The amendment (No. 4346) was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 4347

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The pending business is amendment No. 4347. The yeas and nays have been ordered.

Mr. NUNN. Mr. President, is there any debate time on this amendment?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are 2 minutes equally divided, 1 minute per side.

Mr. NUNN. Mr. President, I do not see the chairman on the floor. I suggest that Senator DOMENICI, the Senator from New Mexico, handle the opposition to this amendment. And I agree with every word he is likely to say.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico is recognized for 1 minute.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, we have now voted eight different times to keep the defense number intact. On the last occasion we made it comply with the budget resolution, so we all agreed with that.

What Senator WELLSTONE chooses to do is to take our votes where we have said we did not want to take money out of the defense, and he suggests that we should get rid of the firewalls, which we voted to keep in place by giving the Secretary of Defense the authority to appropriate $1.3 billion for education, and other welfare programs.

The reason we have had firewalls is because we do not want to put the defense of our Nation into competition with other social welfare and education programs that very well could need money. In this case, it is a roundabout way of destroying the firewalls, and it ought to be denied because we voted twice to maintain them. This is a roundabout way to deny and defeat what we have already voted for. I yield the floor.

Mr. GRAMM. Mr. President, I move to table.

Mr. WELLSTONE addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The request is out of order. The Senator from Minnesota is recognized for 1 minute.

Mr. WELLSTONE. I thank the Chair.

Mr. President, first of all, this gives the Secretary of Defense the opportunity to do this. It is not a violation of any firewall. There is no budget point of order. This is $1.3 billion. The reason it does not is because this is out of $267 billion. This is out of $13 billion, now $11 billion more than the Pentagon wanted.

It is simple. Do you spend the money on some of the add-on projects, some of what is not needed, or do you spend the money on higher education, Pell grants, student loans? It is a simple choice. It is hardly what I would call welfare in a pejorative sense. It is all about whether or not we are going to restore some of this funding up to the President's request level for higher education and opportunities for young people.

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, I move to table the amendment and ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second? There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays are ordered.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the motion to lay on the table the amendment of the Senator from Minnesota. The yeas and nays have been ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.
