PERMISSION FOR SUNDRY COMMITTEES AND THEIR SUBCOMMITTEES TO SIT TOMORROW DURING 5-MINUTE RULE

Mr. CANADY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit tomorrow while the House is meeting in the Committee of the Whole House under the 5-minute rule.

Committee on Commerce, Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities, Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, Committee on International Relations, Committee on the Judiciary, Committee on Resources, Committee on Science, Committee on Small Business, Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, and Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

It is my understanding that the minority has been consulted and that there is no objection to these requests.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

IN HONOR OF TOM EBERLEIN

(Mr. DELAY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DELAY. Mr. Speaker, on October 27, the Office of the Sergeant at Arms, in particular, and the House of Representatives as a whole, lost a friend and coworker.

Tom Eberlein was a valued member of the Sergeant at Arms Chamber security unit since 1992. Prior to that, Tom spent 20 years in the security field, including 17 years as a detective with the Metropolitan Police Department.

He is survived by his mother, Pat, his brother, Timothy and his nephew, Justin.

Those of us who knew Tom came to appreciate his genuine enthusiasm for his job. He was proud of the knowledge he acquired of the workings of this institution and eagerly shared it with others in order to better serve the House.

His most memorable trait was his flagging good humor, through the long days and nights, that he shared freely with one and all. Anyone entering the Chamber through the main doors can't have failed to notice Tom's cheerful, yet professional presence. The long hours and constant pressure never diminished his ability to perform his duties while lifting the spirits of those fortunate enough to serve with him.

These words alone cannot adequately convey our sense of loss. His coworkers, especially will feel the loss as they must carry on now without him. Tom set a high standard for all of us. His smiling face and ready laugh will missed by all.
