

CONGRATULATIONS TO SIKHS ON VAISAAKHI DAY

HON. DAN BURTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 297th celebration of Vaisaakhi Day, the birthday of the Sikh nation. On Vaisaakhi Day in 1699, Guru Gobind Singh, the tenth and last Guru of the Sikh religion, formally baptized the Sikhs into nationhood, creating the order of the Khalsa Panth.

The Sikhs are a proud, hard-working, and freedom-loving people. At times they have prospered. At times they have persevered under immense tyranny. They have always conducted themselves according to the axiom uttered by Guru Gobind Singh: "Recognize ye all the human race as one."

Sikhism is a monotheistic, independent religion that should not be confused with Hinduism or Islam. Sikhism dates back to the first of the ten Sikh Gurus, Guru Nanak, born in 1469. He laid the foundation of Sikhism by preaching a simple creed based on three principles: 1.) Pray daily, meditating on God's name; 2.) Work hard and earn an honest living by the sweat of your own brow—live a family life and practice honesty in all dealings, and 3.) Be charitable, sharing the fruits of your labor with others.

Most importantly, the Guru instructed Sikhs to stand up against tyranny wherever it exists. On many occasions, Sikhs have lived up to this high calling, defending Hindus from the aggression of Mogul invaders from Afghanistan. Today Sikhs find themselves in a position of defending themselves from the brutal tyranny of the Indian Government. Over the past ten years, over 100,000 Sikhs have been killed by Indian security forces. Yet Sikhs continue to look to the spirit imbued in them on Vaisaakhi Day in 1699.

Mr. Speaker, the Sikh people remain bloody but unbowed in the face of the campaign of murder, torture and rape being waged by the Indian military. Because of India's bloody rule, the Sikh people are seeking to exercise their right to self determination and declare an independent Sikh homeland. In October 1987, three years after India's bloody assault and massacre at the Golden Temple in Amritsar, every major Sikh political group joined together to issue a declaration of nationhood and independence.

I ask all of my colleagues to support two pieces of legislation: H.R. 1425. "The Human Rights in India Act, which would cut off U.S. aid to India until it stops the human rights abuses; and House Resolutions 32, which would recognize the Sikh people's right to self-determination. America stands for freedom, human rights and democracy, and we should support these ideals.

DEPLORING INDIVIDUALS WHO DENY HISTORICAL REALITY OF
HOLOCAUST AND COMMENDING
WORK OF U.S. HOLOCAUST ME-MORIAL MUSEUM

SPEECH OF

HON. GARY A. FRANKS

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Mr. FRANKS of Connecticut. I rise in strong support of House Resolution 316, a measure which applauds the work of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum while condemning those people who have the sheer audacity to deny that the Holocaust ever occurred.

Mr. Speaker, the Holocaust Museum serves as a poignant historical reminder of one of the darkest periods of human history—the systematic extermination by Nazi Germany of over six million Jews. This important museum serves as an essential, necessary monument that reminds the world of those people whose lives were savagely ripped away from them in Nazi death camps like Auschwitz while honoring the brave people who fiercely took a stand against the evil Nazi tyrants.

Mr. Speaker, anyone who visits the Holocaust Museum will find it to be an experience both sobering and stirring. I applaud the work of those who are involved with the Holocaust Museum for the job they have done in educating the public and making sure that we will never forget. Truly, anyone who visits our Nation's capital should make pilgrimage to this museum.

Sadly, Mr. Speaker, there are still those who dispute that a Holocaust ever occurred. They maintain, mainly out of hatred and anti-semitism, that there was no genocide and that the notion of the Holocaust is fraudulent. Mr. Speaker, I feel it is our duty as duly-elected officials, as representatives of the American people, to condemn these hateful people for such warped attitudes and make notice that these despicable people, these offensive outcasts of society, remain permanently embedded in the status of pariahs of our communities.

Mr. Speaker, when all is said and done, I pray that we have learned from this sad, sad chapter of human history and that we, the human race, must never forget the necessity of being soldiers on the front lines in the war versus bigotry, hatred, and racism. The Holocaust Museum serves as a concrete record and as a reminder, for us and generations to come, of our obligation in this battle for us and our children. I commend Congressman GILMAN and Congressman LANTOS for their work on this endeavor and I encourage my colleagues to pass this important resolution.

FOR SURVIVORS OF THE
ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

HON. GEORGE P. RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, between 1915 and 1923 the Ottoman Turkish Empire committed a terrible genocide against Armenians. In a systematic and deliberate camaign to eliminate the Armenian people and erase their culture and history of 3,000 years the Turks committed this atrocity. As a result, over one-half million Armenians were massacred. The Armenian genocide is a historical fact, and has been recognized by academicians and historians all over the world. The documentary evidence is irrefutable and beyond question. Unfortunately, the Turkish Government is still persisting in their denial that the genocide took place.

Many survivors of the genocide have made the United States their new home. On April 24, 1996 Armenians all over the world will commemorate the 81st anniversary of the Armenian genocide. Commemoration activities will occur in Washington, D.C., Los Angeles, and in my district in Fresno, California. I have the honor of representing thousands of Armenians in California's 19th Congressional District, and I send my sincerest condolences on this solemn occasion to all members of the Armenian community. As a member of the Congressional Caucus on Armenian Issues, I intend to join my colleagues, Representatives JOHN PORTER and FRANK PALLONE in a special order on April 24, 1996 on the floor of the House of Representatives to commemorate the genocide victims.

I am an original cosponsor of House Concurrent Resolution 47 which calls on Congress to officially recognize the Armenian genocide and encourages the Republic of Turkey to do the same. This legislation would call on the Government of Turkey to turn away from its denials of the Armenian genocide, and instead, to openly acknowledge this tragic chapter in its history. By doing so, the Turkish Government can help to raise the level of trust in a strategic, yet highly unstable, region of the world and facilitate the normalization of relations between Turkey and Armenia. I encourage my colleagues to vote for the passage of H. Con. Res. 47.

Remembering this genocide against the Armenians will help ensure that this type of tragedy is never allowed to occur again.

CONTRACT WITH AMERICA
ADVANCEMENT ACT OF 1996

SPEECH OF

HON. THOMAS J. BLILEY, JR.

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 28, 1996

Mr. BLILEY. Mr. Speaker, I commend Chairman HYDE of the Judiciary Committee and Senator BOND for their leadership on this bill. We share the goals of reducing regulatory burdens on small business and, in so doing, promoting job creation and economic growth.

S. 942 sweeps across a wide range of Federal regulation. Oversight of the Securities and Exchange Commission [SEC] falls within the jurisdiction of the Commerce. The SEC is charged with the important role of preventing fraud in our securities markets. Though its enforcement of the anti-fraud provisions of the securities laws, the SEC builds confidence of investors and makes our financial markets liquid and transparent.

My analysis of the provisions of S. 942 indicates that the bill will not have any negative effect on the enforcement activities of the SEC. We will not tolerate, and this bill does
