

GONZALEZ] is recognized during morning businesses for 2 minutes.

Mr. GONZALEZ. Mr. Speaker, this is a tremendously mixed emotional feeling for me.

SAM GIBBONS is an ideal American: He is absolutely honest; he is courageous in every sense of the word; he cares about his fellow human beings; and he is a public servant of the highest integrity, the deepest commitment, and the most dogged determination. SAM GIBBONS is everything that anyone could ever hope to see in a friend, a neighbor, a soldier and an elected representative. SAM is the kind of man you are grateful to know and happy to serve with. If you had the ability to pick and choose who you would have for a friend and colleague. SAM would always be first on the list.

Others have or will speak about SAM's history as a D-day paratrooper, and of the details of his long and distinguished career. But I want simply to say that SAM is a decent man, the kind we all look up to, and the kind we always wish we could be.

One thing about SAM GIBBONS: He fights for what he believes in and for what he knows is right. He is not afraid to challenge the kind of arbitrary and frankly brutal behavior of the current majority in this House; nor does he shade the truth when it comes to the tough issues we face. He's old-fashioned in that regard: A gentleman whenever he can be, and a fighter if he has to be.

SAM is one we can always count on to be fair, and to be square with us. His word is never open to question: When he makes a commitment, he means it and he stays with it.

I've not always agreed with the actions of the Committee on Ways and Means—who does? But one thing I have always known is that if SAM says that a bill or a provision is good, you can trust his judgment. And if SAM says that he can't help you or can't agree with you, he'll give you a reason that you can both understand and respect. That's the kind of friend and colleague this House depends on. And that's the kind of person every American should want to represent them in the House.

Not many people have had a life as filled with adventure and challenge as SAM has. And very few who have had such distinguished lives and careers are as modest and self-effacing as SAM is. It's a measure of his greatness, that he maintains—and always has maintained—a sense of balance and proportion. SAM knows what really counts, and he doesn't forget it.

The House of Representatives has been enriched and enlivened by SAM GIBBONS. He has brought us life and light. He's been a friend to many, many people, and a model for all of us. I've known thousands of Members in my career here, and none has been more respected than SAM GIBBONS. He is a great representative for his district and for the whole country. When he leaves, the House will be diminished. I'm glad to have known him, privileged to have served with him, and happy to join in this well-deserved tribute. Thank you, SAM, for being an ideal American, a great friend, and an outstanding colleague.

SAM GIBBONS WILL BE MISSED DEEPLY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. LEVIN] is recognized during morning business for 2 minutes.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I first came really to know SAM GIBBONS and his wife, Martha, on what is now a rather famous bus trip to Eastern Europe. I think I was just a freshman then; not on the Committee on Ways and Means. SAM was good enough to invite me.

No junket was that. We worked 12 hours, sometimes 14 hours a day. We went to Czechoslovakia, to Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary, and we went to most of those places by bus. Mr. Speaker, I saw firsthand what SAM GIBBONS was really like. Hard working, down to earth, good natured, generous. He made sure that each of us had a crack at introducing the delegation to the distinguished, and not so distinguished in some cases, leaders of those countries.

Then, Mr. Speaker, I joined the Committee on Ways and Means and since then I have had a chance to work firsthand with SAM GIBBONS, to work on trade. He and I have not always agreed, but one thing all of us agree on and that is the caliber of leadership and commitment of SAM GIBBONS.

He has been compared to some other famous people. Claude Pepper, for example, another favorite son of Florida. But I do not think you can compare SAM with anyone. He is very much his own person. He is very much a real article.

SAM, you care so much, you have such a sense of commitment. So, I am not sure why you are leaving. I think maybe it is because his main passion is not for power; it is for public service. I think there is some hint that SAM is going to remain very much a public figure.

I close with this, SAM. I think with your streak of modesty you do not really know how much you are going to be missed. The answer is, very deeply.

SAM GIBBONS: A LIFE OF EXTRAORDINARY SUCCESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. PAYNE] is recognized during morning business for 2 minutes.

Mr. PAYNE of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentlewoman from California [Ms. PELOSI].

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. PAYNE] for yielding, and since he only has 2 minutes I will not take much of this time except to join my colleagues in commending SAM GIBBONS, a great leader in the Congress of the United States; a leader on the issues; and, a gentleman at all times.

Mr. PAYNE of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleague from Florida, Ms. BROWN, for requesting this special order to honor our good friend and colleague, Chairman SAM GIBBONS.

Many years ago, Teddy Roosevelt compared success in life to success in football. The key to success in both, he said, is to hit the line hard day after day.

Those of us who have served with SAM GIBBONS know that by this or any other measure, he has been an extraordinary success.

For his entire adult life, SAM GIBBONS has served this nation with courage and tenacity. From the day more than a half-century ago when he took part in the D-day invasion, to his passionate defense in this Congress of the millions of Americans who depend on Medicare, SAM GIBBONS has always put his Nation first.

I first came to know SAM well through my service on the House Ways and Means Committee. I remember the very difficult circumstances under which he assumed the chair. SAM took over the committee without a hitch. His approach was inclusive and thoughtful and was marked by a great sense of bipartisanship.

Chairman GIBBONS will always be remembered for his passionate defense of the nation's senior citizens and poor, for his tireless work on behalf of free and open trade, and for his advocacy of a fair, and equitable, and economically efficient Tax Code.

SAM GIBBONS is the consummate southern gentleman, and I am proud to call him my friend.

Mr. Speaker, as SAM and Martha enter this new phase of their lives, I know the whole House of Representatives joins me in wishing him well.

A TRIBUTE TO SAM GIBBONS, A FRIEND OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from the Virgin Islands [Mr. FRAZER] is recognized during morning business for 1 minute.

Mr. FRAZER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to add my voice to my colleagues who have recognized, as many of us feel, the untimely departure of Mr. GIBBONS, but I am sure he is moving on to bigger and better things.

As a representative of the Virgin Islands, where we have no vote in this body, I would like to recognize the assistance that Mr. GIBBONS has given the Virgin Islands. As those issues that affect the Virgin Islands have come before his committee, I have always been able to go to him and ask him to make sure that he looks out for American citizens who happen to reside in the Virgin Islands, but in fact have no real voice in this institution.

So, Mr. GIBBONS, I thank you for the assistance that you have offered the
