

in our market rank as our number-three and number-four advertisers. Our success in retaining these important advertisers is clearly a result of our ability to provide more than "traditional" newspaper advertising services. Circulation is an area that poses a special challenge for us, because we are in a shrinking marketplace—with a trend of outmigration of people from our core market. Even so, among major metropolitan newspapers in the United States, we rank first in circulation penetration in our home county—with 54% penetration daily and 72% on Sunday. And despite three suggested retail price increases in three years, we have maintained circulation levels of about 400,000 daily and 550,000 Sunday. This is largely a result of gearing the Circulation Division's efforts toward establishing a productive and efficient distribution system that provides both outstanding service and professionalism. Going forward, it requires building our ability to distribute an evermore narrowly targeted product.

We are also working to create an environment that enables our independent distributors to succeed, by improving communications, offering incentives and sponsoring seminars to help them run their operations profitably. And, to reduce the handling of money, we worked with Diebold Incorporated, the nation's leading maker of automated teller machines, to develop an ATM-like machine in which independent distributors can deposit their receipts at the depots. Considerable attention is being focused on single-copy sales, as well. We have worked hard over the past several years to improve our relationships with vendors and to develop the capability to determine by computer just how many newspapers should be placed at each location each day to avoid sell-outs and reduce returns. Our continuing community outreach efforts are helping us learn the concerns of various ethnic and nationality groups as well as young people, our readers of tomorrow. And within The Plain Dealer, we are working hard to get every one of our more than 1,600 employees committed to our vision of being the finest newspaper in the United States. Over the past 18 months, I have met with virtually every one of our employees, usually in groups of no more than 25 over breakfast or lunch. I have found these sessions insightful and invaluable in truly keeping a finger on the pulse of our newspaper.

As I mentioned at the outset, two significant factors have emerged during the past couple of years—newsprint costs and the Internet. In addressing these factors, it is interesting that we find ourselves dealing with "webs" in both cases. At The Plain Dealer, part of our efforts to reduce our newsprint consumption was a reduction in or web width this past February. The conversion went without a hitch, and the change in widths is imperceptible. Nevertheless, we expect savings of upwards of $1 million a year in our newsprint costs. The other "web," of course, is the burgeoning World Wide Web. As part of our vision for the future, we formed a wholly owned subsidiary this past year that specializes in developing Internet sites. In connection with this, we are actively working with advertisers and potential advertisers to identify opportunities for increased business. For example, recently we worked with the local Auto Dealers Association to provide a web site in connection with a major Auto Show.

Our first venture onto the Internet was rockhall.com, our very successful Web site for Cleveland's new Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum. The site has recorded more than 20 million "page impressions" since its debut last August and has been named a "cool site" by many publications. In addition to features about the Hall of Fame and its inductees, the site offers a link that features information on Cleveland restaurants, hotels and museums. At The Plain Dealer, our vision of the future is very clear—the newspaper will remain our core business for as long as we can foresee. In fact, with the support of the Newhouse organization we are betting more than $200 million on this vision, represented by our new plant.

On June 5, 1994, at the formal dedication of The Plain Dealer's Tiedeman Production and Distribution Center, the symbolism was reassuring: it was young Andrew Newhouse who pushed the button to start the presses! Yet, like most of you, we are exploring and entering new areas to meet changing needs and a changing world. Indeed, in all that we do, we are acting to shape our future so it does not become necessary to react to save our existence. Most of us in this room have dedicated our lives to newspapers. For us, nothing beats the roar of the presses, and we believe nothing can ever replace the depth and breadth of information newspapers present. In the current environment, however, we need to work harder than ever to ensure that newspapers remain a vital part of our children's lives—and our grandchildren's lives—as well.

NORTH CAROLINA IS HOME TO A GREAT SOCCER TRADITION

HON. HOWARD COBLE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 1996

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, the State of North Carolina is home to a great soccer tradition, particularly in women's soccer. This year, Mr. Speaker, the Sixth District of North Carolina is proud to add two more chapters to this outstanding tradition.

