OHIO RIVER CORRIDOR STUDY COMMISSION ESTABLISHMENT ACT

Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, today I am introducing a bill to provide for the establishment of the Ohio River Corridor Study Commission. The purpose of this legislation is to focus attention on the distinctive and nationally important resources of the Ohio River corridor. My intention is to provide for long-term preservation, betterment, enjoyment, and utilization of the opportunities in the Ohio River corridor.

The Ohio River is a unique riverine system and is recognized as one of the great rivers of the world. In our Nation's early years, the Ohio was the way west; later the transportation opportunities provided by the river brought resources and people together to help build our country into a great industrial power.

The Ohio River starts in Pittsburgh, PA, and flows to the west and to the south toward its confluence in my home State of Illinois at the Mississippi River at Cairo, IL. The Ohio River covers 981 miles and flows through or borders on the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, and Illinois.

Our great American rivers even after years of neglect and abuse, remain
