□ 1421

The Clerk announced the following pairs:

On this vote:
Mr. Flanagan for, with Mr. Clay against.
Mr. Longley for, with Mr. Johnstn of Florida against.

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid upon the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I missed the last rollcall vote, rollcall 316, because I was trapped in the elevator. Had I been here I would have voted "no."

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Madam Speaker, I ask for this time for the purpose of asking the distinguished majority whip the schedule for the remainder of the week and next week.

Madam Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. DELAY].

Mr. DELAY. Madam Speaker, I thank the distinguished minority whip for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has concluded its legislative business for the week. We will next meet on Tuesday, July 16, at 10:30 a.m. for morning hour and 12 noon for legislative business. Members should note that the House will postpone recorded votes until 5 p.m. in accordance with an agreement with the minority to voice vote the rule on Treasury, Postal appropriations bill.

On Tuesday, Madam Speaker, the House will consider the following seven bills under suspension of the rules: H.R. 3166, The Government Accountability Act of 1996; H.R. 3458, the Veterans' Compensation Cost-of-Living Adjustment Act of 1996; H.R. 3643, Extending Benefits to Veterans Exposed to Agent Orange; H.R. 3673, The Veterans' Compensation and Readjustment Benefits Amendments of 1996; H.R. 3674, The Veterans' Education and Compensation Benefits Amendments of 1996; H.R. 361, The Omnibus Export Administration Act of 1995; and H.R. 3161, Extending Most-Favored-Nation Status to Romania.

After suspensions, we will take up under an open rule H.R. 3756, the Treasury, Postal Service and General Government appropriations bill.

On Wednesday, July 17, the House will turn to the Commerce, Justice, State and Judiciary appropriations bill, also subject to a rule.

On Thursday, July 18, we will consider H.R. 3760, Campaign Finance Reform and H.R. 3734, the Balanced Budget Reconciliation Act. Both bills, of course, will be subject to rules.

Members should note that next week will be a very busy week. We have a lot of important business to cover and it will probably be necessary to work very late on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. However, we will finish legislative business by 6 p.m. on Thursday, July 18.

Mr. BONIOR. Madam Speaker, I thank my colleague for his information, and I would ask my friend a couple of questions here. Will the welfare reform proposal be considered separately from Medicaid or will they be considered together as my colleague previously had planned?

Mr. DELAY. Madam Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. DELAY. We anticipate bringing welfare reform to the floor as a free-standing bill separate from Medicaid.

Mr. BONIOR. Reclaiming my time, I thank the gentleman for that answer.

The second question I have is on the rule and on debate time. Can my colleague or the gentleman from New York [Mr. SOLOMON], if he is here, give us any indication on how long we will have for debate in this particular rule or any information about the rule itself?

Mr. DELAY. If the gentleman will continue to yield, the Committee on Rules has not met yet on the welfare reform bill. We certainly want to work with the minority to make sure ample amount of debate time on this very important piece of legislation will be held, plus the fact that we want to make sure that every opportunity for the minority to have a substitute will be available to the minority.

Mr. BONIOR. Well, I thank my colleague for that assurance, because as we know, there are Members, most of the Members on our side, in fact, all the Members on our side have been deeply interested in the principle of getting people off welfare and into work. We are very much interested in assurance from my colleague, which I would believe we have just received, that we will have the opportunity to present a Democratic alternative to this body when the bill comes to the floor.

Mr. DELAY. If the gentleman would yield, I appreciate it, and I concur with the distinguished whip. I do point out that under the budget resolution, though, any substitute that would be allowed on the floor must conform to the budget resolution and therefore have to conform to the savings outlined in the budget resolution in the underlying bill.

Mr. BONIOR. I would ask my colleague from Texas about the reform week that was announced earlier in the summer by the majority. Several press reports have outlined six or seven reform bills which would be considered, and I am wondering what happened to that list of reforms. Are we going to have just the campaign finance reform bill next week? Is the majority going to have some additional suspension bills that were not listed in those that he read to us just a few minutes ago?
