

and that much more needs to be done to stop them.

I urge my colleagues to support this critical legislation. Make our Pell Grant money go farther. Throw the scam schools out of the Pell program. Protect the taxpayer. Cosponsor the Pell Grant Student/Taxpayer Protection Act of 1995.

CLINTON'S POLICY ON VIETNAM IS CONTEMPTIBLE

HON. DAVID FUNDERBURK

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 13, 1995

Mr. FUNDERBURK. Mr. Speaker, I am the only Member of the House to have served as an ambassador to a Communist country. I have seen first hand the barbarity and duplicity of Communists. In what Winston Churchill called "the dark and lamentable catalog of human crime," there is nothing on record to compare to the 30 years of destruction and human misery, communism brought to Europe, Latin America, Africa, and Asia. Hundreds of millions died. Religious and political freedom was obliterated. To fight communism America spent thousands of lives and trillions of dollars. In light of that bloody history it is all the more tragic that the Clinton administration has decided to ignore a clear campaign promise and recognize and assist one of the last but most brutal Communist dictatorships left—Vietnam.

The Vietnamese Communists deserve only our contempt. They crushed our allies in South Vietnam, killing millions. They overthrew the Government of Cambodia and Laos. They forced the entire ethnic Chinese population of their own country into the sea, prompting Beijing to invade. They opened up reeducation camps and suppressed all dissent and religious expression. As we speak, Buddhist monks are threatening to take to the streets to immolate themselves. Vietnam has entered into formal defense arrangements with Cuba and Iraq and has recently invited Saddam Hussein for a state visit thereby thumbing its nose at the world community.

Hanoi brutally murdered hundreds of American POW's before the Paris peace accords were signed and they have lied about it ever since. Yet, the Clinton administration claims that we must rethink our relationship with Vietnam and reward it with the benefits of American recognition and aid because progress has been made on the POW/MIA issue. That progress is so illusory it is scarcely worth the mention.

There has been no progress in accounting for over 300 Americans last known to be alive in the hands of their Communist captors. According to information produced by Congressman DORNAN'S National Security Subcommittee on Personnel, Hanoi still refuses to hand over the remains of almost 100 Americans we know died in captivity. Recently, the Communists have resorted to releasing scores of records and boxes of remains which when examined prove to be the bones of animals and ethnic Asians. In fact over 150 boxes of remains handed over to American authorities in recent years show signs of chemical processing and prolonged cold storage. Mr. DORNAN'S subcommittee disclosed that Hanoi stored over 400 boxes of preserved remains to use as leverage over American leaders. Vietnam has cynically and criminally played upon the emotions of POW/MIA families to extract financial and diplomatic concessions from this administration.

In testimony last month, retired military POW/MIA investigators told the House that Hanoi still holds back remains, still holds back documentary evidence, and deliberately manufactures and manipulates crash site evidence. The administration was forced to admit that none of the hundreds of documents and remains handed over to a blue ribbon Presidential delegation in May will lead to the closing of one POW/MIA case. In fact, leaders of the most prominent POW/MIA family and veterans' groups were asked to participate in the administration's trip to Hanoi. They refused, feeling that the entire process was arranged to conclude that the Vietnamese were working hard to full account for missing Americans.

The Pentagon's own joint task force full accounting [JTFFA] has repeatedly been denied access to areas where live sightings have been alleged. In addition, the JTFFA has never been allowed to interview one witness without the presence of a Vietnamese military or political officer. Despite administration claims that better relations with Hanoi have led to more MIA case closings the opposite is in fact true. During the Reagan administration an average of 21 MIA cases were closed per year. Under Bush the average was 24. But, under the Clinton administration case closings have fallen off to 12 per year. Since the open door on trade was granted to Hanoi 5 months ago, only five cases have been closed.

For those who argue that opening up Vietnam to our largest companies will pave the way for reform, one need only look to China for refutation. We have been engaged in China for 25 years and all we have to show for it is an entrenched dictatorship and multinationals which are all too willing to bank in the slave-like working conditions which exist in that country. The same scenario will play out in Vietnam. But it won't stop there. The administration will request and the Vietnamese will demand—in exchange for more cooperation on POW/MIA's—access to the Overseas Private Investment and the Export-Import Bank. Once again the American taxpayer will be stuck floating a brutal dictatorship which will never have the means to repay us.

Some in the administration and Congress are now advocating that we open up relations with Vietnam and open up security ties with her in order to counter balance resurgent Chinese militarism. That is also a prescription for disaster. I have seen what happened when we toyed with a Communist dictator who promised us that he would side with us against a more powerful adversary. We placated Romania's Ceausescu and turned a blind eye to one of the most savage regimes in the history of eastern Europe. Kowtowing to Romania was shameful then, but it pales in comparison to the policy we are about to set for Vietnam.

Mr. Speaker, the only way for reform, the only way to stand up for our ideals is to say that respect for human rights and progress toward democracy is the precondition for American recognition. Vietnam fails our ideals on all accounts not the least of which is the contempt it has shown for the emotions and sensibilities of our POW/MIA families. In that light, the Clinton policy on Vietnam is contemptible.

BLM LANDS TRANSFER

HON. BARBARA CUBIN

OF WYOMING

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 13, 1995

Mrs. CUBIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the legislation being introduced today by Mr. HANSEN of Utah to transfer lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management to the States. I appreciate the efforts that Mr. HANSEN and Senator THOMAS of Wyoming have put into this legislation and as an original cosponsor of the bill, I will do what I can to help move it quickly through the legislative channels.

In my opinion, this legislation is long overdue. Not since the Sagebrush Rebellion has there been such a groundswell of support for returning the lands to the States. As the 1994 election results have shown, the majority of Americans want to reduce the role of the Federal Government and grant the States more flexibility to arrive at localized solutions to a host of problems. The better the local understanding, the better the decision made by those most affected by a local problem.

With this legislation, the Western States are asking nothing more than to be put on an equal footing with the Eastern States. We want a stable tax base and we can and will see to it that our lands are more efficiently managed and more beneficially used. That includes protecting the scenic beauty of our States while promoting the wise use of our natural resources.

For too long, the Federal Government has forgotten that the Western States are its partners. It is time for us to send a clear signal that we are tired of the historical Federal dominance that has left the West in a state of political and economic decline. This legislation is the proper vehicle for examining how to best end Federal ownership of the vast areas of the West and return stability to that region of our country.

SALUTE TO HARRY WU

HON. SAM GEJDENSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 13, 1995

Mr. GEJDENSON. Mr. Speaker, today is the 25th day of the arrest of American citizen Harry Wu, the tenacious human rights investigator, by the Chinese authorities at the Kazakhstan border.

These are the crimes for which Harry Wu is imprisoned, and facing a possible death sentence: Harry testified before the U.S. Congress many times in the past 5 years, including the subcommittee overseeing international trade which I chaired—that was a crime. Harry recorded and filmed forced hard labor prisons in China, where he himself was a prisoner for 19 years—that was a crime. Harry told the world China was exporting prisoner-produced goods to the United States, among other countries—once again that was a crime. Harry revealed the horrific evidence of forcible removal of prisoner organs; these donations occurred without the donors consent, and at times there were planned executions so that high society Chinese officials could get the organs at the right time—that too was a crime.
