COL. JOHN JOSEPH McNULTY III

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 18, 1995

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, today I wish to congratulate Col. John Joseph McNulty III who will retire from the U.S. Army in August. Colonel McNulty faithfully served his country with the Army over the last twenty 29 years, and, due to his outstanding effort and ability, deserves recognition at this time.

Colonel McNulty enlisted in the U.S. Army on March 9, 1966. After completing basic and advanced training at Fort Dix, NJ, he entered OCS at Fort Knox, KY. Commissioned in March, 1967 as a second lieutenant of armor, he was posted to Fort Hood, TX, and the 2d Battalion, 13th Armor, 2d Brigade, 1st Armored Division as the S-2. Three months later he was given command to Headquarters Company, 2d Battalion, 46th Infantry and remained in command until April, 1968. Lieutenant McNulty was then given a second command, the Headquarters Company of 2/13 Armor. In late summer of 1968 he was assigned as the S-2/Asst S-3 of the 2d Brigade and remained in that position until July, 1969.

In August, 1969, having been promoted in March, Captain McNulty reported to the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment (Black Horse) in Quan Loi, Vietnam, where he served as the commander of the Regimental Headquarters Troop until December. He returned to the United States and was released from active duty in order to return to college in Texas.

Captain McNulty returned to active duty in March, 1971, and in June returned to Vietnam and 1st Squadron, 1st Regiment of Dragoons (Blackhawk), 23rd Infantry Division (Americal). He served as the squadron motor officer until the squadron deactivated in April, 1972. He was selected to command the honor guard and escort the squadron's colors to Germany where the squadron was reactivated in May, 1972.

He returned to the United States, completed the armored officer advanced course in 1973, moved to Austin and graduated with honors from the University of Texas in 1975 under the Army's Degree Completion Program. Captain McNulty was subsequently assigned to Fort Bliss, TX, and the 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment (Brave Rifles). While there, he served as adjutant and commanded C Troop, First Squadron—his fourth troop/company command.

In 1978, Captain McNulty was assigned to the Seventh Army Training Command in Grafenwoehr, Germany. His task as chief of new equipment training was to design and prepare the training plan for the introduction of both the Abrams tank and the Bradley Fighting Vehicle to USAREUR units. Major McNulty, promoted in February, 1979, returned to the United States to attend the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, KS, in summer, 1980. He graduated as a member of the centennial class in June, 1981.

In June 1984, Lieutenant Colonel McNulty assumed command of First Squadron, 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment at Fort Bliss, TX. During the next 25 months, he led the unit successfully through numerous field and gunnery exercises. Relinquishing command in July, 1986, he served as the assistant commandant of the Sergeants Major Academy until June, 1987. In July, Lieutenant Colonel McNulty attended the U.S. Army War College at Carlisle, PA, graduating in June, 1988.

Since June, 1988, Jay McNulty has been a member of OCLL. Initially assigned as the Chief of Special Actions Branch in the Congressional Inquiry Division, June 1989 saw him appointed as chief of that division.

Col. Jay McNulty is culminating his service as Chief, House Liaison Division. He effectively used his vast knowledge of the Army, his personal communication skills, and his management abilities to tell the "Army Story." He represented the Army, continuing his role of resolving complex and sensitive issues with every professional committee, and all 435 personal offices, and leadership offices in the U.S. House of Representatives.

He is indeed the quintessential officer. His selfless service, commitment to excellence, and caring professionalism have continually provided inspiration to those with whom he has served. This exceptional officer truly personifies those traits of courage, competency, and integrity our Nation has come to expect from our Army officers. He has served our Nation well and our heartfelt appreciation and his best wishes for continued success go with him as he prepares for his next endeavor.
