

relief from the floor and perhaps getting more of the amendments prepared so we can know what we are doing.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That will be the order.

Mr. DOMENICI. I thank the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the motion to lay on the table the amendment of the Senator from Massachusetts, amendment No. 2996.

The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber who desire to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 52, nays 47, as follows:

So the motion to lay on the table the amendment (No. 2996) was agreed to.

Mr. DOLE addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

RECESS

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, so that we can give staff on each side time to sort of bring the amendments together in some order on each side so we will know precisely where we are—it makes it very difficult if we are not quite certain, and if we have not seen the amendment—I think we can save time by taking a brief recess now to give them that opportunity.

So I ask unanimous consent that we stand in recess until the hour of 1:20 p.m. and that when we come back we resume voting immediately after reconvening with 7½-minute votes, the same as we have now.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Thereupon, the Senate, at 12:33 p.m., recessed until the hour of 1:20 p.m.; whereupon, the Senate reassembled when called to order by the Presiding Officer [Mr. GRAMS].

BALANCED BUDGET RECONCILIATION ACT OF 1995

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I will just use a minute of my leader's time.

I am now advised that there are at least 40 amendments on the other side that will be offered, after we were at least hopeful yesterday and we agreed to have up-and-down amendments on tier 1. We will probably end up with maybe 25 tier 3 amendments. We have already disposed of a number. So it seems we are going to exceed almost up to 50 amendments in that category.

If you just took the votes themselves, you allowed 10 minutes, that is 400 minutes. That is 7 hours. I am not going to stick around here very long tonight, but I am very happy to come back early tomorrow morning. We will go along and see how many of these—we have 13 over here, so that is another couple hours. So if that is what we want to do, we will have plenty of time this weekend to do it. We are going to do it this weekend, but we are not going to stay up half the night to accommodate somebody who has to be somewhere tomorrow.

Mr. EXON addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nebraska.

Mr. EXON. Senator KENNEDY has an amendment that we would like to bring up at this time, so I yield him the 30 seconds to explain his amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, the reconciliation bill raises the Medicare age of eligibility to 67.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the Senator please send the amendment to the desk.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. KENNEDY. I raise a point of order that section 7171, raising the age of Medicare eligibility, violates section 313(b)(1)(a) of the Congressional Budget Act.

It has been submitted to the Budget Committee, so I make that point of order at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The point of order is sustained.

The Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. KENNEDY. If I could have order, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the Senate please come to order so we can hear the amendment offered by the Senator from Massachusetts.

The Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, the reconciliation bill raises the Medicare age of eligibility to 67 beginning in the year 2003.

While the reconciliation provision is described as conforming to the Social Security change enacted in 1983, it has significant differences. Individuals affected by the Social Security change had a minimum of 20 years to adjust their retirement plans, while individuals affected by this change have only 7 years. Social Security change continued to allow individuals to receive benefits at 62.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts must send his amendment to the desk.

Mr. KENNEDY. I ask that the Budget Committee, where I submitted it—if I could have their attention, please.

As I understand, the point of order was sustained, so I wonder why I need to send something—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has a time limit of 30 seconds on the amendment. And if the amendment is not at the desk, the Senator does not have any time.

Mr. KENNEDY. I made the point of order. It was sustained.

I ask, in place of sending the amendment, that I be entitled to the same amount of time to speak on the point of order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has used his 30 seconds.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, the Senator has prevailed.

Mr. KENNEDY addressed the Chair.

Mr. DOMENICI. He has prevailed.

Mr. KENNEDY. I just say, if we are going to be taken off our feet when the parliamentary situation is not clear, we will be staying around for a long time.

I am asking for fairness, for the 30 seconds we were entitled to, that I was told I am entitled to by the Budget Committee.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has used his 30 seconds.

Mr. GRAMM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senator have an additional 30 seconds.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. KENNEDY. I thank the Senator.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts is recognized for 30 seconds.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, the Social Security change continued to allow individuals to receive benefits at age 62; the age of early retirement, and age 65, the normal retirement age, although at reduced levels.

Under this proposal, no Medicare benefits at all will be provided until the individual is 67. The provision breaks faith with American workers who paid into the Medicare system in the expectation they will be provided health security at the age of 65 and will leave millions of senior citizens without health insurance coverage.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I hope—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. DOMENICI. I hope for purposes of management that Senators on our side would leave it up to one of us, either the leader or I, in terms of asking
