

and I for one cannot turn my back on the valiant police officers in my district in New York City and Long Island.

Mr. Speaker, I beg my colleagues, do not defile the memory of those who died in the massacre on the Long Island Railroad. Do not sell your vote for the blood money of the NRA. Listen to the painful and courageous cries of the victims, your constituents and our police officers, law enforcement officials, and not to the special interests and the blood money of the NRA.

EVERGLADES RESTORATION

(Mr. FOLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to yell today. I want to thank this Chamber. I want to thank the conferees of the Senate and the House who have agreed to put $200 million in the budget for the Everglades restoration in Florida. The administration proposed a tax to fund the Everglades restoration. We proposed a solution, an immediate infusion of $200 million, plus vital lands to protect the fragile Everglades in Florida, protecting water supplies, protecting our second largest national park, and doing so in a bipartisan fashion.

Mr. Speaker, I commend my colleagues, particularly Speaker GINGRICH, Senators DOLE and MACK, and the 299 Members of this House who supported the efforts of environmental protection. This Congress, when it wants to, can work together in a bipartisan spirit. I hope we do more bipartisan efforts in the future in order to bring this Nation to the point of pride that it once was where it can restore the pride in ourselves and our abilities to govern, lower the rhetoric, lower the anxiety and allow us to proceed in an orderly fashion for democracy.

TITLE I EDUCATION FUNDING

(Ms. MCKINNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. MCKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, 10 days from now, the State of Georgia could begin laying off teachers due to Republican cuts to title I education funding. According to the Republicans, these cuts are necessary to balance the budget. Mr. Speaker, I have a hard time believing that. Especially when those same Republicans increased military spending by $7 billion for pork-barrel projects the Pentagon didn't ask for.

Moreover, Mr. Speaker, today's budget impasse is a direct result of Republicans insisting on $177 billion in tax breaks skewed to the wealthy. It's no wonder Congress' approval rating is so low.

I suppose, Mr. Speaker, the GOP plans to deal with declining geography test-scores by reducing school funding, so we can buy the bombs necessary to eliminate the countries our children can't find on a map anyway.

I guess that's one way of boosting geography test scores.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, on March 13, I was unavoidably detained from the House floor and missed four RECORD votes. Had I been present, I would have voted as follows: Rollcall 56, "no"; rollcall 57, "yes"; rollcall 58, "yes"; and rollcall 59, I would have voted "no."

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 1202

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have my name removed as a cosponsor of H.R. 1202.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. TAYLOR of North Carolina). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

GUN BAN REPEAL ACT OF 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 388, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 388

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 125) to repeal the ban on semiautomatic assault weapons and the ban on large capacity ammunition feeding devices. The amendment printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution shall be considered as adopted. The bill, as amended, shall be debatable for one hour equally divided and controlled by Representative Chapman of Texas or Representative Barr of Georgia and Representative Conyers of Michigan or his designee. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill, as amended, to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit. The motion to recommit may include instructions only if offered by the minority leader or his designee.

□ 1030

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. TAYLOR of North Carolina). The gentleman from New York [Mr. SOLOMON] is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, for purposes of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. FROST], pending which I yield myself such time as I may consume. Mr. Speaker, during consideration of the resolution, all time yielded is for purposes of debate only.

(Mr. SOLOMON asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks and include extraneous material.)

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, this rule provides for the consideration of the Gun Crime Enforcement and Second Amendment Restoration Act under a closed rule. The amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in the report accompanying the rule is considered as adopted.

Now, Mr. Speaker, ordinarily I would favor a more open process, but this particular bill presents issues which have been widely debated, which every Member of this body understands thoroughly. Most Members were familiar with the issues in this bill before they were even sworn in as Members of the House. While this particular bill was not reported by the Committee on the Judiciary, subcommittee hearings in the Committee on the Judiciary were held on the subject of this bill, extensive hearings.

This rule provides for 1 hour of general debate equally divided between the proponents and opponents. The proponents' time will be controlled by the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. BARR] and the gentleman from Texas [Mr. CHAPMAN] on a bipartisan basis, thus ensuring both parties will be fairly represented. The time of the opponents will be controlled by the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. CONYERS], the ranking member of the Committee on the Judiciary. In the Committee on Rules the gentleman from Michigan agreed that he would provide half of the time in opposition to the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. SHAYS] and other Republicans, thus insuring an equal division of time among the parties on both sides of this issue so we can be sure that this is going to be a fair and open debate.

The rule also provides for a motion to recommit which, if containing instructions, may only be offered by the minority leader, or his designee. This means that the minority will have the opportunity to get a vote on their best alternative proposal, and that is as it should be, Mr. Speaker.

This is a fair rule which will allow the House to consider a highly contentious issue in a balanced way and still enable Members to have time to return to their districts in time to meet with their constituents this weekend, and it is an important weekend coming up.

It is no secret that I have long been a proponent of the right of law-abiding citizens to have firearms to protect themselves, which is especially important in rural areas such as the 10,000 square miles in rural New York that I represent. It has frequently been said that guns do not commit crimes, people commit those crimes, and when people commit crimes, no matter what the weapon, we should throw the book at them, and that is what this bill does.

This bill does two things. It increases the penalties on those lawbreakers who use guns in the course of violent Federal crime or Federal drug traffic offenses, and it also contains provisions repealing the ineffective ban on certain semiautomatic weapons.

Mr. Speaker, the ban on certain semiautomatic weapons has not been
