

said the appearance of corruption is spread all over GOPAC and the Speaker's fundraising. If he cannot abide by the laws that are in force, if there is not an appearance of corruption, we must get a report from the Ethics Committee, or we are part of the coverup. If you vote to table, you are covering up. Do not do it.

MORE COMPASSION FOR WORKING FAMILIES

(Mr. DURBIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DURBIN. The Gingrich Republicans just do not understand the problems facing working families, but do not take my word for it. Take the word of the Consumers Union. I hope you are familiar with this organization. They publish Consumers Report. They are noncommercial, nonpolitical.

Yesterday, they analyzed the Gingrich Republican budget and its impact on working families, particularly when it comes to Medicaid, the program that pays for over half the cost of nursing homes across America.

Mr. Speaker, if you have a member of your family in a nursing home or if you anticipate that possibility, it is a troubling challenge to every family. It costs on average $38,000 a year to keep a person in a nursing home, and the Federal Government picks up the lion's share of that cost so that families will not be decimated and bankrupted by this experience. The Gingrich Republican budget, according to Consumers Union, will force 395,000 long-term care patients off these Medicaid payments for nursing homes.

Now, what will happen to these working families? I wish they had the same sensitivity for working families as they have when they give tax breaks to the wealthy.

JOIN WITH US TO GOVERN

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I listened with great interest to my colleague from Illinois, and I dare say to find some of the most stunning fiction in this Nation one no longer needs to visit bookstores, one no longer need go to the library. Simply listen to the rhetoric chanted almost as a mindless mantra from those disciples of big Government who fail to understand one basic principle. You work hard for the money you earn, you ought to hang on to more of it and send less of it here to Washington.

The fact is, and we will repeat it again, we are not making these draconian cuts the other side attributes. We are restraining the rate of growth to save the very programs they purport to champion. Sooner or later, my friends on the other side of the aisle, the liberals in this Chamber and at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue will have to step forward with us and govern.

Once again, Mr. Speaker, we extend our hand. Join with us and govern. The American people deserve no less.

IMPOVERISHING FAMILIES IS NO WAY TO BALANCE BUDGET

Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, no, we will not join in an effort that, as the report issued on Wednesday by the Consumers Union says, and these are the folks, my friends, when you go to buy your car, you look at the Consumer Reports to find out if you are getting a bum deal or if you are going to get a good deal.

Let me tell you what kind of a bum deal that the folks in this country are going to get. The Republican plans for the transformation of Medicaid may force thousands of American families into financial ruin.

Mr. Speaker, Medicaid pays the bills of 60 percent of nursing home residents in this country. Under the Republican plan, 395,000 of our Nation's long-term care patients are likely to lose Medicaid payment for their care.

Most appalling is that the Republican plan would repeal current regulations that protect the assets of the families of nursing home patients.

In fact, this bill would actually allow a State to place a lien on your home if your mother or father is in a nursing home and cannot pay the bill. Mr. Speaker, families should not have to hawk their homes to pay for the medical care of loved ones. Impoverishing American families is no way to balance the budget.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GILLMOR). The Chair would remind the Members that we are in 1 minutes, and the Chair would appreciate it if Members would stay within 1 minute.

VOTING CARD WORLD'S MOST EXPENSIVE CREDIT CARD

(Mr. WELLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Speaker, as one of those who came to Washington to change how Washington works, I found the last year so very interesting.

Mr. Speaker, all of us in the House use this plastic card. It is a card that we carry, and the interesting thing is, our friends on the left, the Democrats, for the last 26 years have used this card, their voting card, as the world's most expensive credit card, running up a $4.9 trillion national debt.

What does that mean to the people in the land of Lincoln, my home State of Illinois? Well, everybody's share is $19,000 if we wanted to pay off that national debt. We have been operating under deficit spending for 26 years. Not since Neil Armstrong has Congress balanced the budget.

Just like every American family, Republicans are committed to living within our means. We have a plan which balances the budget over 7 years. We increase spending for Medicare by $724 billion over 7 years. We increase Medicaid funding for the State of Illinois by 55 percent. We have a plan to balance the budget. We reform welfare.

Where is the Democrat leadership plan? Where is the President's plan?

CONGRESS OF BUSINESS, BY BUSINESS, AND FOR BUSINESS

(Mr. SCHUMER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. Speaker, a year ago Speaker GINGRICH signed what he called a solemn Contract With America to end Congress' cycle of scandal and disgrace. Yet all we see today is government as usual, even worse than usual.

Record levels of campaign contributions. The Washington Post reports that the majority whip is known as the hammer because he hammers people for contributions. Yesterday, we saw again more of this as we read in the Wall Street Journal how contributions are becoming more and more closely linked to legislative favors. While business should certainly be at the table, this has become a Congress of business, by business, and for business.

Then, finally, today we read, according to the FEC, that GOPAC, the Speaker's fat-cat PAC, gave him a quarter of a million dollars in hidden Newt support. Yes, we said yesterday disclosure for lobbyists but, of course, no disclosure for the Speaker. This bill came 5 years too late.

BALANCED BUDGET BONUS FOR CURRENT AND FUTURE GENERATIONS

(Mr. CHRYSLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CHRYSLER. Mr. Speaker, a balanced budget by 2002 means a bonus for current and future generations. Lower interest rates, for example, will mean that people from Michigan will save $3,914 per year on an average fixed-rate mortgage. Students at Michigan State University would save, on average, $584 on a 10-year student loan.

Republicans have passed a budget that balances by 2002, paving the way for American families to reap the benefits it will bring for our economy.

The President has produced no specific plan to balance the budget. His refusal to offer his own details not only risks missing this opportunity to have a balanced budget, lower mortgages,
