

She was also concerned about the show routine because Juneau did not have props that the other teams from Japan had. Dahl said it was time to be daring.

"We decided to go for it in finals, show them what we really can do," she said. "We had nothing to lose."

There were about 7,000 people jam-packed in the huge arena in Nagoya, and they responded to the Juneau girls.

"It felt like we were in the Olympics, with the lighting turned down and spotlights flashing," Leslie Dahl said. "It was unbelievable, especially the way the people supported us."

The drill team will head back to Juneau on Monday. But they were off to a reception today, ready to exchange gifts and trade T-Shirts.

"A lot of Japanese students want to take pictures of the girls," she said. "They're not used to seeing girls so tall."

Craig Dahl said the sweep in the International competition was the drill team's way of thanking Juneau for its generosity.

"The whole community supported the girls and they repaid the town with three world titles," he said.

Leslie Dahl agreed. "The girls worked so hard, and so did the community," she said before rushing to a bus that would take the Juneau girls to the reception honoring them.

"Juneau should be proud!"

So should Alaska and the United States.

THE CHAMPS RETURN—ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD GREET'S DRILL TEAM AT AIRPORT

(By Mike Sica)

About 400 people celebrated the Juneau-Douglas High School Drill Team as most of its members returned home after winning three world championship trophies at an international competition in Japan.

The enthusiastic crowd at the Juneau Airport Tuesday carried balloons, flowers and placards. One sign said, "World's Greatest!" Another read, "JDHS Drill Team—The Pride of Alaska, The Pride of the USA."

And there was one that said, "The Best on the Planet," which has become the team's rallying cry.

Family, friends and fans waited anxiously for the team to arrive.

"I'm here to support my sister," 16-year-old James Roberts said of Jodi Timothy. "I want to congratulate her and give her a Coke."

Drill Team dad Jay Boone paced the floor, waiting to see his daughter Gretchen.

And Charlie and Barbara Mitchell joked about living with a world champion.

"We'll have to open our double doors wide enough to fit her head through," Barbara Mitchell said. "But really, we're just very proud of them all. They worked very hard and deserve this."

Linda Egan said she was excited for her daughter Leslie and the rest of the girls, "not just for winning but for the chance to meet people of different nationalities."

Charlotte Richards said her daughter Erin called about 4 a.m. Sunday (Alaska Standard Time), saying Saturday was the "the greatest day of her life."

"She wasn't talking about winning as much as meeting kids from other countries," the proud mother explained. "The amazing thing is that on the same day they won, Japan was observing the end of World War II. "It's neat that the grandchildren of former enemies can enjoy each other so much."

Bart Rozell made the trip to Japan with his two daughters, Mariah and Rebecca. He said the Japanese were wonderful hosts.

"The atmosphere was so friendly and receptive," he said. "They treated our kids like celebrities, asking for autographs and wanting to have pictures taken with them.

"The girls had to pinch themselves, making sure it wasn't a dream."

There were lots of hugs, kissing and tears as the girls entered the airport lounge. The crowd then moved to the Taku Room for brief presentations.

Mayor and drill team parent Dennis Egan told the girls the city, state and country are proud of them. He then told a story about a fax he sent to his daughter Leslie.

"I told her, You still had to clean up your room when you get back, it looks exactly like it did when you left," Egan said.

The Juneau mayor announced a special community reception for the drill team will be held next Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Centennial Hall

CAPTAIN'S COMEBACK HIGHLIGHTS RETURN—DRILL TEAM GETS WARM WELCOME IN RETURN HOME

(By Mike Sica)

Jennifer Frederick typifies the never-say-die attitude of the Juneau-Douglas High School Drill Team, going from wheelchair to world champ in less than a year and helping her teammates become "the best on the planet."

That phrase—which has become the team's slogan since it won world championships in the show, military and prop routines at the International Dance-Drill Competition in Nagoya, Japan last week—was repeated time and again Tuesday evening at the Juneau Airport as the Drill Team returned home to a hero's welcome.

A crowd of about 700 people made up of friends, family members and well-wishers packed the airport to congratulate the Drill Team.

Frederick, who almost died in a car wreck last September, was full of life as she addressed the huge crowd Tuesday night at the Juneau Airport.

"Thank you very much from our hearts for giving us this opportunity to go (to Japan)," said Frederick, who is the drill team captain. "It was amazing and wonderful, and we couldn't have done it without you."

The team raised about $60,000—mostly in Juneau—to pay for the trip.

Carrying three big trophies and a special award from Nagoya's mayor, they stepped into the departure lounge from the Alaska Airlines jet that brought them home.

The crowd cheered each team member individually, from coaches Leslie Dahl and Evonne Noonan to 16 of the 20 girls who competed in Japan. Four other drill team members stayed in the Lower 48 on family vacations.

Longtime high school basketball coach Jim Hamey was one of many people on the evening to remark in disbelief about the team's success.

"I've seen them quite a bit and they know I'm a big fan," he said. "They work so hard and are disciplined. The staff and students at the high school are very proud of them."

Hamey said whenever he's concerned about the work ethic of his basketball players, he tells them to go watch the drill team practice. He then joked about wishing he coached the drill team after seeing the huge crowd welcoming them home at the airport.

After being introduced as the coach of the "best drill team on the planet," Leslie Dahl praised the community for its generosity.

"The people in Japan asked us how many years it took to raise the money for our trip," she said.

It took less than two months to collect the $60,000.

Dahl said the Japanese treated the Juneau girls "like heroes."

Erin Richards said the Korean and Japanese kids followed the Drill Team everywhere.

"The asked me about my hobbies, kept touching my hair and wanted me to sing a song," she explained. I sang 'The Rose,' by Bette Midler. They said I had beautiful eyes and that I looked like a movie star.

"They were the sweetest people on earth * * * it's the nicest I've ever been treated by people who didn't know me."

For team captain Frederick, the Japan trip was the culmination of an incredible comeback.

She suffered 19 fractures and punctured a lung in a car crash on September 6. She took 18 units of blood and was put on a ventilator as she laid unconscious for several days at Seattle's Harborview Medical Center.

Her mother Susan said the first thing her daughter talked about when she came out of her coma was the drill team.

"She woke up in intensive care asking if Leslie and her teammates knew about the accident," said her mother Susan.

Her father David said the coaches and girls were responsible for his daughter's amazing recovery.

"I can't say enough things about Leslie. Evonne and the girls," David Frederick said. They really pulled her through, making her feel like she belonged to the team and was needed.

"There's no doubt in my mind that they made her more determined to recover."

"I knew I'd be back on the drill team again," Jennifer Frederick said Monday night. "My coaches, my teammates, my family and the community helped me get better faster."

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.