North Carolina has long divided its schools into classifications to determine sports champions. That way schools of equal size can compete fairly. This system also allows more schools the opportunity to compete for titles and trophies. We are proud to say, Mr. Speaker, that the Piedmont Triad is the home of the North Carolina 1A/2A/3A and the North Carolina 4A women's soccer champions for 1996.

The Ragsdale High School Tigers of Jamestown, NC, captured the 1996 1A/2A/3A State women's soccer championship, and the Whirlies of Grimsley High School in Greensboro, NC, claimed the 4A women's soccer championship. Both teams were crowned champions on June 1 in Raleigh, NC.

In the 1A/2A/3A class, the Ragsdale Tigers captured the State title with a 3 to 0 shutout of the Asheville Roberson Rams, limiting the Rams to just four shots on goal all game. The championship win capped off a brilliant 23–3 season for coach Brien Braswell's squad. The Ragsdale Tigers have been outstanding in the championships, claiming two State titles in the last 3 years.

Congratulations go to Sarah Judy, who won the championship game's Most Valuable Player Award. Mr. Speaker, congratulations on a great season are in order for Coach Braswell, manager Joey Menendez, Trainer Julie Hutchens, and team members Cindy Mullinix, Kyleen Hudson, Kelly Martin, Kristin Wittenborn, Anna Dellosa, Jordan Allison, Erin Beeson, Paige Waggoner, Vickie Cortes, Nicole Brannan, Ashline Green, Christie Dixon, Lindsey Moorefield, Laura Pendergrass, Ryan Andres, Danielle Gain, Emily McCoy, Cari Hammond, Michelle Pizzuro, Becky Garmon, Amanda Holtzman, Meg Herndon, and Kellie Dixon.

To athletic director Mike Raybon, principal Dr. Kathryn Rogers, the faculty, staff, students, parents, and friends of Ragsdale High School, we offer our congratulations for winning the North Carolina 1A/2A/3A State women's soccer championship.

Raleigh also was the site of another Sixth District high school State championship. The women's soccer team of Grimsley High School in Greensboro, NC, captured the 1996 State 4A women's soccer championship, defeating the Raleigh Broughton High School Caps 2 to 1. The victory moved the Grimsley Whirlies to a stellar record of 21–1–1 for the 1996 season.

The State championship was the third in 5 years for the Whirlies, and the win was truly a team effort. As Coach Herk DeGraw put it, "This one is sweet. Everybody stepped up and did their jobs extremely well."

Congratulations go to Laurie Benson, who won the championship game's Most Valuable Player Award. Congratulations are also in order for team members Meagan Renn, Cori Stevens, Lacy Ross, Sarah Ann Davis, Mollie Lynch, Meredith Seawell, Sarah Atkinson, Mikel Casey, Kristy Shumate, Kelly Clark, Jennifer Marsh, Carrie Anderson, Jamie Bombart, Kristen Moody, Courtney Black, Jessica Overby, and Ashley Andringa.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the citizens of the Sixth District of North Carolina, let me congratulate the 1996 Grimsley Whirlies on their State championship. Congratulations to head coach Herk DeGraw, assistant coach Susie Williams, announcer Dick Forrester, faculty trainer Joe Franks, student trainer Pablo Torrente, and statisticians Lisa Evans, Zach Wineberg, Tyler Spence, and Mike Cleaver.

To athletic director Bob Sawyer, principal Tom Penlend, the faculty, staff, students, parents, and friends of Grimsley High School, we offer our congratulations on winning the North Carolina 4A State women's soccer championship.

Once again, North Carolina remains a soccer hotbed and the Sixth District is proud to claim two more champions.

