should stand proud in recognizing that on this great day back in 1790, federal unification became complete and the thirteen original colonies had become one nation;

Now, therefore, I Lincoln Almond, Governor of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Do Hereby Proclaim, May 29, 1995 as Hope Day.

MAYOR OF THE CITY OF NEWPORT—PROCLAMATION

Whereas, in May of 1776, Rhode Island became the first of the thirteen original colonies to rebel against the tyranny of King George III, by declaring its independence from the Crown on May 4, 1776; and

Whereas, with the Revolutionary War won, it was not until fourteen years later, on May 29, 1790 that Rhode Island signed the Constitution, making it the official document of law in the land; and

Whereas, in recognition of the Ratification of the Constitution, church bells rang out through the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations; and

Whereas, in recognition of that day, the fourteenth annual commemoration of Hope Day and in celebration of USA Day in Newport, Now therefore be it

Resolved, That I, David F. Roderick, Jr., Mayor of the City of Newport in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, do hereby proclaim May 29, 1995, during the Memorial Day observance, to be Hope Day & U.S.A. Day in the City of Newport, and invite all cities and towns in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations to join with us in celebrating the 205th birthday of the Constitution of the United States.●

CELEBRATING THE 1965 ALUMNI CLASS OF CHARLES SUMNER HIGH SCHOOL 30-YEAR CLASS REUNION

● Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I would like to take a few moments to recognize the 1965 alumni class of Charles Sumner High School on their 30-year class reunion. Charles Sumner High School, located in St. Louis, MO, is one of the oldest high schools west of the Mississippi River founded in 1875.

Sumner High has been one of the most prestigious schools in the Midwest, concentrating on educating students for a college curriculum. The alumni of Sumner high are very proud and distinguished people. It is with fond memories that the Class of 1965 recognize and remember their Alma Mater as "No Substitute for Excellence."

Mr. President, the 1965 alumni class of Charles Sumner High will be celebrating their 30-year class reunion on June 16-18. I would like to extend my sincere congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1965, and hopes for continued success in the future.●

KID'S APPRECIATION DAY

● Mr. PRYOR. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on the importance of establishing a Kid's Appreciation Day to pay tribute to the children of this Nation. The question that is on the lips of children is "If there's a Mother's Day and a Father's Day, why isn't there a Kid's Day?" This is met with the standard response "Because every day is Kid's Day." Well, Mr. President, nothing could be further from the truth.

The children today deal with problems that were unfathomable when we were growing up. When I was young, one of my biggest worries was making it home to dinner on time. In many places today, kids worry more about dodging bullets, drug dealers, and whether they will live to see adulthood. Some children rarely see their parents who must hold two jobs in order to put food on the table.

There is nothing as valuable on this Earth than our children. We are handing these children the impossible task of dealing with problems that we have failed to solve. I know that having a Kid's Day won't solve these problems. But it would show our children that we appreciate them. I know the children of Arkansas want to be appreciated. A fine young lady named Vivian Rose has taken it upon herself to lead the children of my State toward this goal. She has presented this idea to Gov. Jim Guy Tucker who gives it his full support. I praise both of them for their efforts and commend them on their leadership in Kid's Appreciation Day.

Children are our most valuable asset and deserve to be valued on a special day. A Kid's Day would not only show our appreciation and gratitude but would instill in them a sense of comfort that they would hold dear. It would make children feel important and wanted instead of neglected. This holiday would give kids a chance to spend time with their parents. Time that they don't normally have. There could be free admission for museums and amusement parks. Local parks and swimming pools could be open to the public. It would be a day for parents to let their kids know that they care about them and this would help our children overcome the obstacles that they face to become the future leaders of tomorrow.

Mr. President, nations around the globe have Kid's Days. In fact, I'm told that the Kiwanis Club also sponsors a Kid's Day. They have parades, games, races, and give awards to celebrate children. I strongly recommend that we follow the lead of the Kiwanis Club, Governor Tucker, and Vivian Rose by making Kid's Day a reality nationwide. Children that feel wanted and appreciated are a strong defense against the violence these kids encounter in their neighborhoods. It is our responsibility as adults and role models to guide them toward the correct path of purpose. This holiday would place a smile on the faces of our kids and would put comfort in our hearts knowing that they are facing the world with added strength and resilience. Mr. President, Kid's Appreciation Day is a noble cause and I urge you to join me and my State in its support.●

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I do have some closing unanimous-consent requests, but I would withhold if the distinguished Senator from Nebraska has some comments he would like to make.

Mr. KERREY. I thank the Senator from Mississippi.

Mr. President, I rise but will withhold most of my comments. The Senator from South Dakota and I will have an opportunity to go round and round again on the DOJ rule amendment tomorrow.

I would point out for those few who are still remaining and listening to this, that this amendment illustrates why colleagues should be paying attention to this piece of legislation.

I, myself, support this particular section, this preemption by the Federal Government. But it is a significant preemption. Any time we see language that says, "We hereby preempt State and local laws" around here, you only get 90 votes against it.

Lately, the mood is shifting, and I think quite correctly so. The Supreme Court is shifting right along with it to an argument that cedes more and more power to the State government, whether it is welfare reform, health care, or whatever it is.

We are block granting after block granting more authority back to the State law. As I said, the Supreme Court is increasingly challenging our authority to intervene at all at the local level, the State level. Intervening with State laws at all gets to be a difficult business.

This piece of legislation preempts not just State laws but preempts local laws, I think quite repeatedly so. If we want a competitive environment, these airwaves, these cables, these lines, do not stop at a border.

It is, it seems to me, an interstate commerce issue. Nonetheless, it will
