PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1995

No. 155

Senate

The Senate was not in session today. Its next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 10, 1995, at 9:15 a.m.

House of Representatives

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1995

The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore [Mrs. MORELLA].

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
October 6, 1995.

I hereby designate the Honorable CONSTANCE A. MORELLA to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NEWT GINGRICH,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Let us pray using the words of Isaac Watts:

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. DAVIS] come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. DAVIS led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
Washington, DC, October 6, 1995.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
The Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 5 of Rule III of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, I have the honor to transmit a sealed envelope received from the White House on Tuesday, October 3, 1995 at 3:55 p.m. and said to contain a message from the President whereby he returns without his approval H.R. 1854 the “Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1996.”

With warm regards,
ROBIN H. CARLE, Clerk.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1996—VETO MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 104-122)

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following veto message from the President of the United States:

To the House of Representatives:

I am returning today without my approval H.R. 1854, the “Legislative Branch Appropriations Bill, FY 1996.”

H.R. 1854 is, in fact, a disciplined bill, one that I would sign under different circumstances. But, at this point, Congress has completed action on only 2 of the 13 FY 1996 appropriations bills: this one and H.R. 1817, the Military Construction appropriations bill. Thus, the vast majority of Federal activities lack final FY 1996 funding and are operating under a short-term continuing resolution.

I appreciate the willingness of Congress to work with my administration to produce an acceptable short-term continuing resolution before completing action on the regular, full-year appropriations bills for FY 1996. I believe, however, that it would be inappropriate to provide full-year regular funding for Congress and its offices while funding for most other activities of Government remains incomplete, unresolved, and uncertain.

H9741

As I said 2 months ago, I don't think Congress should take care of its own business before it takes care of the people's business. I stated that if the congressional leadership were to follow through on its plan to send me its own funding bill before finishing work on the rest of the budget, I would veto it. I am now following through on that commitment.

I urge the Congress to move forward promptly on completing the FY 1996 appropriations bills in a form that I can accept.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 3, 1995.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The objections of the President will be spread at large upon the Journal, and the veto message and bill will be printed as a House document.

Mr. DAVIS. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to postpone consideration of the President's veto message on the bill H.R. 1854 until Thursday, October 12, 1995.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. DAVIS. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on the veto message of the President to the bill, H.R. 1854, and that I may include tabular and extraneous material.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE HONORABLE MARGE ROUKEMA, MEMBER OF CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Honorable MARGE ROUKEMA, Member of Congress:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, July 27, 1995.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
The Speaker, Office of The Speaker, H-232, The Capitol, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Due to the increasing demands placed on me as Chairwoman of the Subcommittee on Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit and other legislative duties, I hereby resign as a Member of the Glass Ceiling Commission, established pursuant to P.L. 102-166.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

MARGE ROUKEMA.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF GLASS CEILING COMMISSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Honorable RICHARD ARMEY, majority leader, and the Honorable RICHARD GEPHARDT, minority leader:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, October 3, 1995.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
The Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(G) of Public Law 102-166, we hereby appoint the following Member of the House of Representatives to serve as a member of the Glass Ceiling Commission: The Honorable Sue Kelly of New York.

Sincerely,

RICHARD ARMEY,
Majority Leader.

RICHARD GEPHARDT,
Minority Leader.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
Washington, DC, October 6, 1995.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
The Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in clause 5 of rule III of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Clerk received the following messages from the Secretary of the Senate on Monday, October 2, 1995 at 2:25 p.m.:

That the Senate passed without amendment H.R. 2288;

That the Senate passed S. 1254; and

That the Senate passed S. Con. Res. 29.

With warm regards,

ROBIN H. CARLE, Clerk.

H. Con. Res. 26: Mr. ZIMMER.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN HONOR OF JOHN HENRY WALBRIDGE UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

HON. LARRY COMBEST

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 6, 1995

Mr. COMBEST. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to John Henry Walbridge. After a distinguished career with the U.S. Government he is retiring from the Central Intelligence Agency's Clandestine Services.

Mr. Walbridge is an exceptional American who has dedicated his life to service to his country. Mr. Walbridge began his career in Government service as a cadet at the Citadel, graduating in 1969. Thereafter, he entered service in the United States Army as a commissioned officer serving in Vietnam with distinction with the Green Berets. Following Vietnam, Mr. Walbridge joined the Foreign Service working there for 5 years when he concluded that he wanted to seek higher education and spend several years in Africa working on an advanced degree.

His broad experience in the military, independence, and tenaciousness came to the attention of the Central Intelligence Agency as they were looking for bright young officers who could accept the challenging task of recruiting and handling human intelligence sources around the world. In 1982, Mr. Walbridge began a successful career at the Central Intelligence Agency serving in Africa, Europe, and Latin America.

