

Pete served with the U.S. Army and was honorably discharged.

I share with my friends of the Cocopah Nation a deep personal loss. The Cocopah Tribe has not only lost a great leader, but I have lost a dear friend. I request that my fellow colleagues join me in honoring and remembering this great man: Chairman Peter Soto of the Cocopah Nation.

STATEMENT REGARDING THE JOB CORPS

HON. PAT WILLIAMS

OF MONTANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 21, 1995

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to take this opportunity to clarify the legislative intent of H.R. 1617 regarding the Job Corps Program.

The committee did not include Job Corps as part of the block grant consolidation proposed in H.R. 1617. After numerous hearings, site visits, and debate, the committee determined that Job Corps is one of the few Federal programs that is most cost-effectively administered at the national level. The committee strongly believes that Job Corps should remain a distinct, national program for the following reasons:

Job Corps is effective. Historically, the young people served by Job Corps are America's poorest and most at-risk. Their needs have not been met by their schools, families, communities, or State governments. Job Corps, through its comprehensive residential education and training components, is extremely effective in dealing with this difficult population. In fact, in program year 1994—July 1994—June 1995—73 percent of all participants were placed into jobs or advanced to higher education.

Job Corps provides universal access. By virtue of being a national program, Job Corps allows equal, universal access to all young people eligible for the program, regardless of their residence. There are no constraints of State boundaries. In fact, a substantial amount—roughly 35 percent of all Job Corps students attend centers not located in their State.

Low administrative costs. As currently operated, Job Corps has minimal bureaucratic overhead. There are 179 Federal staffs that oversee services to almost 65,000 youth annually at 110 centers nationwide. It would make no sense to create 50 separate State bureaucracies to administer approximately 2 Job Corps centers per State.

Job Corps is accountable. Given its size and cost, Job Corps must be accountable to Congress. Today, Job Corps has the most extensive performance standards of any job training program. Job Corps measures student advancement in academics, vocational completion, and job placement rate as well as the starting salary once they leave the Job Corps. This is done for every one of Job Corps' 65,000 students each year. In addition, Job Corps has now instituted student surveys to assess student perceptions of the program and campus safety.

Local input with a national focus. Job Corps is unique from other Federal training programs in its uniformity across the Nation. This has allowed the program to develop a cost-effective and efficient system to serve both the local and national needs of Job Corps students. Each Job Corps campus is required by law and regulation to develop community linkages, local support groups, and participation. Students are referred to and from other State programs and services. The national network of placement services offered through the international labor unions and the National Association of Home Builders allow Job Corps graduates access to job markets across the Nation.

Mr. Speaker, while the goal of H.R. 1617 is to consolidate the vast array of job training and education programs into a more cohesive structure that makes sense to participants, to service providers, to the Congress, and most importantly to the American taxpayer, we did not want to eliminate programs that operate effectively. Job Corps is one program the committee felt was best kept at the national level. As the old adage goes "if it ain't broke, don't fix it."

HONORING THE EPIPHANY
BYZANTINE CATHOLIC CHURCH

HON. THOMAS M. DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 21, 1995

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Epiphany Byzantine Catholic Church of Annandale, VA, which is celebrating its 25th anniversary on Sunday, September 24, 1995.

The parish was founded in 1970 by a few Slavic people with a vision and love for their Byzantine Rite. Many of the founders were first generation Americans who wanted a place to worship in the traditions of their Slavic ancestors. Since that time the parish has grown and become an integral part of the community and serves over 300 families of diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds who live in the Washington metropolitan area.

In 1973, the construction of Epiphany Byzantine Catholic Church was completed and on April 29 was dedicated. Father John Danilak who served as pastor at that time wrote the following to parishioners: "The erection of this beautiful edifice shall ever be a living testimonial of the generations of the unborn, and it will be a memorial to of your ardent faith and an inspiration for your children to manifest the God-given faith and the glorious heritage that you will entrust to them. May the doors of the Epiphany Church be always open to all who seek the soothing balm of Christ's healing graces and that there be charity and love for the helpless, and that Epiphany serve as a reservoir of moral strength for the weak, a sanctuary for the oppressed and comfort and consolation for the aged and forgotten."

Since those words were written in 1973, Epiphany Byzantine Catholic Church has strived to fulfill this commitment. The parish has grown and people of different cultures and backgrounds attend and participate in the religious services. Yet, the goals set in 1973 remain unchanged. Epiphany Byzantine Catholic Church continues to nurture its family in the gospel of Jesus Christ, through the unique genius of the Byzantine Rite.

In 1987, the multipurpose parish center was dedicated and serves as a place for parishioners and the community to meet for educational and social events. The parish not only continues traditions of the Slavic people but also the ethnic and cultural traditions of their parents and grandparents. Epiphany Parish is truly committed to the Byzantine Catholic Rite and welcomes all who desire to worship with them.

Mr. Speaker, I know my colleagues join me in honoring the Epiphany Byzantine Catholic Church on the occasion of its 25th anniversary.

TRIBUTE TO DR. ABRAHAM M.
PHILLIPS

HON. RICHARD A. GEPHARDT

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 21, 1995

Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise before my colleagues today to pay tribute to Dr. Abraham M. Phillips, a pediatric specialist in juvenile diabetes in the St. Louis community. Dr. Phillips is a colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve and a commander of the 21st General Hospital in St. Louis.

Dr. Phillips' career is a remarkable story of dedication and service to his community and his country. After being commissioned to service in 1971, he moved quickly through military ranks and was appointed colonel in 1987. He has held various non-active duty hospital assignments in the St. Louis area and was assigned to active duty in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia during the Persian Gulf war. After more than 24 years of service in the military, Dr. Phillips has been decorated with more than 18 medals and awards in recognition of his outstanding military service.

In his role as a civilian physician, Dr. Phillips' service and scope of work to the medical community are equally impressive. He serves as the medical advisor to a local high school football team, is the consulting physician to a diabetic camp for children in Missouri, and recently concluded work for the Nursery and Newborn Clinic Service at Deaconess Hospital in St. Louis. In addition, Dr. Phillips serves on the Pediatric Quality Assurance Committee at John's Mercy Hospital and on the Pre-Natal and Pediatric Care Committee at Deaconess Hospital, both of which are located in St. Louis.

Dr. Phillips' work illustrates the importance of military reservists in our country, and their invaluable contributions to our society. He has unselfishly given his time and talents to our community. His devotion to our community and to our country should be an inspiration to us all.
