

younger than our own is appalling. In Orange County, NY a few years ago, the death of a World War II veteran was recorded in the daily newspaper with this incredible line: "He was a survivor of when the Japanese dropped the atomic bomb on Pearl Harbor * * *"

Our generation has one last task before it. The Great Depression, World War II, and the subsequent cold war are topped by one final burden: it is our responsibility to bear witness to what we have seen and what we have lived through.

It is important that we tell our youth, our grandchildren, our families, and any journalists we encounter of the goals, the ideals, and the vision of World War II. It is up to us to bear witness that the inhumanity of the Nazi and Imperialist Japanese war machines were not just in our imaginations.

It is incumbent upon us to leave permanent records of the sacrifices we made. We know that we cannot depend upon future generations to do this.

Accordingly, we are burdened with this final responsibility.

TRIBUTE TO JACQUELINE
BERGMAN

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 28, 1996

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, Ms. Jacqueline Bergman has distinguished herself as the first female member president of the International Association of Lions Clubs, and I think it is important to recognize this landmark achievement. In 1987 she was installed as the first woman member of the Brooklyn Downtown Lions Club. This is indeed significant because it demonstrates that barriers to advancement for women are being overcome.

Ms. Bergman has served the Lions organization well. She has chaired major fundraisers, been the recipient of the organization's highest award by being designated as a Melvin Jones Fellow, and edited the club's newsletter. Jacqueline has also served as a delegate to numerous district, State, and international conventions. Jacqueline lives in Brooklyn Heights, has two children, Andrew and Mona, and adores her grandson Andre. Her commitment to service is only exceeded by her desire to do the best job possible. I am honored to recognize her dedicated efforts.

TRIBUTE TO ROSA LIVERPOOL

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 28, 1996

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, the Borough of Brooklyn is fortunate to have Rosa Liverpool as a citizen. Rosa has been an achiever in spite of adversity. She was the first African American graduate from the Slovak Girls Academy, and subsequently earned her undergraduate degree from Mercy College, and her master's degree in counseling from Manhattan College.

After receiving her degrees, Rosa began working for the city of New York. She has particular expertise in early identification and reporting of abuse and neglect of children. In 1979 Rosa began working with patients and their families who were addicted to opiates. Presently, Ms. Liverpool is the district guidance counselor for Community School District 19. She is also the child abuse and neglect liaison as well as the suicide prevention specialist for district 19. Rosa has been actively involved in the East New York community of Brooklyn.

Ms. Liverpool chairs the education committee for the Rosetta Gaston Foundation, and is also a member of Community Board No. 5. She has worked with local store owners to provide donations for block activities, and coordinated job fairs for East New York residents. Rosa leads by her example, and is destined to leave a lasting legacy.

TRIBUTE TO AGENTS PETER
HARGRAVES, CHRIS REILLY, AND LARRY SALMON

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 28, 1996

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate three special agents of the State Department's Bureau of Diplomatic Security, Peter Hargraves, Chris Reilly, and Larry Salmon, who received Valor Awards at the U.S. Department of State on February 15. I was pleased to have a member of my staff represent me at this very moving awards ceremony where Secretary Warren Christopher presided. The Valor Award is one of the Department of State's highest awards and is given to those employees who demonstrate exceptional bravery in the face of life-threatening danger. Special Agents Hargraves, Reilly, and Salmon exhibited particular noteworthy courage in 1995 in their efforts to ensure the safe and secure conduct of U.S. foreign policy abroad. I am pleased to take this opportunity to recognize these three courageous public servants. At a June 29, 1995, oversight hearing on the Diplomatic Security Bureau, our House International Relations Committee heard about the details of some of the courage of these agents and their sacrifices in the service of their Nation. I am pleased to see they have been further honored by the Secretary of State.

Special Agent Peter Hargraves was the former Regional Security Officer assigned to the U.S. Embassy in Sarajevo. On August 19, 1995, Special Agent Hargraves was accompanying a United States peacekeeping delegation to Sarajevo for a meeting with the Bosnian Government. During the trek to Sarajevo over the dangerous Mt. Igman Road, one vehicle in the convoy, its weight too much for the road's shoulder, began a fatal spin down the mountain. The vehicle stopped 500 meters later. Special Agent Hargraves, who managed to get out of the vehicle, disregarded his own severe personal injuries and repeatedly returned to the burning vehicle in an effort to save others. After pulling one individual from the wreckage, his efforts were halted when the vehicle exploded. Special Agent Hargraves is still recovering from injuries suffered in this accident, which claimed the lives of three U.S. peace negotiators. Special Agent Hargraves is a true American hero. The citation on his award reads, "For exceptional bravery and heroic devotion to your colleagues, in support of efforts to bring peace to the peoples of Bosnia."

Special Agency Chris Reilly was the former Regional Security Officer assigned to the United States Embassy in Bujumbura. On June 14, 1995, Special Agency Reilly accompanied United States Ambassador to Burundi Robert Krueger and former Burundian Foreign Minister Jean Marie Ngendahayo, on a fact-finding mission to the province of Cibitoke in northwestern Burundi. Late in the afternoon, during the return trip to Bujumbura, the eight vehicle motorcade came under heavy automatic weapons fire from at least two unidentified gunman. Special Agent Reilly immediately instructed the Burundian driver to leave the area. The driver froze. Special Agent Reilly, sitting in the front passenger's seat, reached over and shifted the car into reverse and stepped on the accelerator. After backing up, he shifted the car to drive and managed to get the driver to put his foot on the accelerator and leave the area. Our Ambassador, and the Foreign Minister escaped injury as a result of the heroic actions of Special Agent Reilly. Special Agent Reilly's citation reads,

For valor during an attack on an official motorcade in Cibitoke province, Burundi, on June 14, 1995. While the Ambassador's vehicle came under heavy automatic weapons fire, your rapid and effective response contributed directly to saving the lives of the Ambassador and the Burundi Foreign Minister. Your actions reflect the highest credit upon you and the Diplomatic Security Service.

Special Agent Larry Salmon, the Regional Security Officer at the United States Embassy in Windhoek, was on temporary assignment in Bujumbura, and had accompanied Special Agency Reilly on the trip in which the Ambassador's motorcade was attacked on June 14, 1995. Special Agent Salmon was driving the unarmored follow car directly behind Ambassador Krueger's car. When the attack began, Special Agent Salmon's vehicle was peppered with bullets. A Burundian bodyguard sitting in the backseat was injured by gunfire, and Special Agent Salmon was hit in the right shoulder by shell fragments. Special Agent Salmon spotted one of the assailants firing an AK-47 at the convoy. Without hesitation, he drew his Smith and Wesson and proceeded to fire six rounds at the attacker through the shot-out right rear window. Once Special Agent Salmon fired his weapon, the assault stopped. The Ambassador's vehicle and the follow car escaped. Special Agent Salmon's quick reaction to this attack saved the lives of the two people in his vehicle, and contributed to the safe escape of the Ambassador and Foreign Minister. His heroic response to such a life threatening situation demands our utmost respect. Special Agent Salmon's citation reads,

For valor during an attack on an official motorcade in Cibitoke province, Burundi, on June 14 1995. While the Ambassador's vehicle came under heavy automatic weapons fire, your rapid and effective response contributed directly to saving the lives of the Ambassador and the Burundi Foreign Minister. Your actions reflect the highest credit upon you and the Diplomatic Security Service.

Mr. Speaker, I take this opportunity to further recognize and share with my colleagues some of the details of the exceptionally courageous efforts by these special agents who
