

IN SUPPORT OF H.R. 2778

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 7, 1996

Mr. COSTELLO, Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 2778, providing for relief for members of the Armed Forces currently serving on peacekeeping missions in Bosnia.

This bill will provide benefits to those peacekeeping troops currently in Bosnia as part of Operation Joint Endeavor. For these military personnel, there should be no penalty for delays or tax on pay related to their service overseas.

Specifically, the troops would receive an extension for filing income tax returns without penalty, exclusion of combat pay for taxation, forgiveness of income tax, and a reduction in estate taxes for those who die or are injured during the mission.

In addition, military personnel in the combat zone also would be able to make long distance phone calls without being subject to the 3 percent excise tax. Tax benefits would be retroactive to December 4, 1995, and in effect until substantial U.S. involvement in the peacekeeping mission came to an end.

Mr. Speaker, it is important that Congress try to alleviate as much of the burden as possible on our troops in Bosnia, and this small step will help those families trying to make ends meet while their loved ones are keeping the peace overseas. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this important legislation.

INTRODUCTION OF AMENDMENT
TO THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT
OF 1965

HON. CHARLIE NORWOOD

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 7, 1996

Mr. NORWOOD. Mr. Speaker, this legislation would allow five historically black graduate schools to continue to compete for Federal grant funds under section 326 of title III of the Higher Education Act. Morehouse School of Medicine, Meharry Medical College, Clark-Atlanta University, Charles R. Drew Postgraduate Medical School, and Tuskegee University School of Medicine are all in danger of becoming ineligible for grant funds. These funds support the purchase of laboratory equipment, improvements to classrooms, libraries and laboratories, faculty development, and academic instruction. It is important that this Congress reaffirm its commitment to high quality graduate level education for young African-Americans in this country. This amendment allows us to continue that tradition.

Historically black graduate schools train half of this country's African-American physicians, pharmacists, and dentists, as well as three quarters of all African-American veterinarians. For the most part, these individuals practice in poor urban and rural areas, where they serve large portions of disadvantaged Americans. These schools and individuals are providing a valuable service to this country by meeting one of the major challenges currently facing our health care system. They deserve our appreciation and our support whenever possible.

This piece of legislation will continue these schools' grant eligibility, without any fiscal implications for the Federal Government. Passage of this legislation allows these fine graduate institutions to continue to provide top quality education and training to their students.

The other 11 historically black graduate programs have no opposition to the continued eligibility of these 5 schools, and the decision to fund this particular section remains in the hands of the Appropriations Committee. There is no reason to restrict access to these funds.

TRIBUTE TO DANIEL J. CADY

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 7, 1996

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I stand before you today to ask that you and my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives join me in paying tribute to Mr. Daniel J. Cady of my hometown Flint, MI.

Mr. Cady is being honored today by his many family members and friends for 36 years of service to the Flint Community School District. Mr. Cady began his career with the Flint Community Schools in 1960, and has held numerous positions to include Community School director; coordinator instructor—Associate Community School Director Program; director of the Mott Program leadership training; consultant for staff development and leadership training; coordinator for staff development and leadership training; and director of Community Education Programs and Services; a position which he held until his retirement on January 31, 1996.

Mr. Cady's dedication to his profession has been much more than just doing a job. Over the 36 years that he has worked in the field of community education his leadership has been an inspiration for others at the local level, and also the State and national levels where he served as the president of both the Michigan Association of Community and Adult Education and the National Community Education Association. Additionally, he traveled throughout the United States assisting others as they learned the power of involving the people of their community in both education and Government.

During the 1930's, Charles Stewart Mott and Frank Manley began this program of opening school buildings to the community, and from there the formation of the community education concept. Over the years there have been a number of different individuals who have been leaders in this movement; Dan Cady is one who has carried on the responsibility of those before him by serving as a role model for many. Mr. Cady now is moving on to a new challenge as the director of the National Center for Community Education. I know he will provide the same dedication and commitment to his new position as he has to all previous.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and all my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join me in congratulating Daniel J. Cady on his retirement from 36 years with the Flint Community Schools and also wish him well in his new position as director of the National Center for Community Education.

HAPPY 50TH ANNIVERSARY TO
MR. AND MRS. ELBERT
TEFFERTILLER

HON. GLENN POSHARD

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 7, 1996

Mr. POSHARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate an occasion that is becoming an extremely rare event. Elbert "Bert" Teffertiller and his wife Alice will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on March 12. It is with great respect and admiration that I offer them my congratulations on reaching this glorious milestone.

The Teffertiller's were married shortly after Bert returned from over 3 years of service in the Army during World War II. The couple settle in McLeansboro in 1947 and have resided in Hamilton County ever since. They raise their two children there, and have since been blessed with five grandchildren. In and of itself, 50 years in the institution of marriage is a remarkable achievement. The commitment to spouse and family is truly momentous, and this kind of devotion often means there is less time for outside activities. This is certainly not the case with the Teffertillers.

Since they opened their first clothing store in McLeansboro the year of their marriage, Bert and Alice have gradually expanded their businesses to include shoes, furniture, cars, and homes, all the while helping to improve the local economy. Their devotion to their customers is legendary in the region, as they are known for their fantastic promotions featuring carnival rides, beauty queens, and television stars, refreshments, and a fair and honest deal. In 49 years of proprietorship, the Teffertillers have never forced payment, which speaks to another kind of commitment, to their community. Bert has served on numerous boards and associations, including as president of the McLeansboro Merchant's Association and president of the Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce. Also, both the Teffertillers are active members of their church.

Mr. Speaker, Bert Teffertiller has said he has tried to give back to the community more than he received, and it seems this family has accomplished that worthy goal. Their dedicated service to each other, to their family, and to their fellow citizens has set a tremendous example for the entire Nation. I wish them many more happy years of marriage, and it is my great pleasure to represent them in the U.S. Congress.