NORTH PONTOTOC STUDENT, ABIGAIL HAMILTON, IS DISTRICT WINNER IN RESPECTEEN SPEAK FOR YOURSELF PROGRAM

HON. ROGER F. WICKER

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 1996

Mr. WICKER. Mr. Speaker, more than 15,000 seventh- and eighthgrade students around the country participated in this year's RespecTeen Speak for Yourself social studies curriculum program, which teaches young people about the political process. The program is part of the Lutheran Brotherhood's philanthropic initiative in support of our Nation's youth.

One of the final lessons in the program included having students write their Members of Congress to express their views or offer solutions to issues of interest. The letters were judged by a panel of educators and one winner was chosen in each congressional district. A seventh-grade student from North Pontotoc Attendance Center was selected as the winner from Mississippi's First Congressional District. Her name is Abigail Hamilton. Abigail wrote to me regarding prayer in our public schools.

I wanted to share Abigail's letter with my colleagues and congratulate her for participating in this program.

SPEAK FOR YOURSELF,
Ecru, MS, January 30, 1996.

Hon. ROGER WICKER,
*U.S. Representative,
Washington, DC.*

DEAR CONGRESSMAN WICKER: How would you feel if one day someone suddenly said you could no longer continue a tradition? Devastated? Grieved? This scenario describes what had been done to students, teachers, and the community of North Pontotoc. A tradition of student-initiated, student-led, prayer was taken from us. For approximately 20 years, we had this type prayer in our school.

On December 20, 1994, Mrs. Lisa Herdahl with the ACLU and People for the American Way filed a lawsuit against Pontotoc County Schools for having student-led, student-initiated prayer over the school's intercom. A court injunction last spring stopped prayer over the intercom. The court date deciding whether to continue student-initiated prayer is March 4, 1996 at federal court in Oxford, Mississippi.

George Washington warned: "reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle." Research proves the accuracy of his warning. Birth rates for teenagers and cases of sexually transmitted diseases have risen since 1962. Also, SAT test scores have plummeted for 18 consecutive years since that year. What happened in 1962? The Supreme Court took prayer out of public school with the Engel case.

I support you co-authoring the school prayer amendment with Congressman Istook from Oklahoma. Please participate in the meeting to force this amendment to the House floor, and do not allow compromises that would defeat the purpose of this amendment. I wouldn't want a government written prayer or mandatory participation in devotion. I trust you are influencing other congressmen to be co-signers of this amendment.

Our Constitution guarantees us freedom of speech and religion. However, should one person be allowed to dictate the beliefs of a community? Thomas Jefferson said: "The will of the majority, the natural law of every society, is the only sure guardian of the rights of man."

Sincerely,

ABIGAIL HAMILTON,
7th grader NPAC.

PRESIDENT VISITS YOUNG RESIDENTS OF HOMELESS SHELTER IN MOSCOW

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 1996

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I rise to note and commend the President for taking the time during his recent trip to Moscow to meet with, and encourage the work of Alexander Ogorodnikov, a former political prisoner and founder of the Christian Mercy Society. Alexander Ogorodnikov established a private shelter for young homeless from all over Russia who find themselves on the streets of Moscow without a roof over their heads. During the Moscow G-7 Nuclear Security Summit in April, President Clinton visited a number of the residents of the shelter.

Naturally, Mr. Ogorodnikov's work has been very challenging. After 70 years of communism, the institution of private charity has been slow to make a comeback. Resources are scarce; property rights are unclear. Bureaucrats often seem more determined to stifle than assist private initiative. Criminal structures would prefer that idle hands look in the direction of criminal activity for sustenance and livelihood. Nevertheless, Mr. Ogorodnikov has persisted. His efforts have been reported and applauded by the Moscow press, and Mayor Luzkkov's office has been supportive of his work. Some international organizations are providing a measure of assistance.