I wish to highlight that Mr. Walbridge served with great distinction in Central America making an important and lasting contribution to the establishment of democratic governments in the region. This contribution directly reflected his many talents, his steadfast loyalty, and his willingness to go to extra measures to ensure that this Nation's interests were well served. His performance was of such high caliber that he has been strongly recommended for the CIA's Career Intelligence Medal in recognition for a lifetime of achievement.

As chairman of the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, I am proud to know that Americans like Mr. Walbridge are serving in our intelligence community. They are our first line of defense in a world that continues to be fraught with dangers. Please join me in wishing John Walbridge a happy and prosperous retirement.

TRIBUTE TO DON HOLLIFIELD

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 6, 1995

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Don Hollifield who was honored this past Wednesday by the Clinton Township

Democratic Club. Don was recognized at the group's biannual awards dinner at Paradiso Elegant Banquets in Clinton Township.

After 2 years in the U.S. Navy and nearly 3 years with the Detroit Police Department as a uniformed patrolman, Don Hollifield began his present career with the State of Michigan as an investigator. For 10 years he served as a drug investigator where he received several citations from the Michigan State Police. In 1983, Don's expertise as an investigator became an asset to the charitable gaming division. His experience has helped ensure that numerous charitable organizations operate successfully and in compliance with the law.

In his various professional positions, Don Hollifield has been a servant of the people of Michigan, Detroit, and the United States. The people of the State of Michigan have been especially fortunate because they have been able to depend on Don Hollifield for 22 years. During these years he has devoted much of his spare time to many other organizations, including the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 154, the American Legion Post 225, and the Chippewa Valley High School Band. I commend him for his years of dedicated involvement.

I also commend the Clinton Township Democratic Club for recognizing Don. He is committed to making the world a better place and his recognition at tonight's dinner is well deserved. His time, talents, and energy are appreciated by all of us and we are grateful for his efforts.

On behalf of the Clinton Township Democratic Club I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting Don Hollifield. He has provided outstanding leadership in our community and I know he is proud to be honored by the club.

HONORING SHADOWFAX CORPORATION

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 6, 1995

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to honor the immense achievements of the Shadowfax Corp. on their 10th anniversary. Shadowfax is a nonprofit organization that provides residential and vocational services to hundreds of people with disabilities in York County.

Founded by David B. Bryant in 1985, Shadowfax provides services based upon a personalized program emphasizing self reliance, living skills, community, and self confidence. Shadowfax operates under the philosophy that every individual deserves a quality life.

The accomplishments of the Shadowfax are best illustrated by the individual success stories of their clients. Shadowfax has seen a young woman move from their vocational program to a job in a York company and a man who could not feed himself care for his own personal hygiene. These successes and the multitude of other successes are a true testimony to the dedicated professionals at Shadowfax.

As chairman of the House Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities, I am proud that this high quality program exists in my congressional district. On behalf of the residents of Pennsylvania's 19th District, thank you for 10 years of service to our community and congratulations on a job well done.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE NORMAN Y. MINETA

SPEECH OF

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 27, 1995

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor my colleague, my neighbor Congressman, and my friend, NORMAN MINETA.

His departure from Congress is not only a tremendous loss to his district and the great State of California, but also to this Nation. Many people have served in the U.S. Congress. NORM's election was history. He was the first and only native-born Japanese-American forced into an internment camp to be elected to the United States Congress.

During his youth in the Santa Clara Valley, he was surrounded by orchards and vineyards. San Jose has since grown to be the third largest city in California. His lifetime experienced the switch from an agricultural center to a center of Silicon Valley; from his Boy Scout troop days to the days of a major league hockey team, the San Jose Sharks.

Perhaps history will show that no other Member of Congress did more to help those who were wronged by our Government. From being interned to authoring the 1988 Japanese-American redress bill, which officially apologized for the internment and provided a $20,000 payment to each surviving member of the camps, NORM always tried to help those less fortunate than him.

NORM's love for aviation not only found him in the jump seat of most flights to the west coast, but also led him to marrying a flight attendant, his lovely wife, Danealia. He became chair of the House Committee on Public Works and Transportation and was able to achieve major policy changes in transportation planning and policy, including the historical passage of the Surface Transportation Act of 1991 which for the first time shifted the decisionmaking power for proposed projects to local governments.

I will miss NORM not only for the leadership he has provided in the House and for the role model he is to Asian-Americans but most of all for his passion for justice and compassion for people. NORM brings every young child he meets to the floor; instills them with a sense of belonging to the House of the people, and tells them that they, too, may someday serve here.

