

Mr. FAZIO of California. Further parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker:

I assume we are using this device as a way of moving forward if no CR is enacted, and obviously I would hope, as I assume we all would, that some sort of continuing resolution could be put in place so that we would actually not be in a position to shut the Government down, but this device does remain available if we are not able to accomplish that. Could the gentleman give us some outstanding date or time on a given day when he would anticipate the recess coming to a close?

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman, of course, is free to assume whatever he likes.

Mr. Speaker, I would anticipate that what work might get done on the budget would not be done in sufficient time for us to act on it before Monday next. There is other work we can do, but it is not of such compelling urgency that we would need to schedule it for the weekend given that we can do it during the course of next week's proceedings.

So, I would anticipate that except in the extraordinary circumstance of a budget agreement that Members might prepare to go to their districts to be with their families and their constituents until Monday afternoon. We would probably try to arrange the schedule so that there would be no votes until after 5 on Monday.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that assurance. I think it gives Members some confidence that even though this is a rather extraordinary, in fact perhaps unprecedented, delegation of authority, at least the Members on our side are being given, in effect by the gentleman's comments, adequate notice.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, if I might respond, I will have a statement, of course, later in the day so that we can have perhaps more firm revelations for Members, but in any event should the Speaker exercise his authority, Members will have certainly at least 24 hours' notice before they are called back to the Chamber.

Mr. FAZIO of California. I appreciate the gentleman's assurance.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY].

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 215, nays 152, not voting 65, as follows:
