Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent for 1 additional minute past the 2 o'clock time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. I believe the Senator has 2 minutes under his control, at any rate.

Mr. GORTON. Fine.

Mr. President, one of the finer customs of the Senate, one of the customs that makes it work in contentious times better than might otherwise be the case, is the custom of Senators to treat kindly their fellow Members and to speak well of them. I think that is a wonderful custom, and I have been its beneficiary on a number of occasions. But I must say, I have never been its beneficiary in such fulsome terms as were just applied to me by my friend and colleague, mentor, the senior Senator from West Virginia. I cannot claim to deserve all of those compliments, but I may appreciate them even the more for that.

I learned what I have learned in the service of the Appropriations Committee from him during his chairmanship, and the extent that I have had a success this year has been largely due to the advice and the guidance which the senior Senator from West Virginia has provided.

He has stated very well the difficulties under which this bill is presented to this body, the great contribution it makes to deficit reduction and the difficulty that that created in attempting to properly fund and instruct the agencies under its jurisdiction. I have also made a statement to that effect.

I will simply solicit the support of my colleagues for the bill which I believe reaches its goals well, considering the challenges with which we are faced, and I hope that the President will change his mind and sign it, as it will be much better than any alternative that he is likely to receive through a continuing resolution.

The yeas and nays have not been requested?

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. COVERDELL). They have not.

Mr. GORTON. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?