• This "bullet" symbol identifies statements or insertions which are not spoken by a Member of the Senate on the floor.

Matter set in this typeface indicates words inserted or appended, rather than spoken, by a Member of the House on the floor.

NORM has wit and humor. Our staffs have been playing softball in a joint team for the past 2 years. Our team is called, Farr from the Norm. My predecessor, Leon Panetta and NORM had a softball team called, The Sign of the Rising Pizza.

NORM has never forgotten how to give back to his community from being mayor of San Jose, serving on the board of regents at Santa Clara University, and being a member of the board of directors of Smart Valley, Inc. In Washington, he has been chair of the visitors committee for the Freer Gallery, an active member of the board of regents of the Smithsonian Institution and a member of the board of directors of the Kennedy Center.

NORM's energy, enthusiasm, wit, and compassion will be missed. His ability to explain every detail about cross country jet travel, his knowledge of the transportation industry, and his ability to know the name of everyone and introduce them is remarkable. The northern California teammates GEORGE MILLER, ANNA ESHOO, PETER STARK, TOM LANTOS, NANCY PELOSI, ZOE LOFGREN, and me will carry on in your tradition, but Congress will never be the same without you.

Good luck and goodnight but never goodbye. You have left your mark. God bless you. Thank you, NORM, for making this country a better place in which to raise our children.

TRIBUTE TO JOE SLABBINCK

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 6, 1995

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to my good friend Joe Slabbinck who was honored this past Wednesday by the Clinton Township Democratic Club. Joe was recognized at the club's biannual awards dinner at Paradiso Elegant Banquets in Clinton Township.

Joe and his wife, Brenda, have dedicated much of their lives to improving our community. After 30 years of work at Chrysler Corp., his success at helping build world class quality cars is only surpassed by his success in building organizations dedicated to meeting people's needs.

Joe is currently a board member of the Clinton Township Goodfellows. In the past he has served as president, vice president, and secretary of the group. The Interfaith Center for Racial Justice and the Volunteer Services Committee of the United Community Service have also benefited from Joe's commitment to civic involvement.

I have known Joe for many years and have had the fortunate opportunity to work with him on numerous occasions. Joe always makes sure that projects stay on track. He is the first to take responsibility and the last to take credit. His strong work ethic and sense of humility mean that everyone enjoys working with him.

I commend the Clinton Township Democratic Club for recognizing Joe. He is committed to making the world a better place and his recognition at tonight's dinner is well-deserved. His time, talents, and energy are appreciated by all of us and we are grateful for his efforts.

On behalf of the Clinton Township Democratic Club I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting Joe Slabbinck. He has provided outstanding leadership in our community and I know he is proud to be honored by the club.

Congressional Record

The public proceedings of each House of Congress, as reported by the Official Reporters thereof, are printed pursuant to directions of the Joint Committee on Printing as authorized by appropriate provisions of Title 44, United States Code, and published for each day that one or both Houses are in session, excepting very infrequent instances when two or more unusually small consecutive issues are printed at one time. ¶The Congressional Record is available as an online database through GPO Access, a service of the U.S. Government Printing Office. The online database is updated each day the Congressional Record is published. The database includes both text and graphics from the beginning of the 103d Congress, 2d Session (January 1994) forward. It is available on a Wide Area Information Server (WAIS) through the Internet and via asynchronous dial-in. The annual subscription fee for a single workstation is $375. Six month subscriptions are available for $200 and one month of access can be purchased for $35. Discounts are available for multiple-workstation subscriptions. To subscribe, Internet users should telnet swais.access.gpo.gov and login as newuser (all lower case); no password is required. Dial in users should use communications software and modem to call (202) 512-1661 and login as swais (all lower case); no password is required; at the second login prompt, login as newuser (all lower case); no password is required. Follow the instructions on the screen to register for a subscription for the Congressional Record Online via GPO Access. For assistance, contact the GPO Access User Support Team by sending Internet e-mail to help@eids05.eids.gpo.gov, or a fax to (202) 512-1262, or by calling (202) 512-1530 between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Eastern time, Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. ¶The Congressional Record paper and 24x microfiche will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, at the following prices: paper edition, $112.50 for six months, $225 per year, or purchased for $1.50 per issue, payable in advance; microfiche edition, $118 per year, or purchased for $1.50 per issue payable in advance. The semimonthly Congressional Record Index may be purchased for the same per issue prices. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, directly to the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. ¶Following each session of Congress, the daily Congressional Record is revised, printed, permanently bound and sold by the Superintendent of Documents in individual parts or by sets. ¶With the exception of copyrighted articles, there are no restrictions on the republication of material from the Congressional Record.
