

Don was named local Knight of the Year last year, which entitled him to enter the State competition against 20,000 others. A panel of seven knights from across the State picked Don as Minnesota Knight of the Year.

Again, Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Don Schirrick on his honor, and thanking him for his tireless work on behalf of the Knights of Columbus and the community of Red Lake Falls.

DRUG LEGISLATION

HON. GERALD B.H. SOLOMON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 13, 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to share with you some excerpts from an excellent speech recently given by former HEW Secretary Joseph Califano. Mr. Califano explores a subject that, unfortunately, is only seldom discussed—the enormous costs to taxpayers resulting from substance abuse. He also makes it clear that drug legalization would have disastrous consequences, especially on inner city communities.

Let me give just one example of how little most Americans understand about the wages of substance abuse. Do you ever see newspapers or television news report the amount that Federal entitlement programs pay out because of substance abuse? The answer is a colossal $77.6 billion this year—an amount equivalent to 40 percent of the Federal deficit.

Legalization of drugs in the United States is a policy of despair, one that would write off millions of our citizens, a disproportionate number of them black and Hispanic. It has not worked anywhere it has been tried. The claim that drug legalization in some European nation stands as a success story, especially when measured against the alleged failure of American drug policy, is specious.

Legalizers often cite marijuana as a harmless drug. Nonsense. Smoking pot savages short-term memory and ability to concentrate. And smoking pot can lead to use of other drugs for thousands of individuals. 12 to 17 year-olds who smoke pot are 85 times more likely to use cocaine than those who don't.

Secretary Califano understands that drug legalization would have one sure effect: Vulnerable inner city communities would become even more enslaved to drug pushers.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. AND MRS. KIRYLO ON THEIR 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

HON. MICHAEL P. FORBES

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 13, 1995

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Walter and Maria Kirylo on 50 glorious years of marriage. This fine couple is certainly a testament to the "American Dream." They have shown us all that dedication and love can be a great blessing and bring great blessings, leading to a happy and successful life and family.

Walter John Kirylo was born on April 14, 1918 in Cambridge, MA. As a member of the U.S. Infantry, Walter served honorably in World War II, securing the blessings of liberty and the fruits of freedom for generations to come. Shortly after the liberation of Holland in 1944, he met Maria Christina Callemeyn. One year later, they were married in Maastricht.

Walter and Maria now live in Ogden, UT, where they enjoy gardening and traveling. The pride of their lives are their 8 children and 10 grandchildren whom they love dearly.

Like so many others, the life that Walter and Maria have shared has been marked by moments of great happiness and great struggle. Ultimately, however, their love story has been a beacon of joy and love in a world sometimes darkened by loneliness and isolation. I'm sure that the entire House of Representatives joins me in expressing our gratitude and congratulations to Walter and Maria Kirylo.

TRIBUTE TO HARRY O'NEIL

HON. CURT WELDON

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 13, 1995

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a brief moment to recognize Mr. Harry O'Neil, a constituent from my district who is this year's recipient of the Sourin Memorial Award. This great honor was bestowed upon him by the Catholic Philopatric Literary Institute, and it represents society's appreciation for an individual who has made noteworthy contributions and achievements in a lifetime of adopting Catholic ideals, morality, and good citizenship.

Mr. O'Neil is currently a partner in the Philadelphia law firm of Stradely, Ronan, Stevens, and Young and practices banking and real estate law. As an employer in his banking practice he is well respected and liked by all, and is affectionately seen by his employees and colleagues as a tough but fair boss. In addition to his achievements here, he has served as counsel for the Dioceses of Philadelphia's Cemetery Division. He attended undergraduate and law school at Villanova University and received his B.S. in 1957 and his J.D. in 1977. Remarkably, he did not attend law school until he was 38, after having four children, and he graduated in the top 5 percent of his class. Most importantly, he is, I am advised by one of his children, an understanding father who has raised his children to respect and love the Lord, but who has never forced religion upon them.

Mr. O'Neil is the kind of citizen who both practices and teaches values that make our society a hard working and ethical one. As an employer, as an active member of his community, and as a loving father, he has achieved much in his lifetime. I would like to add that this is one of the first years that the Sourin Award has been given to a member of the laity rather than to a member of the clergy, and he clearly deserves it.

TRIBUTE TO JERROD E. HAWK

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 13, 1995

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize an exceptional young man from my district who has recently accepted his appointment as a member of the Class of 1999 at the U.S. Military Academy.

Jerrod E. Hawk graduated Paulding High School in 1994 and enrolled in Marion Military Institute. At the institute he has worked hard to prepare himself for a career in the military. While in high school, Jerrod distinguished himself as a leader among his peers. He is an outstanding citizen and patriot.

Mr. Speaker, one of the most important responsibilities of Members of Congress is to identify outstanding young men and women and to nominate them for admission to the United States service academies. While at the academy, they will be the beneficiaries of one of the finest educations available, so that in the future, they might be entrusted with the very security of our Nation.

I am confident that Jerrod Hawk has both the ability and the desire to meet this challenge. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating him for his accomplishments to date and to wish him the best of luck as he begins his career in service to our country.

MR. HUU DINH NGUYEN RECOGNIZED ON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT

HON. ZOE LOFGREN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 13, 1995

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge and extend my heartfelt congratulations to Huu Dinh Nguyen, on the occasion of his retirement from the Santa Clara County Social Services Agency. Mr. Nguyen's commitment to social work has improved the quality of life of many people. I commend his tireless dedication and relentless self-sacrifice in the name of public service.

Mr. Nguyen was born in Vietnam and earned a master's degree in literature from the University of Saigon. He later went to U.S. Army military schools in Georgia and Okinawa. A colonel in the South Vietnam Army, Mr. Nguyen came to the United States when North Vietnam overtook South Vietnam in 1975.

Following a brief stay in Alabama, Mr. Nguyen moved to California and began working for the Santa Clara County Social Services Agency. He was assigned to the Child Welfare Service Unit where he managed children in foster and adoptive programs. He has recently been recognized with the Daniel E. Koshland Award for outstanding social worker of the year for the State of California. Mr. Nguyen's 15 years of service is commendable.

Further, in his spare time, Huu Dinh Nguyen established Aid to Refugee Children Without Parents [ARCWP]. ARCWP is a nonprofit, volunteer organization which helps children in Southeast Asian refugee camps. Mr. Nguyen
