

not put any limitations on funds of any other country because of the elections.

Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. VOLKMER] yield to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. HASTINGS]?

Mr. VOLKMER. If I have any time remaining.

Mr. Chairman, how much time do I have remaining?

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from Missouri has 1 minute remaining.

Mr. VOLKMER. Mr. Chairman, I yield the 1 minute to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. HASTINGS].

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman from Missouri for yielding this time to me.

We have a notorious tendency of not wanting to listen to certain people. I demand that the House be made in order, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, 9 years ago outside Lake Worth, FL, I walked over the bodies of Haitians who had washed up on the shore. One of them was a pregnant, nude woman, and that has stayed with me all of my life.

All this little nation is asking of us is a little opportunity to restore democracy. That is all they are asking, and here we come with a superimposed notion, dictating our form of democracy within the framework of a year. It is absurd that we find ourselves in this position where democracy has to be according to our dictates in order for us to do business with even the most feeble of us.

Mr. Chairman, we have had a habit in this body of addressing on the domestic front the most vulnerable among us, and now we move to the international front and continue that pattern. I say to my colleagues, "Shame on you."

Mr. GEJDENSON. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, as my colleagues know, it is astounding to watch us trying to micromanage, a word I heard from my Republican colleagues for years, a policy that has been successful beyond anybody's imagination. When the President of the United States singlehandedly decided to bring down the generals because there was not a lot of support on our side of the aisle or the Republican side of the aisle, Democrats and Republicans were fearful of American casualties, as rightly we were.

I think the President understood with his national responsibility that both for the United States, and particularly the State of Florida—that was dealing with refugees and crises on a regular basis on their social service network, the kind of scenes that my colleague from Florida just referenced in watching what had happened on that small island time and time again where the hope of the people of Haiti was dashed—that he understood how important it was for our hemisphere, for the United States, and for Haiti.

The President's policy not only succeeded; it succeeded more than any of us dared dream. As that policy succeeded to remove the generals, to restore the rightfully elected president, the naysayers immediately began that there would be no election in Haiti. The president, freely elected, did not believe in democratic institutions.
