

The Washington Post got it absolutely right when they said the Democrats, let by the president, chose instead to present themselves as the demagogues that they are.

WHY IS THE GOVERNMENT SHUT DOWN?

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, the country is asking today: Why is the Government shut down?

The President has made it clear the Government is shut down because he will not yield to the blackmail on Medicare, on Medicaid, on school lunch, on student loans.

What we did not understand is why is the Speaker, why is the Speaker going forward to shut down the Government?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. KINGSTON. Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. INGLIS of South Carolina). The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman makes a point of order.

Mr. MILLER of California. Why is the Speaker going forward? Because he is angry about his treatment.

Mr. KINGSTON. Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman from California will suspend.

Mr. MILLER of California. I have 1 minute to speak.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

Mr. MILLER of California. He is upset.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

For what purpose does the gentleman from Georgia rise?

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, point of order. Was it not the opinion of the Chair that the chart in the gentleman's hand is out of order?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. DOGGETT. Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MILLER of California. May I be heard on the point of order?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, since it is obvious the Democrat Party does not want to play by the rules of the House, would it not be in order to remove the chart from the floor?

Mr. MILLER of California. If I may be heard on the point of order.

Mr. DOGGETT. Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I would like to state my point of order.

Mr. MILLER of California. The point of order—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman from California may be heard on the point of order.

Mr. MILLER of California. The point of order, I believe, is to suggest what, that I am holding the cover of the front page of the New York Daily News?

Mr. KINGSTON. Point of order, Mr. Speaker. He is trying to debate. My point of order and question to the Chair was: Should not that chart be removed from the Chamber, since the Democrats obviously do not have the self-discipline to follow the rules of the House?

Mr. MILLER of California. On the point of order, Mr. Speaker, this chart is in order under the House rules because this chart provides and has provided to 800,000 New Yorkers the explanation of why the Speaker shut down the Government.

Mr. DOGGETT. Point of order, Mr. Speaker; point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is prepared to rule on the point of order.

All Members should not use charts that are demeaning to other Members, in order to preserve the decorum of the House.

Mr. DOGGETT. Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry. When we had a previous objection—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman from Texas was on his feet first.

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, under the rules of the House, if the gentleman or any of the other gentleman of the majority wish to object to this chart, instead of continuing to interrupt our speakers who use it, the proper approach under the rules is to state an objection. Then we can have a vote on it in the House, and I raise a point of order against these continued obstructions of the orderly debate and ask them to state their objection, if that is what they want, and get a ruling from the Chair.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Texas will suspend.

The Chair is prepared to rule. The Chair ruled in this case on the point of order that the chart was not in order because it was demeaning to another Member, the Speaker.

Mr. DOGGETT. You have ruled it is out of order? Are you directing us to remove it from the floor?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. That is correct.

Mr. DOGGETT. Then I ask for a vote on that.

Mr. Speaker, I appeal the ruling of the Chair. I appeal the ruling of the Chair that the chart of the front page of the Daily News is out of order.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I move to table the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question, first, is, shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?

The gentleman from Georgia moves to lay the appeal on the table.

The question is on the motion to table offered by the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. KINGSTON].

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mr. HOKE. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that, I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 231, nays 173, not voting 28, as follows:

Mr. OBERSTAR and Mr. POSHARD changed their vote from "yea" to "nay".

So the motion to table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 803 on tabling the appeal of the Chair, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "no".

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members will proceed at this point for four more 1-minute speeches on each side.

CUTE AND CLEVER SPEECHES

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, you know, the Democrats are being so clever today that it makes you think they borrowed some of that $40,000 Hazel O'Leary spent on a PR firm to come up with some good 1-minutes, and I congratulate them only for being cute and clever today, $133,000 a year, and they get their reading material from cartoons. They go to college, they graduate, they go to law school, and what do we get? We get tabloids and cartoons.

□ 1100

Mr. Speaker, I give my one-minute on this side of the aisle today, and although there are only a few yards difference between these lecterns, often there are miles and miles and huge canyons of philosophical distance.

I think it is important that we start talking bipartisanship. Last night, 48 of your Members joined 241 of our Members in saying we are going to put partisan sniping behind us. We are going to put the Federal employees who are out of work back to work. We are going to end the furloughs. We are going to reopen the Social Security services office, the Passport office. We are going to reopen the National Parks, and most of all, 48 of your Members in a bipartisan fashion said yes to balancing the budget in 7 years. In doing this, they did not sell out on welfare; they did not compromise on taxes.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, you all come over to our side; we will talk.

QUIT PLAYING GAMES

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, Speaker GINGRICH threw a tantrum and revealed the real reason he has shut down the Government—because the President did not pay enough attention to him on Air Force One. The Speaker's outburst at breakfast, gives new meaning to the phrase whine and dine.

Meanwhile, I got a call yesterday from a small businessman who told me that he will have to lay off employees because his business relies on contracts from the Department of Energy and Department of Defense that have not been paid.

Across the country, 56,000 seniors and workers have been denied Social Security benefits, 15,000 veterans have been unable to file compensation, pension and education benefit claims—all because the Speaker did not get his ego stroked on Air Force One.

The Speaker's massive ego gets bruised, so he puts people out of work and denies seniors and veterans their benefits. Mr. Speaker, quit whining, quit playing games with people's lives, and do your job.

THE STRATEGY OF THE LIBERALS

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, the strategy of the liberals is very clear here. Let us distract the House. Let us focus on the real issues today. We want to get Government workers back to work. We want to see a balanced budget in 7 years. But I know it is going to be difficult with the Cabinet that the President has.

For example, Secretary O'Leary has been wasting money. According to the GAO, her agency has been ineffective. Then there was Vice President Gore's report that said she was inefficient. Then there was a first class travel, taking a large contingency. Then there was a private investigatory firm that was going to cost us $46,500 of taxpayer dollars, this year.

Well, now we find out she has also hired a media consultant at $277 a day, at taxpayers' expense, to improve her image. She spent $200,000 on this.

Mr. Speaker, it is time for Secretary O'Leary to resign. We need for her to do that just to balance the budget and get these Government workers back to work.

GINGRICH GOP THEME CHANGE

(Mr. VENTO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Speaker, what we are seeing today is a Gingrich Republican theme change. A new tune. First of all, the Gingrich Republicans were indifferent and noncaring about the fact that the Government was closing down and that 2.3 million workers were being sent home. But today, that tact that theme of attaching to the necessary funding resolutions because the Republican Congress did not do their work in the first place, now attached to that was the death penalty, environmental problems, Medicare cuts, and other policy changes.

The fact is that now, of course, they are saying they have a clean resolution, a different theme but the fact is, it is just a shell and a pea game. Under this guise of these funding resolutions the Gingrich GOP are attempting to force the same kind of Medicare cuts, the tax breaks for their wealthy friends and the injection of special interests in this process.