As Moscow was preparing for the Summit, Mr. Ogorodnikov had invited President Clinton to visit the Christian Mercy Society shelter to observe private charity in action in Russia. This request was forwarded through the Beautiful Hearts charitable organization of Erie, PA, and by many Members of the Congress of both parties. For logistical and security reasons, the President was unable to visit the shelter itself, but Mr. Ogorodnikov and his Beautiful Hearts associates had arranged an exhibit about the shelter at a Moscow hotel where the President had other meetings scheduled. Despite the heavy demands on his schedule, President Clinton graciously visited the exhibit and met with some of the young residents.

Mr. Speaker, the G-7 Nuclear Security Summit was about providing nuclear safety in our uneasy world, about governments cooperating with one another to reduce danger to millions of people. Security can also be a function of mutual understanding and having genuine concern—even across borders—for other human beings, one for another. By visiting the young people of the Christian Mercy Society shelter, President Clinton exhibited that concern on behalf of all of us here in the United States, and I appreciate his kind gesture.

TRIBUTE TO MICHAEL STEVENS

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 1996

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today and pay tribute to a celebrated community servant, Mr. Michael Stevens. On Friday, June 21, 1996, Michael, along with his friends and family, will celebrate his retirement from the Iron Workers Union Local No. 395 in Hammond, IN. This retirement dinner will be held at St. Elijah Serbian-American Hall in Merrillville, IN.

We are all fortunate to have dedicated people, like Michael, involved in the labor movement in Indiana's First Congressional District. Michael embarked on his distinguished career as an iron worker in local No. 392 in East St. Louis, IL, in June of 1966. He then moved to northwest Indiana and joined Iron Workers Local No. 395 in Hammond in September 1967.

In May, 1974, he suffered from a disabling fall on the job. During his convalescence, Michael earned a degree from Mineral Area College in Missouri. Following his graduation in June 1979, he returned to ironworking out of local No. 395 in September of that same year.

In 1981, Michael was elected to the local No. 395's examining board. In 1981, 1986, and 1991, Michael was elected to represent local No. 395 as a convention delegate. In 1984, Michael was elected as local No. 395's financial secretary-treasurer and he was re-elected for three more terms in 1987, 1990, 1993. Michael retired this year after 30 years as a member of local No. 395, 15 years as an officer, and 4 terms as local No. 395's financial secretary-treasurer.

I offer my heartfelt congratulations to Michael, his wife, Bonnie, and his two children, Tina and Byron. They can all be proud, as Michael has worked arduously in the labor movement to make the American dream possible for others. Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to congratulate Michael, who has proven himself to be a distinguished advocate for the labor movement. I sincerely wish Michael a long, happy, and productive retirement.

TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM SINCLAIR

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 1996

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. William Sinclair. Please join me in congratulating Bill as he retires after spending almost two decades as the city manager of my hometown, St. Joseph, MI. For 18 great years he has dedicated his hard work and efforts into making St. Joseph a quality city and a great a place to call home.

Bill's career in public service reaches back to 1954 when began working as a surveyor and cartographer for the city of Detroit. His time in Detroit was interrupted for 2 years by a tour of duty in the U.S. Army. After spending a few more years in Detroit, Bill lent his engineering expertise to the cities of Birmingham and Rochester before calling the west side of the State his new home.

He has also been active in other aspects of the community. Bill has served on the Twin Cities Airport Board, the Harbor Authority, and has been a fixture in the Michigan Municipal League.

Over the past 18 years, local officials, city councils, businesses, and residents, alike, have all correctly sung the praises of this wonderful civic leader. He has been a fixture in our community and an integral part of its growth. His dedication, vision, and commitment has been an important ingredient in the rebirth of the twin cities area.

Mr. Speaker, I have been lucky enough to work with Bill Sinclair on many different occasions. Time and time again I have counted on Bill for his assistance, his advice and his abundant energy. I know that though Bill is officially retiring, looking out for the best interests of the people of the St. Joseph-Benton Harbor area will continue to be a major focal point in his life. Someone this dedicated simply could not have it any other way.

Mr. Speaker, please join with me on behalf of the people of Michigan's Sixth Congressional District in thanking Bill Sinclair for 18
