RECOGNIZING THE HEROISM OF
LT. JOSEPH P. TADE AND HIS FELLOW OFFICERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. JONES] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, we live in a world where crime rates are rising daily, and where acts of violence against innocent people are escalating, at an alarming rate. It is rare when we hear of citizens who go above and beyond the call of duty to help their fellow man.

Mr. Speaker, at this time, I would like to give special recognition to one of those individuals, Lt. Joseph P. Tade, of the Elizabeth City, NC Police Department.

Lieutenant Tade embodies the qualities of honor, tenacity, and dedication. He has recently received three national awards for acts of courage and valor in the line of duty. The American Police Hall of Fame, has awarded Lieutenant Tade two separate Silver Stars for Bravery and the Legion of Honor Medal.

The Incidents, for which Lieutenant Tade earned his medals say much about his bravery and character.

On October 12, 1980, then-Patrolman Tade and his partner, intervened when an armed man attempted to flee the scene of a robbery, at a local grocery store. The suspect, opened fire on an innocent bystander and on the officers. After unsuccessfully attempting to convince the gunman to surrender, the officers pursued the suspect as he fled in his car. The chase ended when the officers cut off the suspect's car and the suspect took his own life.

Lieutenant Tade earned his second Silver Star when a routine traffic stop pin 1984 turned into a high speed chase that reached 95 miles per hour. When the chase appeared to have stopped, one of the three suspects aimed his gun at Tade and his partner, and then opened fire. Fearing for he and his partner's lives, Tade returned fire, striking the gunman twice. The suspects were apprehended a short time later and the gunman survived his wounds.

Lieutenant Tade's actions, in April of 1995, earned him The Legion of Honor Medal. While attempting to separate a local male and female involved in a violent altercation, Tade was severely cut by the female who had suddenly produced a razor blade. Although bleeding profusely—from a two inch long wound—he was still able to disarm the youth and take her into custody. Despite the many stitches required, Lieutenant Tade recovered and suffered no permanent damage.

Mr. Speaker, Lieutenant Tade is by no means alone in deserving our recognition. Every day and night, in this country and abroad, hundreds of thousands of Federal, State and local law enforcement officers, risk their lives to maintain peace, uphold justice, rid our neighborhoods of violent criminals, and keep our children and families safe. Words alone seem inadequate, but I would like to express to Lieutenant Tade, and his fellow officers throughout American, a sincere "Thank you", for your dedication to your fellow citizens.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the entire summary of Lieutenant Tade's courage, be included in the RECORD.

The incidents for which Lieutenant Tade earned his medals say much about his bravery and character. On October 12, 1980, then-Patrolman Tade and his partner intervened when an armed man attempted to flee the scene of a robbery of a local grocery store. The suspect fired multiple shots at a bystander and the officers. Fearing for the lives of everyone in the area, the officers returned fire, including two warning shots in the air and shots by Tade aimed at the suspect's tires. After attempting to convince the gunman to surrender, the officers pursued the suspect as he fled in his car. The chase ended when the officers cut off the suspect's car and the suspect took his own life.

Lieutenant Tade earned his second Silver Star when a routine traffic stop in 1984 turned into a high speed chase that reached speeds of 95 miles per hour. At night and on patrol with a police cadet, Tade once again demonstrated bravery and courage in the face of danger. When the truck they were chasing appeared to have stopped, and the officers had exited their vehicle, one of the three suspects fired multiple shots at Tade and his partner from the truck. Once again, fearing for he and his partner's lives, Tade returned fire, striking the gunman twice. The driver of the vehicle suddenly pulled away and another chase ensued. After evading several road blocks, the suspects were apprehended and the gunman survived his wounds.

Lieutenant Tade's actions in April 1995 earned him The Legion of Honor Medal. While he and his partner, Capt. W.O. Leary, were attempting to separate a local male and female involved in a violent altercation, Tade was severely cut by the female who had suddenly produced a razor blade. Bleeding profusely from a 2-inch cut on the hand, he was still able to disarm the youth and take her into custody. Lieutenant Tade required 10 stitches and luckily suffered no permanent damage.

These are certainly not Tade's only awards. In 1980, he was named Outstanding Young

Law Enforcement Officer of the Year by the Elizabeth City Jaycees. Throughout his career, Tade has received commendations from the Drug Enforcement Administration, the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigations, the North Carolina Division of Alcohol Law Enforcement, the U.S. Attorney's Office, the Currituck County Sheriff's Office, the Edenton Police Department, in addition to countless interdepartmental commendations.

Lieutenant Tade, a 20-year veteran, has a long and distinguished career with the Elizabeth City Police Department. He joined the department in 1976 and served as a cadet until 1978, when he was sworn-in full time. He immediately became involved in criminal investigations, as the department had no full-time investigators. In 1987, Tade was promoted to the rank of sergeant and became one of the department's first two full-time investigators. In 1989, Tade was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. In 1992, Tade was appointed as commander of the newly formed northeast regional drug task force. In 1995, Tade was appointed supervisor of a new division within the department. The neighborhood interdiction team, where he continues to serve today. This team is a community policing and street drug enforcement group working mainly in high crime areas of the city.

Over the course of his highly successful career, Lieutenant Tade has been involved in over 2,500 local, State and Federal drug arrests alone, reaching to such places as New York City, NY, and Allentown, PA. These arrests have resulted in record seizures of illicit drugs and currency, well in excess of $1.5 million. In addition, Tade has completed over 1300 hours of advanced law enforcement training.

Lieutenant Tade, a resident of Elizabeth City since the age of 10, currently lives with his wife Janet and their 3 daughters, Summer, Jessica, and Jordan.

Mr. Speaker, Lieutenant Tade is by no means alone in deserving our recognition. Every day and night, in this country and abroad, hundreds of thousands of Federal, State, and local law enforcement officers risk their lives to maintain peace, uphold justice, rid our streets, our neighborhoods and our businesses of violent criminals, and keep our children and families safe. To Lieutenant Tade and his fellow officers, I say "thank you."
